Lonnie Dudley & Vivian Lewis

Mr. Lonnie D. Dudley and Ms. Vivian J. Lewis (Jeanie) invite you to share their day of bliss as they unite in holy matrimony, Saturday, January 2, 1999, at the Shiloh Baptist Church, 1311 N. 7th St., Atchison, Kansas, 3 p.m.

When love is destined, even time cannot deny it. Lonnie and Vivian dated casually at Atchison High School 30 year ago. The summer of 1998 at a High School Reunion, they renewed their friendship. Lonnie was working in Minneapolis and Vivian was living in Houston. They maintained contact after the reunion through calling cards. Three months and dozens of cards later, Vivian visited Lonnie in Columbia, Missouri. This short visit ignited a flame. Lonnie asked Vivian for a lifetime together. They both knew this opportunity to love one another was a miraculous blessing.

A reception will follow the ceremony at the Bellevue Country Club, 10811 Country Club Road, Atchison, Kansas. The reception begins at 7 p.m. with a cash bar.

The Farewell Breakfast will be Sunday, January 3, 1999, at the Time Out Restaurant, 337 S. 10th, at 9 a.m.

Lodging is available at the Comfort Inn, 509 S. 9th, Atchison, Kansas, (913) 367-7666. Specify the Lewis-Dudley wedding when making reservations.

Following the wedding a reception, buffet, and dance was held at St. Ann's Parish Center in Effingham. Serving the cake was Julie Wood and Shelby Plattner, cousin of the bride. After a honeymoon in Las Vegas, Nevada, the couple resides in Meriden, Kansas.

Mr. & Mrs. Patrick Hrenshir

Elizabeth Marie Sittenauer daughter of Isidor and Wanda Sittenauer and Patrick Ryan Hrenshir, son of Vincent and Joan Hrenshir were united in marriage November 28, 1998, at 1 p.m., at Assumption Catholic Church in Topeka with Father John Rossiter officiating.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She wore a gown of ivory matte satin which featured a semi-cathedral length train. The dress bodice and long sleeves were covered with pearls and lace and featured a sweetheart neckline. Her chapel veil was decorated with pearls and had a venetian headpiece with lace and pearls. Her bouquet was made of pink roses, queen Anne's lace carnations, ivy and baby's breath.

Debra Reid, Basehor, Kansas, sister of the bride was her personal attendant.

Connie Baumgartner, Atchison, friend of the bride, was maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Jennifer Bertus and Rebecca Reid nieces of the bride. The bride's attendants wore matching burgundy satin gowns.

Flower girls were Katelyn Bertus, nieces of the bride and Emily and Erin Hrenshir, nieces of the groom.

Their dresses were identical to the bridesmaid's.

The mother of the bride wore a street length navy blue velvet and lace dress.

The mother of the groom wore a street length burgundy satin and lace dress.

The groom wore a black tuxedo with black paisley vest and tail coat.

Best man was Timothy Hrenshir, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Robert and Daniel Hrenshir, brothers of the groom.

Ushers were Greg Osterhaus and Mike Rudolph, cousins of the groom, and Charles Steinkuenler and Kevin Carrico, friends of the groom.

Ring bearer was Joshua Bertus, nephew of the bride.

They and both fathers were dressed similar to the groom.

Organist was John Dale.

Vocalists were Shari Reilly, friend of the bride and Ed Hrenchir, cousin of the groom.

Offertory gift bearers were Shannon and Jesse Willett, cousins of the bride, all of Atchison. Communion distributors were Jim and Carlene Sullivan, aunts and uncles of the bride.

Cyndi Shermom, cousins of the groom, attended the guest book.

Reception table attendants were Marie Gunja and Patty Dumovich, cousins of the bride and Susan McCalla and Paula Koshiol, friends of the bride.

Bird seed distributors were Christen Bertus, nephew of the bride.

Following the afternoon reception there was an evening buffet and dance.

After a honeymoon in the Boston and New York areas the couple are at home in Topeka.
