J M COURTNEY

Cherryvale was still in its swaddling clothes when Mr J M Courtney took up residence within its borders. He helped nurse it into vigorous and lustrous youth, witnessed the passing of life into manhood and glories now in the evidence of its strength and prosperity. During these years he has been constant in his interest in the progress of the city and has given much time and effort of the building up of those institutions which constitute its pride and particularly in the line of education. His various official duties as justice of the peace, superintendent of the waterworks and vice president of the Montgomery county bank, keep him in close touch with the people and make him a potent factor in the development which is now taking place in this section of the county.

March 31st, 1840 and Trumbull county, Ohio mark the date and place of birth of Mr Courtney. Michael and Grace (Piersol) Courtney were the names of his parents both natives of the buckeye state and the father a shoemaker by trade. They were respected members of society, devout communicants of the Methodist church and intense and loyal patriotism. They removed to Ill. in 1843 where the father died in Vermillion county the same year. His wife survived him over a half century dying at the advanced age of eighty three years in 1901.. They reared nine children, four of whom still survive. After the death of the father the family went back to Mercer Co Pa. in 1846 where our subject was reared to manhood.

He passed the years of early manhood in helping cultivate the home farm and was thus occupied when the sounds of war resounded throughout the land, calling those of patriot blood to save the nation from disunion. In Oct of 1861 he left the furrow and became a private in Co I second Pa Cav. This regiment joined the forces about Washington, but Mr. Courtney did not see much of the active fighting as he was soon taken sick with that soldiers scourge the measles which in turn was followed by an attack of small pox. After a dreary time in the hospital, our subject recovered sufficiently to act as nurse to the wounded and owing to the urgent demand for that kind of help he was kept there on detail until he was discharged for disability, the smallpox having left his eyes in bad condition. After the war Mr Courtney went to Vermillion county, Illinois for a period, and in 1866 located in Labette county, Kansas where he continued to reside to the date of his coming to Cherryvale, 1876. With the exception of a year spent at Eureka Springs in the vain attempt to improve the health of his wife, our subject has held continuous residence in the city. He ran a drug store for several years, then went into the real estate business, which he has followed in connection with his duties as superintendent of the water works, his appointment dating from 1892. During these years he has been most active in the civic life of the community serving as city treasurer, trustee of the County High School, member of the city school board, and has been now for three terms a justice of the peace.

Married life with Mr Courtney began July 15, 1866. The wife of his youth was Mary E Wood, daughter of Daniel Wood. Her death occurred without issue, and on Feb 15, 1885 our subject was joined to the lady who now presides over his household, Flora C Willis, her parents were J W and Mary Willis residents of Illinois. Two children have been born-Earl M and Rhea M. Mr Courtney and family are members of the Methodist church, while he belongs to the Masons, the Woodmen, the A O U W, the K of H and the G A R. He is an ardent citizen, Republican and a valued worker in the party. No more highly respected citizen is to be found within the confines of the city.
