DEDICATION

We, the Seniors, wish to dedicate this 1959 edition of "Bulldog Tales" to Mrs. Ava Boyd for serving eighteen years as head of the Lunch Staff. Her school spirit, cheerfulness, and pleasant disposition will always remain in the hearts of the Class of '59.

These...er...students...merely happy, carefree journalists, are rejoicing at the completion of their '59 BULLDOG TALES. You have a complaint to make? Due to circumstances beyond our control, please address all complaints to Ye Olde Nut House, Salem 3, Massachusetts. Deceased members may be found under all tombstones with epitaphs saying, "WE HATE YEARBOOKS!!"

DEAR MOM AND DAD,

REMEMBER that day, YEARS ago, when you took us by the hand and lead us into that great building. Few of us REALIZED that the steps we climbed that day could lead to such MEMORABLE EVENTS. Now we have climbed these steps for the last time; the SECOND flight looms before us.

As we RECALL the past, happy MEMORIES come to us; but NONE happier than our thoughts of you, MOM AND DAD. You gave us the strength and COURAGE to face the first flight of stairs.

Few of us can forget your love, guidance, and patience. Without your help we could NEVER have advanced this far in BECOMING good, useful citizens.

CLASS HISTORY

In 1955, Waverly High School opened its doors to thirty-six shy but enterprising Freshmen. The roll included the following students: Larry Allen, Marilyn Baker, Larry Barrett, Roy Bouse, Jerry Bowlin, Wilma Cook, Marvin Cromwell, Cliff Fischer, Monroe Foulk, Dianne Gifford, Richard Godden, Patty Hess, Jerry Isle, Stephen Johns, Shirley Johnson, Judy Kirkpatrick, Eugene Kunkel, Ronald McDonald, Pat Martindale, George Michael, Judy Nelson, Carol Northcott, Edwin Nutt, Oscar Kistner, Lynn Perry, Norma Pyle, John Schmid, Anthony Siebert, Stanley Snyder, Paul Turvey, Bence Williams, Jerry Williams, Joyce Williamson, Brenda Yockey, Karen Yockey, and Patty Yockey. The class elected the following officers: President, George Michael; Vice-President, Paul Turvey; Secretary, Brenda Yockey; Treasurer, Bence Williams; Student Council, Dianne Gifford and Ronald McDonald. Our sponsor this year was Coach Minnis. The big event for us this year was Freshman Initiation.

The next year we came back as Sophomores and old hands at the business. Our class officers were: President, Jerry Isle; Vice-President, Jerry Williams, Secretary and Treasurer, Carol Northcott; Reporter, Paul Turvey; Student Council, Judy Nelson and Bence Williams. Mr. Townner was our sponsor. While losing four students we gained three. The class lost Wilma Cook, Monroe Foulk, Joyce Williamson, and Brenda Yockey. We gained Ernestine Crouch, Harry Lyon, and Fred Fowler. Serving the Junior-Senior Banquet was the highlight of our second year.

As we climbed up the ladder of our high school days, we reached our exciting Junior year. We elected the following officers at our first class meeting: President, Cliff Fischer; Vice-President, Ronald McDonald; Secretary, Carol Northcott; Treasurer, Lynn Perry; Reporter, Judy Nelson; Student Council, Marilyn Baker and George Michael. This year's sponsors were Miss Keith and Mr. Bowersox. We selected the red rose as our class flower and red and white as our class colors. "Nothing Ventured, Nothing Gained" was chosen as our class motto. Our class roll lost Ernestine Crouch, Richard Godden, Marvin Cromwell, Bence Williams, Roy Bouse, and Larry Barrett but gained back Brenda Yockey. November 22, 1957 was the exciting night of our Junior Play. Under the supervision of our sponsors, we presented "Coveralls" to the public. On November 22, we received our class rings which we were all very eager to show off. On April 24, 1958, the class carried out the theme "Rendezvous of the Stars" at our Junior-Senior Banquet for our honored guests, the seniors of '58.

Upon reaching the fourth and final rung of our high school days, we were sad but proud of our achievements throughout the last three years. Class officers this year were: President, Jerry Isle; Vice-President, Stanley Snyder; Secretary, Cliff Fischer; Treasurer, Norma Pyle; Reporter, Lynn Perry; Student Council, Shirley Johnson and Eddie Nutt. Our sponsors were Mrs. Michael and Mrs. Speaks. We lost Patty Yockey, Harry Lyons, John Schmid, Jerry Bowlin, and Larry Allen, but the class gained Bill Cook. At the first of the year, feeling very proud, we initiated the future class of '62. We chose "Bulldog Tales" as the name of our annual. On April 24, the class presented "In Spring The Sap" to the public. This proved to be an entertaining evening for all. On April 30, we were the honored guests at the Junior-Senior Banquet. The theme "Song in My Heart" was beautifully carried out. On May 1, twenty-six restless and eager Seniors boarded a chartered bus and headed for our long-awaited "Senior Sneak" to be spent at The Lodge of the Ozarks. An enjoyable three days were spent sight-seeing, swimming, boat riding, dancing, and having fun. Baccalaureate Services were held on May 17, 1959, and Commencement Exercises on May 18, bringing our high school days to a close. Being full fledged graduates we are ready to become tomorrow's citizens.

