CORNELIUS BUCKLEY is a native of County Cork, Ireland where his life began on October 23, 1834. His parents, Cornelius and Mary (Horrigan) Buckley were also born and reared in that county. During the war Mr. Buckley was in the Fifteenth Army corps under General John A. Logan. Mr. Buckley was married on September 29, 1867 to Miss Honora Power, like himself a native of County Cork, Ireland. She came to the United States in 1862 to join a sister here who was then living at Rockford, Illinois. Mr. and Mrs. Buckley have four children: Mary A., David J., Cornelius, Jr., and William J.

Page 639

DAVID J. BUCKLEY was born in the township of his present residence on May 29, 1870, and is a son of Cornelus and Honora (Power) Buckley. On September 8, 1906, Mr. Buckley was united in marriage with Miss Nell Bowyer, a daughter of Thomas B. and Mary A. (Alexander) Bowyer, of Linneus. Mr. and Mrs. Buckley have two children, their daughter Honora C. and John B.

ALPHA L. BURNS was born on a Linn county farm on January 19, 1879. He is a son of John T. and Mary (Joyce) Burns, the former a native of Ireland, born near Dublin, and the mother born in Linn county but of Irish parentage. They were the parents of twelve children, seven of whom are living: Thomas P., John E., a resident of Ashland, Montana; James H., who lives in Nebraska, Alph L., Charles B., Lola J., who is the wife of J. L. Morey, of St. Louis; and Theresa, who is a school teacher.

Thomas P. Burns, head of the firm of Burns, Burns & Burns, lawyers, and an older brother of Alpha, was born on June 14, 1868. On June 26, 1905, he was married to Miss Eleanor Downing of St. Louis.

Charles B. Burns, another member of this influential family and the third partner in the law firm, was born on March 6, 1881.

WILLIAM JEFFERSON BAKER, born on May 5, 1853, near North Salem, and he is a son of George and Isabel (McCollum) Baker, the former a native of Brown county, Indiana, and the latter of Linn county, Missouri. The father was born on July 1, 1837 not far from the city of Morgantown, in the Hoosier state. ...enlisting in the Twenty-fifth Missouri Infantry and remaining in the service four full years. On December 25, 1882, Mr. Baker was married to Miss Margaret Fosher, a daughter of Harrison and Margaret (Hays) Fosher. Six children were born of the union: Curtis C., Daisy A., who is the wife of T. D. Robinson, of Koshkonong, Oregon county, in this state; Roy E., Fred E., Nellie, and William H. The mother of these children died on April 21, 1895 and on November 9, 1898 the father contracted a second marriage, uniting with Miss Nora M. Bunch, a daughter of David S. and Binda (Cook) Bunch. By this second marriage Mr. Baker has become the father of five children: Josie Alethea, Hazel Irene, Leona May, Martin Jefferson and Ralph.

COL. E. C. BROTT was born in Bath, Steuben county, New York, on December 7, 1824. His parents were Martin and Esther (Crandall) Brott, the former a native of New York state and the latter of Hartford, Connecticut. Judge Brott was married in Illinois on February 15, 1848, to Miss Frances Vickery, a daughter of Ebenezer and Esther K. (Sheldon) Vickery, old residents of Tompkins county, New York, where Mrs. Vickery was born. She died on July 19, 1887, and all but three of her seven children are also dead. The three who are living are: Edwin B., a resident of the state of Nebraska; Katharine, the widow of the late W. H. Truax, whose home is in Delaware; and Susan E., who is the wife of J. V. McCune.

JUDGE WILLIAM H. BROWNLEE--The death of this venerable and venerated citizen and professional man, whose end came on January 10, 1909, in Brookfield, Linn county, of which he had been a mature resident for forty years, prominent in his profession and as a banker during the greater part of the time, cast the gloom a heavy bereavement over all classes of the people in this county. His father, John Brownlee, was born in Carlisle, Pennsylvania, and served in the War of 1812 from that state and died in Indiana in 1855.

CHARLES W. CLEMENTS was born in the state of Delaware, city of Wilmington, on August 29, 1868, son of the late Richard W. Clements. He was married on February 16, 1891, to Miss Lena Perry, a daughter of John and Susan (Wadsworth) Perry, of the state of Oregon. Nine children have been born of the union, two of whom, Charles and Max, have died. Those who are living are Milton W., Fay S., Richard W., Keith, Mary O., Byron H. W. and Adelbert E.

