PHELPS - The home of E. G. Phelps, of the Echo, was blessed last Thursday morning by the arrival of a twelve pound boy. Papa says he is toothless and bald headed, can kick like a steer and bellows like a cowboy, but never the less he will outgrow these objections and Mr. Phelps is setting up the cigars quite briskly on his arrival. Willie the baby may be a great help to the Republican party many years hence, we hear he will be an obstacle in the present campaign, as the party as well as Editor Phelps will find that lugging a 14 pound baby around the room from midnight until the roosters crow will crush out the divine afflatus and political enthusiasm of the most successful party leader or editorial writer. -- The Western Star, August 13, 1887.