CLASS PROPHECY

Hello friends, it surely is good to see all of you again. There are a lot of you here whom I haven't seen in years. Well, what do you know, I see Saint Peter just letting in some of my old students I had at Waverly back in 1959. Now that was a swell class! I can remember how they all used to stop by my office and see me quite often. In case you don't know who I am yet, I'm Mr. K. H. Poppe. I used to live on earth but I've been up here with Saint Peter for ten years. It's the year 2000 now. But, let's see who just came in from the class of '59. In fact, let's look up all the other Seniors of '59.

I see someone down there on earth, but I can't quite make out who it is because of the clouds. Now I can see - - - the clouds are parting. Why - - - it's Marilyn Baker! Now what has she been doing? Oh yes, she's a career woman as well as a wife and mother, the mother of quadruplets and the wife of Jerry Williams. As Jerry is gone quite a bit, Marilyn's other career is just taking care of the farm. As she takes care of the farm, you can guess who takes care of the checkbook.

Wild Bill Cook is first assistant to Scotty Kane as mechanic at Rogers Motors now. I guess the only thing wrong with Bill is that he talks too much and doesn't get much done. Bill learned a lot about body fixing after someone wrecked his car while he was on the Senior Sneak. Bill is still grateful to the person for giving him the opportunity to fix wrecked cars.

After graduating from Emporia State, Cliff Fischer dyed his skin and got a job playing basketball with the Harlem Globetrotters but had to quit before long because his color wore off. Now he and his wife, the former Carol Northcott, are raising little basketball players of their own while living in a tent west of town.

Fred Fowler really does take life easy now as he fell in love with a Hollywood movie star. Fred always said it was just as easy to fall in love with someone rich as with someone poor.

Mrs. Gerald Ragin, formerly Patty Hess, is quite happy now running a resort, with the help of her family, on the Lake of the Ozarks. She enjoyed herself so much on the Sneak that she talked Gerald into moving there.

Jerry Isle has really come up in the world. He just stepped up from township ditch-digger to township coal-grader. He got his big chance when his dad retired. Jerry is married to the former Cheryl Vuncannon.

The surprise of the class is Steve Johns; quiet Steve turned over a new leaf after graduating from W.H.S. and is now living quite comfortably in Arabia with his harem of 39 girls. He supports his wives by running an oil well.

Dianne Gifford finally married her high school sweetheart, Paul Turvey. They still fight all the time but they are in love. Dianne is kept pretty busy looking after their pigs and kids.

Shirley Johnson has a job working in a water-front fish market at Garnett Lake selling fish. Shirley is mourning the death of her fifth husband whom she pushed off the boat dock because he broke her rod and reel.

Judy Kirkpatrick and her husband, Henry Kahle, are employed locally at our missile base northwest of town; they light all the fuses for out-going rockets.

Oscar Kistner and his wife Lynda have taken over Oscar's father-in-law's farm and are making money hand over fist. Oscar was just given Coffey County's "Father-of-the-Year" award. He doesn't have any children, but everyone feels he would make a good father.

Gene Bell, formerly our own light-footed Gene Kunkel, and his wife Donna, are running a beauty salon, Gene's Eenie-Weenie-Slenderella Salon. Proof of the success of Gene's Slenderella Salon is shown by the fact that Gene has slimmed down to a very alluring 113 pounds.

Pat Johnson, otherwise remembered as Pat Martindale, and her family, are living in the Alps on a farm raising mountain goats. From what I hear they are having a rough time of it, as all their goats keep falling over cliffs.

Ronald McDonald, formerly a prominent Hereford raiser east of town, has given up the beef business and is now running a dairy farm. I hear Ron's Dad disowned him. He traded the Herefords for the Holsteins. Ron's first assistant and wife, is a former LeRoy cheerleader, who always used to boo him but now adores him.

George Michael, like Jerry Isle, is following in the steps of his father. He has replaced L. D. as head street-sweeper with his neighbor, Ben Dowell, as his assistant. George isn't married yet and neither is Ben, so therefore they get along fine.

Judy Nelson and her husband, Boliver Shagnasty, are living in Beverly Hills, California. Judy's dream really did come true and she is now employed by M.G.M. studios - - - as a scrub woman. She says she wouldn't be where she is now if she hadn't taken Mrs. Michael's drama class in high school.

The better half of the Cliff Fischer family, Carol Northcott, is kept busy taking care of their family. Carol's girls all have red hair just like their mother.

Like they always say "once a Nutt, always a Nutt" and Eddie is no different. Presently he's working on the Ollie Yonson farm trying to pay for his latest accident. He's still driving his '54 Chevy, but now he has to pedal it.

Lynn Perry Luft just opened up the first Star Grain & Lumber Company on Mars with the help of her husband, Vernie. At present they are fighting off the Martians who don't seem to need lumber. They say they quit making their flying saucers out of lumber years ago.