CARROLL L. CLEMENTS, a younger brother and business partner of Charles W., was born in the state of Maryland, on February 13, 1871. Mr. Clements was married on February 16, 1891, to Miss Mary A. Miles, a daughter of Levi and Mary B. (Hamilton) Miles. The four children are: Raymond L., Easter D., Vernon R. and Muriel A.

461 RICHARD W. CLEMENTS, who died on February 16, 1909, after a residence of thirty-two year in Brookfield, was born in Wilmington, Delaware, on August 28, 1842. His parents, Joel W. and Margaret (Lamden) Clements were also Delawareans. Mr. Clements was married in Delaware, on November 20, 1863, to Miss Martha E. Jackson. They became the parents of eleven children, six of whom are living: J. Watson, Charles W. Carroll L., Mabel E., Harry H., and Albert R.

Page 459 JOEL W. CLEMENTS was born September 5, 1864 in Maryland, and he is a son of Richard W. Clements. On Dec. 23, 1885, Mr. Clements was joined in marriage with Miss Phoebe L. McNish, a native of Ontario, Canada. She is a daughter of George and Levina McNish. Mr. and Mrs. Clements have had six children, five of whom are living: George W., Laura L., Levina M., Joel, and Grace E.

ROBERT W. DAVIS was born in Lewis county, New York, on October 4, 1842, and died at Brookfield, May 31, 1912. He was a son of William and Susan (Williams) Davis, also natives of the state of New York. He died there in 1900. His widow also died in that state, passing away in 1906. They were the parents of six children, three of whom are living, Robert being the only one residing in Missouri. The others are: David H., a missionary in China and connected with the Chinese government in an official capacity; Charles M., and Henry E. Their paternal grandfather was Benjamin Davis, a native of New York. Mr. Davis was married three times. His first wife, whom he married in 1867, died in 1871. In 1873 he was united with Miss Helen E. Clarke, a daughter of A. O. and Fannie (Holloway) Clarke. This union resulted in two children: Mabel F., the wife of Leon R. Lane of Topeka, Kans. and Albert C., a resident of Tulsa, Okla. Their mother died in 1891 and in 1894 the father married his last wife, whose maiden name was Katharine Roberts. They had: Robert V., Helen, Louise, Frances and Theodore.

DR. HAMILTON DEGRAW was born in Rockland county, New York, on Christmas day, 1816. Soon after his location in Brookfield he started the banking house of H. Degraw with himself as president, and his brother, the late Maj. W. H. DeGraw, as cashier. In 1882 he organized the Linn County Bank. Dr. DeGraw was married in Hannibal, Missouri, in 1868, to Miss Mary P. Dick. Two children were born of this union, their son, Richard X, and their daughter Myo.

CHARLES WILLIS GREEN was born in Lake county, Ohio, on July 29, 1860. He is a son of Nelson and Maria C. (Williams) Green. The father died in 1908. The mother is still living in Brookfield. They became the parents of two children, their son, Charles, and their daughter Alma, who is now the wife of W. A. Kaup. The grandfather, Jesse Green, was born and reared in Massachusetts, then moved to Lake county, Ohio. Charles W. Green was first married in September 1885 to Miss Nellie J. Jones, a daughter of Rev. Thomas A. and Jane Jones and by this marriage became the father of one child, his daughter, Frances Loraine, who is now a teacher. Her mother died on December 10, 1896 and on November 2, 1899, he was united with Miss Florence Burnett, a daughter of James and Mary (Ware) Burnett. Of this union two children were born, Howard Elliott and Marion.

DR. ROBERT HALEY, this eminent physician and surgeon, who is well and favorably known in all parts of Missouri, and is everywhere held in the highest esteem, was born in Ontario, Canada, on April 12, 1859. The doctor's parents, James and Mary (Hawkens) Haley, were natives of Canada also, but were born on the province of New Brunswick. Dr. Haley has been twice married. His first union of this kind was with Miss Emma Redding, and occurred in 1885. They had two children, one of whom died. The living son, Roy, is a student at the State University. His mother died in 1891, and in 1896 the father married Miss Jessie Turner, of Linn county. They have one child, their son Jesse.

JAMES R. HUFFAKER, M. D. was born in Baker Township, Linn county, on March 17, 1847, the son of John W. and Eliza (Long) Huffaker. The father was a native of Indiana, and came from Illinois to Missouri in 1842, with his father. On May 26, 1874, Dr. Huffaker united in marriage with Miss Dora Rooker, a native of Tennessee. They have had three children: Edith, the wife of W. C. Huffaker of Texarkana, Texas; Mabel, who died some years ago; and Elva S., wife of I. B. Cooper.
