MILLER, Inf.--d. Feb. 8, 1880 aged 3ms & 25dys son of H.T. & L.C.)

That was a frightful and terrible ending of a young and noble life that befell Wm. A. Morrison, the 18yr. old son of M. Morrison of Victor township, last Tuesday night, Dec. 12th. He and a companion were on horseback returning home from church about 10 o'clock, and were riding pretty fast when Morrison's horse stepped into a hole or rut in the road, throwing him off suddenly and falling upon him with terrific force, breaking six ribs, dislocating one shoulder and crushing his head in a horrible and sickening manner. The prostrate form of the young man was taken to his home, and Drs. Cranshaw, of Covert and Hall of Alton, were summoned, but the injuries were of a fatal nature, and the young man breathed his last in about six hours after the awful accident to the quietude of the Culver cemetery. Sympathy unrestrained is extended to the bereaved family to assuage their grief in their irreparable loss of a kind, loving and obedient son and brother.

"From a notebook of Hazel Winder's that had been her mother's, Ollie Fruitt."

the road north of the Old Twin Creek school house(not in use). The story told by a lady living close by now said one died of natural cause.
Two bit by a rattlesnake. One of them was taking water down to the father in the field. They lived across the toad east.

A private burial plot on a hill in Hancock township, Osborne Co. Kansas, section 19, on a hill overlooking a big pond. Gene Greig of Osborne took me to this place but the stones had been taken away. He ^{said} Elmer or Paul Bliss or Lee McMullen might know something about it. Elmer Bliss-Osborne, Ks says there is only one grave and was put there before there was a Bristow cemetery.

Several years ago a man came and claimed to be her son. He put rocks around her grave --printed or cut her name on it. Elmer Bliss lived on the creek west of the grave almost all his life and he is almost 85 years old. His boy Melvin lives on the place where he was born. Ransom Enoch son Pat owns it now.

Lee McMillan of Osborne

Osborne, Kansas 67473 --He says it was a WARD buried there. The marker was native rock with the name cut in it. He is almost sure the death was recorded but he does not know the first name or date.

One Lone Grave, Osborne Co.Ks. Section 34 Mt Ayr Twn.

Section 34 of Mt. Ayr township on the East side of the section about the middle and out in the pasture is a grave and is marked with a native stone marker. Sarah--wife of John HILL--d. June 1st. 1878 aged 37years.

A neighbor boy George Stull asked to go get a doctor, the closest one being 20 miles north of Alton. He went but when they came back she was dead. Great-uncle Jack Hogan's father was a stone cutter and he made the stone to put on the grave. It still stands strong today and writing is real plain. Mr HOGAN BURIED HER. Great uncle Jack Hogan's parents were born in Ireland. He was a stone cutter and carved marble in Ireland. When they came to America they settled in Waterbury, Connecticut where Jack was born. They came to Kansas when he was nine months old and settled across the road west of Jack's place, later, moving across the road in a dugout. The DRAKLEY'S lost a little girl but she is either buried at Round Mound or Mt Ayr. The Drakley's, Hogan's and Hill's all were neighbors together.

Neuschwanger's now own the place where the grave is.

Oma Whitson 20 March 1971

"Memories of Early Days" by H. P. Tripp - Mr. Tripp states the first public burying ground in Valley Township, Oshtemo Co. was located on the southwest quarter of section No. 3 now owned by F. E. Gillett. It was known as the "Transue Burying Ground". Its origin and location came about on the death of Mrs. John Transue the winter of 1878-79, partly no doubt, on account of there being a heavy snowfall and bitter cold they decided to bury on their own farm. The nearest burying ground at that time was no doubt the Culver cemetery on Court Creek and Gray on Wolf Creek. From that time until the organization of the Vincent and Grand Cemeteries those communities continued to bury their dead in the "Transue Burying Ground". A pair of twin boys - Van Riper - whose parents lived where J. W.
 Crosby now resides, died from diphtheria. They were laid to rest in the Transue cemetery and they are still sleeping on the hillside where they were laid. Among those from the Pleasant Run (Waldo) and Grand Center communities buried in the Transue Burying Ground and later moved to Grand Center were Mrs. John Richardson and infants. Infants from the the W. L. Barber, S. P. Lantz, S. H. Clarke and Ira Pitzer families.

Small cemetery. This clipping is in a scrap-book by Hazel Bentley's mother and Grandmother (Mrs Striet) according to an old newspaper clipping there was a little cemetery started on the Fred Gillett farm years ago. Th article said section 3 of township but Minnie Mullender thought it was right across the creek east of the barn where Violet Gillett now lives. Later when the Grand Center cemetery was started --the graves were all moved except two Van Riper children.

A Mrs Neuschwanger anr daughter Racheal are buried -Gilden township section 35-range 7 14-Harold thinks they were buried between 1880-90. They are buried on the quarter that her sister Mary owned. It is probably 125 feet north of the southeast corner of the north west quarter of the section.

There are two more graves a mother and child their names were SOUL) might be spelled wrong) are buried approximately 150 feet south east of the north west corner of the south east quarter of this same section. Neither of these 4 graves have markers. Probably before 1880.

A Mrs Guyer was also buried there,, but Mr Guyer later moved her to the Mt Hope cemetery, he thinks.

Harold Gilmore's mother was a Graybill. She married twice. Neuschwanger and second to GILMORE. The Neuschwangers above were her husband's sister and mother.

His mother's first marriage she had Sarah and Amanda. Sarah was Uncle Will FRITCHES' first wife. Amanda was the one Rowena and I rode up from Salina with a time or two.

Harold Gilmore's mother and her first husband Sam Neuschwanger owned the place where Harold lives and these graves are.

4 April 1972 By Harold Gilmore

Burton GREGORY there are two graves(no markers) in Mt, Ayr township-section 19--same section as the Pleasant Plain cenetery. He doesn't know who they were though. 4 April 1972

They think two more children buried there, that died of an epidemic. A Mr COOK was buried there but was removed and put in Presbyterian cemetery. He was poisoned by his wife and she was sent to prison. She wrote a book while she was in prison. They don't know the name of the book.

The Indians use to come thru there in early days. and would always stop at those graves and have their Pow-Wow. Some thought that their might be some thing of value buried with them, the reason the Indians always stopped there. Some have thought about digging into these graves to see but never did.

Aunt Mary WINELAND or Lou WINELAND of Natoma might know some thing about this.

Mt Ayr cemetery is in Mt. Ayr township section 10 on the east side about the middle of the section. It was organized in 1880. The "Friends" Church also known as Quakers is located about one half mile north on the west side of the road. The Chalk Mound and Mt Ayr united a few years back. The Chalk Mound was moved over to help add on to the Mt. Ayr. Their always working and building on to fix on their Church.

The old Mt Ayr school is still standing just a hundred feet or so to the south and across the road, which hasn't been used for years. O.W.
