C.W. SMITH (CHARLES W. SMITH)

From "History of the State of Kansas" (1883) by A.T. Andreas:

p. 344, col. 1:

"C.W. SMITH, of the firm of Bailey & Smith, was born in Portage County, Ohio, December 7, 1832. In 1846, he left home, and located in Troy, N.Y., where he learned the carpenter's trade. About 1850, he moved to Lowell, Mass., where he became connected with the cotton manufacture, and continued in the business until 1854. He then moved to Kansas, settling in Douglas County in September of that year. He became a member of the first town company, and also pre-empted a farm, operating the latter until after the Quantrill raid. He then moved into the city and engaged in carpentering until the firm was organized of which he is now a member. During the early troubles, he was connected with different Free-State organizations. Mr. Smith was married in Lawrence April 14, 1864, to Miss Jane E., eldest daughter of Col. Samuel Walker, of Lawrence. They have five children--May L., Alice, Maud, Mabel and Gertrude. He is a member of the Congregational Church. He is at present, and has been for the past seven years, a member of the City Council."

p. 332, col. 1:

"BAILEY & SMITH dealers in furniture and undertakers' goods of all kinds. This business was originally established in 1857 by F.A. Bailey, in undertaking goods. The furniture department was added in 1864, when the present firm was organized. They now occupy a brick building 25 x 117 feet in area, having three floors devoted to their business, and carry a stock of from $12,000 to $15,000. . ." (F.A. Bailey was senior member of the firm).

p. 313, col. 1 & 2:

"The second party under the direction of Dr. Charles Robinson and Samuel C. Pomeroy, left Boston from the Boston & Worcester depot August 29, 1854. . . The main party of emigrants arrived. . . September 15 (1854). The whole party numbered 114." (Among those named was C.W. Smith).

Note: Smith Undertaking Firm existed until 1910. (From notes in Watkins Community Museum).

Note: C.W. Smith died July 30, 1907, and is buried in Oak Hill Cemetery, Section 2, between his first wife, Lucretia B., Sept. 10, 1831-Aug. 17-1859, and his second wife, Lizzie (Jane Elizabeth Walker), June 4, 1844-Feb. 26, 1901. Children of Chas. W. and Lizzie (Arthur, Ralph, and Charles) are also buried there. The Walker family is buried in the next plot. (From cemetery stone readings).
