Lamb, Mahlon, Farmer, S. J. T. Walnut, P. O. North Branch. Mr. Lamb was born two miles east of New London, Howard County, Indiana, where his parents moved from Randolph County, North Carolina. When our subject was two years of age his parents moved to Grant County where the early years of his life were spent. In 1869 he started to learn the carpenter trade, working for his uncle, A. R. Wall, who was a prominent contractor. On January 13th, 1872 Mr. Lamb and Ruth Haisley were united in marriage. They moved to Riverton, Fremont County, Iowa, where they lived until the spring of 1874. They then moved to Jewell County, Kansas. Here Mr. Lamb set to work with a determination to work out a comfortable home for himself and family, and the success with which he has met is worthy of note. He experienced the many hardships with which the frontiersmen had to contend. His first home in this western county was a sod house. In 1878 Mr. Lamb took his family to Pasadena, California, where they lived until 1889, returning to the farm in Kansas in the spring of that year. Mr. Lamb has worked out for himself and family a pleasant home in Jewell County, and is a man who is well liked by all who know him. He is a public spirited citizen, and has always been prominently identified with matters of local interest.
