Who were the parents of Christine Chloe BENTZ born ca. 1838 Baden-Baden, Germany? She came to the United States with her family ca. 1847-54. She married William H. HERDLE prior to 1858. Where? He was 29, and she was 22. One child - aged 2 years, born in California. Family later settled in Tehama co. where William died 1886 and Christine 1904. Christine had known brothers: Frederick BENTZ, naturalized PA 1854; John George BENTZ and Charles BENTZ were naturalized Territory of Idaho 1868. One should carefully read the surname index published in each issue of the GENEALOGICAL HELPER magazine. David Crombie found an ad in a back issue offering a $25 reward for the parents of David Davis McKown. David's gt-grandfather was Charles W. McKown, who had a brother, David Davis McKown. David wrote the lady sending some information he had on his McKowns. It turned out his gt-grandfather was a brother of the lady's grandfather, David Davis McKown. Besides collecting the reward, David found a new cousin - 79 years old. He was able to add one generation and part of another for the lady. She, in turn sent him a lot of information she had gathered on the other brothers of David Davis and Charles W. McKown. Now they are working together.

In 1864, Martha Jane Hunter Scott came by wagon train to California settling in Indiana Ranch, Yuba county. She is long gone and her home no longer exists. The only thing that remains of her life in Indiana Ranch is a white rose bush, still alive, she brought with her from Iowa in 1864. (Marnelle M. Saunders - Sacramento)

JOHNSTON/

Thomas Courtland JOHNSTON born 4 May 1861, supposedly in Sutter or Butte co - not sure. (Obit. and his marriage license say Sutter co) He married on 11 June 1889 Ella Martha MACKIE. He died in Gridley 8 November 1913. According to his death certificate, his father was Thomas JOHNSTON and his mother was Sarah OWEN. Thomas Courtland JOHNSTON is supposed to have been the youngest of 11 children. The family is supposed to have lived in the Buttes area.