Norma Pyle is still living with her parents, helping with the farm work, and also still courting her next door neighbor. She graduated from Emporia State and finished first in her class - - - first from the bottom. But old Norma still prefers overalls and gloves to shorts and blouses.

Tony Siebert is employed at Perky's Corner Cafe and soon may move into a partnership with the owner as he is rapidly advancing. Already he has stepped up from dish washer to a dough-nut puncher. You know, he pokes out the middles of all doughnuts.

Stanley Snyder has become a legend around Waverly. Little did we dream he would ascend to the great heights that he has. Right after graduating, Stan ran for the City Marshall's job on the Communist ticket and won hands down. Within a short time he brought Law and Order to town that Waverly has needed for so long. I hear he's especially rough on speedsters, but he has little trouble catching them in his souped-up, square-wheeled Kaiser.

Paul Turvey is on a scientific expedition to Siberia right at the present. His work is top secret but from what I gather he is trying to catch the abominable snowman. He ties Dianne to a tree every night in hopes he can lure the snowman close enough to be captured.

Jerry Williams is supporting his family by professional wrestling. He can be seen every Saturday night on Channel 13. Jerry discovered his unusual skill one afternoon in Physical Education class when he made Gene Kunkel cry for mercy in a one-fall match.

After a long and thrilling chase, sweet little Brenda finally got to change her last name to Hinderliter. Many the sleepless nights she and the rest of us spent wondering how it would all end up, just like a new episode of Dick Tracy. But now they are very happy and Brenda is supporting Dale by working in a Topeka barber shop shining shoes. Brenda is still quite pretty except her hands are all stained black and brown from so much shoe polish!! Alas, the price to pay for wealth and happiness.

Karen Winters, formerly Karen Yockey, and her husband are now living in the county Rest Home enjoying the bliss of being grandparents. They earn their keep by Karen running the local telephone office and then reporting all the gossip she hears to the Waverly Gazette.

Well, how about that? I surely am glad to check up on that class of '59. They were a great bunch of kids. If you don't believe me, just ask any one of them and they'll cry out, "We're really great, we're really fine, we're the class of '59."

CLASS WILL

The Seniors of '59, being in wacky mind and poor health, wish to will all the things that they have learned in dear old Waverly High to the remaining students.

Marilyn Baker wills her good looks and personality to Joyce Gaddis.

Bill Cook wills his wavy hair to Lawrence Beaty. Bill thinks that with his wavy hair and his training in Speech class that Lawrence will become a famous actor some day.

Cliff Fischer wills his good looks and basketball ability to Kenneth Godfrey in hopes that he can use them like he did.

Fred Fowler gives all his girl friends to Larry Rickman. Hope you have better luck than Fred, Larry.

Dianne Gifford wills her ability to chatter and run around to Leslie Beamer in hopes that in time she can control it.

Patty Hess wills her ability to sleep in American History class to whoever is unfortunate enough to take that course.

Jerry Isle wills his big straight 8 Buick with a slipomatic drive to Kenny Bazil. Hope you don't have a heavy foot like Jerry did.

Steve Johns wills his blonde hair to Janice Williamson. She certainly needs a few more.

Shirley Johnson wills her quiet, mousy ways to Diane Philips. Shirley says it didn't do her any good but hopes it will help Diane.

Judy Kirkpatrick wills her typing ability to Dean Durow in hopes he can use it.

Oscar Kistner wills his service-station knowledge to Wayne Dejarnett and hopes in later years Wayne learns how to wash a car window.

Gene Kunkel wills his basketball pants to Jim Gray in hope that they will fit well.

Ronald McDonald wills his jazzy haircut to Carlis Brinkley. Here's hoping that Carlis can keep Mr. Poppe from saying, "I'm gonna cut your hair off."

Pat Martindale wills her quiet, industrious ways, and cheerful disposition to Connie Baker.

Butch Michael wills his card playing to David Miller. Say Dave, you aren't as unlucky as Butch is, are you?

Judy Nelson wills her boy friends and her ability to talk to Janice Williamson. Hope she learns how to use it.

Carol Northcott wills her ability to type and get along with the typing teacher to Forrest Combes.

Eddie Nutt wills his ability to maneuver behind a school bus to John Collins. Now, John, don't try what Eddie did.

Lynn Perry wills her telephone switchboard experience to the next person unlucky enough to have a job like that.

Norma Pyle wills her ability to sleep all the time at any place to Sammy Schmid.

Tony Siebert wills his good-natured ways and personality to anybody. He says he hopes they can be as good as he was.

Stanley Snyder wills his Kaiser to Pat McGrath in hopes that it will run better for him than it did for Stan.

Paul Turvey wills his Ford and loud pipes to John Herman. John, don't you get in trouble like Paul did.

Jerry Williams wills his ability to get stuck and to hit things to Jim Williams.

Brenda Yockey wills her love of the restaurant and late hours after work to Gerald Ragin. We hope you use them to as good an advantage as Brenda did, Gerald.

Karen Yockey wills her ability to talk all night at slumber parties to Glenda Alexander.
