EARLY CITIZENS OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY, KANSAS

The following biographies appeared in the History of Montgomery County, Kansas, published by I Wallace Duncan, Iola, Kansas, 1903.

MILTON DAVIS

The family of which Milton Davis, a worthy representative of the agricultural class in Cherokee township, is a member, originated in Wales. In the year 1650 four brothers crossed the ocean and cast their future with the people who had founded the colony Maryland. From this family quartette sprung the forefathers of our subject and thus the head of the family represented by the subject of this review. From Maryland to North Carolina their posterity spread and our national history is filled with the names of patriots and statesmen who have added renown to the already brilliant achievements of our republic. Captain Isaac Davis, who fought valiantly for our freedom from British rule, was a descendant of this and a grand ancestor of our subject.

Milton Davis was born in Perry County, Illinois, December 24, 1840. His father was Joel Davis, a native of Tennessee, born March 2nd, 1818. His mother was Millie Robertson, a native of the same state, born March 18, 1820. The marriage ceremony was performed in Washington county, Ill. The paternal grandparents of our subject removed, in 1822, to Illinois, where Joel Davis was reared to manhood on the farm and resided until 1870, when he came to Montgomery county, and settled in Cherokee township, five miles east of Coffeyville. There he died August 5th, 1892, aged seventy-four years. His wife died in June, 1890, at the age of seventy years. Eleven children composed the family, four of whom died in infancy. Newton died at thirty-one and there are now six living. Frank M., William, Joel, Charles, Milton, and Mrs. Sarah Graham.

Mr. Davis secured a district school education and was still at home when the call was made for the troops to put down the rebellion. In the early part of 1862, he enrolled as a private in Company "A", 101st Ill. Vol. Inf. and served his country to the close of the struggle. He was with "Uncle Billy" Sherman at Vicksburg, accompanied him across to Chattanooga, to Atlanta, and to the sea, up through the Carolinas and th the Grand Review of the battle-scarred veterans at the Nation's Capitol. During these years of peril, he had many narrow escapes but returned in comparative vigorous health, and with no serious wounds. He was struck several times by spent balls and pieces of shell, but never lost a day by reason of his wounds. He was discharged on the 22nd of June, 1865, at Springfield, Ill.

Mr. Davis remained in Illinois engaged in farming until 1871, the date of his settling in Cherokee township, Montgomery county. He resided there for three years and then bought 160 acres of the land on which he now resides. He has redeemed this land from its wild state and has it in a high state of cultivation. To the original quarter, he has added another, the farm now comprising 320 acres. He is engaged extensively in the raising of cattle and hogs.

During his residence in the county, Mr. Davis has taken an active and helpful part in building up the institutions of society which makes Montgomery county a desirable place of residence. Four terms has he served as trustee of his township and he has acted as treasurer also, for a number of terms. Fraternally, he affiliates with the Masonic lodge at Coffeyville, and is also a member of the Commandry at Independence. His vote is always counted in support of the principles of Democracy.

November 3rd, 1867, was a day to be remembered in the lives of our subject and his wife, for, on that day, the latter changed her name of Elizabeth Robinson to that of Davis. She was born in White county, Illinois on Sept. 12, 1845. Her father was George Robinson, her mother Elizabeth Overfield, both natives of Virginia. Th the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Davis, five children have been born: Charles E., a farmer of this township; Berdella, wife of H. A. Brown, a farmer of the township; Richard who lives in Coffeyville; Nellie, Mrs. O. A. Green of Independence, and Myrtle, Mrs. Elbert Dryden of Fort Worth, Texas.

THOMAS E. WAGSTAFF

Thomas E. Wafstaff was born in Galesburg, Illinois, July 23rd, 1875, and at the age of two years moved to Kansas City, Mo., where he lived until April 10th, 1879, when he went to Lawrence, Kanss, where he resided until 1897. While at Lawrence he attended the University of the state, from which he graduated just before he was admitted to the bar of Douglas county, on June 8th, 1897, He afterward, at the New York University, in 1898, took a post graduate course in the law department of that institution, and since then has been in the active practice of his professi:

He located in Coffeyville in 1899, and was admitted to the bar of Montgomery county on the 12th of August in that year, and has since resided in that city. Mr. Wagstaff was graduated from the Kansas University on June 8th, 1897, with the degree of L. L. B., and from the University of New York on June 21st, 1898, with the degree of L. L. M., While at the University at Lawrence, he was a member of the Honorary Law Fraternity, the Phi Delta Phi, Green Chapter, which was installed at the University of Kansas April 10th, 1897. He also belonged to the Sigma Chi Fraternity while in college and is a Mason and an Elk.

Since Mr. Wagstaff took up his residence in Coffeyville he has served one year as attorney for the city, from April 3rd, 1900, to April 3rd, 1901, was judge of the court of Coffeyville from October 1st, 1901, to February 7th, 1902, and was during the last half of 1902, assistant county attorney.

He was recently wedded to Miss Jennie Wilson, an estimable young lady, who was born and reared in Independence, and was a daughter of E. E. Wilson, who, for years before his death, was one of the most prominent citizens of Independence.
