CLASS HISTORY

In 1958, a year we shall never forget, fourteen green freshmen began their four years at Scandia Rural High School. There were seven girls and seven boys. The girls were Diane Perry, Dora Moss, Betty Johnson, Gwen Williams, Myrna Jackson, Marilyn Anderson, and Pam Anderson. The boys were Carl Reece, John Nylund, John Odell, Charles Robbins, Dale Davis, Gary Hammer, and Douglas Modlin. Because of injuries received in a hunting accident, Douglas was unable to finish the school year with us. Our president was John Odell, and Mr. Fajen our sponsor.

The next fall when we returned to SRHS as sophomores, we found that we had gained one boy, Kent Davis. Carl Reece presided over our class as president and Mr. Trauer was our sponsor.

We began our junior year without Gwen Williams and Kent Davis. With our class consisting of six girls and six boys we put on our Junior Play entitled, "Wanted A Hero," with Mrs. Grace Robison as our director. That year we also sponsored the Junior-Senior Banquet with the theme, "Around The World." Mrs. Grace was our sponsor and Diane Perry reigned as president.

As dignified seniors we took the final steps in our years of high school. We began the year with six girls and five boys. We lost John Odell to Belleville, and also lost Charles Robbins after the first semester. We presented our senior play entitled, "The Real McCoy," under the direction of Mrs. Everett Robison. Pam Anderson was our president and Mr. Quantic our sponsor.

The class members who have gone all twelve years to SRHS are Diane Perry, Carl Reece, and John Nylund.

CLASS POEM

We, the class of 1962,
Know our school years are almost through.
The underclassmen say "we should be glad,"
But they don't know that we're really very sad.

John Nylund, our handsome lover,
Was the record maker of our bunch.
He was always the last to class,
And to be sure, first for lunch.

Myrna Jackson, a secretary to be,
Came to SRHS from Kackley.
In our group she is the scholar,
Success she'll see, you can bet your last dollar.

If you see a red GMC go through town,
Then Betty Johnson is easy to be found.
Yes, Betty is a real nice girl
She surely has Georgie in a whirl.

When it comes to athletics,
Carl Reece is the man on top.
Full of mischief and of fun,
If he is around, things really hum.

Dale Davis was the one in football,
Of the seniors, who survived.
He is a friend to all he knows,
And very seldom his temper shows.

We have one gal in our class
Who adds a sparkle to each day,
A nurse's aide she plans to be.
Who? Dora is that girl, we say.

Another basketball star we now speak of,
Like all his brothers, Gary shines.
Stuck on Linda, his steady girl,
When she's around, his day is fine.

Marilyn Anderson is a lot of fun
She is a friend and a pal to everyone.
Marilyn is not bashful or shy
She really gives the boys the eye.

Diane is our tall blonde,
Of music and sewing she is fond.
Bethany College is her destination,
John H. thinks she's quite a sensation.

In the Anderson family, Pam is a star
With her you have fun wherever you are.
She's off to business school next year,
She'll do well there, never fear.

For such a little class we sure have had a ball,
And just to think there are only ten in all.
Mr. Quantic won't be the same
For this bunch of kids are not what you call tame.

Written by Diane Perry and Dora Moss

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of Scandia Rural High School, Republic County, Kansas, being of sound mind, body, and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament, revoking any wills heretofore made by us.

We, as a class, leave behind the following treasures:

To the Freshmen we leave our dignified-senior look. We think they need it.

To the Sophomores we will our quietness in going to class, as they are so noisy.

To the Juniors we will our teachers who are slightly worn out after trying to teach us.

We, as individuals, will the following:

First: Marilyn Anderson wills her bruises she received during the year to Mary Hall with the understanding that Mary tries to prevent them.

Second: Pam Anderson wills her acting ability to Jim Everhart knowing he doesn't need it.

Third: To Danny Thompson, Dale Davis gives his dislike for all freshman girls as Dale feels he will need the resistance in the future year.

Fourth: To Roger Freed, Gary Hammer wills his romantic ways in study hall, in hopes that he won't be pestering Mr. Quantic.

Fifth: Myrna Jackson wills her athletic ability to Beth Erickson with the hope that she doesn't become too enthusiastic.

Sixth: To Patty Tate, Betty Johnson wills her ability to catch herself a man.

Seventh: Dora Moss wills her witty ways to Patty Stafford, with the hope that Patty will use them to the fullest extent.

Eighth: To Steve Cardwell, John Nylund gives his height, which is to be used in playing basketball.

Ninth: Diane Perry wills her ability to eat all she pleases without getting fat to Darlene Nystrom.

Tenth: To Monty Thomas, Carl Reece wills his ability to climb into the attic and get caught, knowing Monty is not an angel.

SENIOR ADVENTURE

On Thursday, April 26, at 4:30 a.m., ten seniors and six sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Quantle, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hammer, and Mr. and Mrs. John Nylund, left on the senior adventure to Colorado.

Our first stop was at Norton to eat breakfast. We arrived in Denver at 12:15 p.m. and ate dinner at a Pancake House. Our first stop was the Municipal Airport. We went through a DC-8 Jet Mainliner and toured the Briefing Room. When we walked out to leave, it was raining, so we ran for the cars and then drove to the museum. After viewing the many fascinating displays, we went back outside to find it had stopped raining so we could see the mountains clearly for the first time. Then, we drove to the Adams Hotel at which we stayed while in Denver.

Friday morning we visited the U. S. Mint. We found this to be quite an interesting experience. After leaving the Mint we drove to the Red Rocks. After climbing the Rocks, we gathered back to the cars and were off for the Mountains. We stopped in Evergreen for groceries to fill our sack lunch which we ate in Bergen Park. We started for Central City to visit Teller House. While there we bought some souvenirs. Our next stop was at the top of Lookout Mountain and Buffalo Bill's grave. We drove back to the hotel and went shopping. That night we went to the Ice Capades to see probably one of the most colorful and thrilling sights we will ever see.

On Saturday morning we left Denver and went to Colorado Springs. We checked in at the Acacia Hotel. Back in the cars again, we drove out to the Cave of the Winds. After seeing the many imaginable sights left by under-ground whirlpools, we drove to Canon City to eat dinner. Our first stop in the afternoon was the Colorado State Prison. Next on the agenda was the Royal Gorge. Although some of us were a little scared we walked across the bridge above the canyon. We also took a cable-car ride to the bottom of the Royal Gorge. On our way back to Colorado Springs we drove on the Skyline Drive overlooking Canon City. We also stopped to buy some cider, which was quite refreshing. That night most of us went to the show, "Moon Pilot."

On Sunday morning we went to the Garden of the Gods, followed by the Seven Falls. After climbing the flights of stairs to the top, one member of our clan found out how cold mountain streams are at 9 a.m. when he fell while trying to cross one. Back on our schedule again, we visited the Will Rogers Zoo. This zoo had many animals which some of us had not seen before. We then left Colorado Springs for home. We arrived home tired but with many happy memories of our senior adventure.

CLASS PROPHECY

It is the year of 1972 and I am taking a trip through the United States. I left Los Angeles in the middle of the morning and stopped at Denver, where I had a two-hour lay over. I took a cab downtown to eat and there I met Marilyn Anderson. While we lunched together, Marilyn told me that she was a secretary for the Ruby and Pearls, Co., a subsidiary of King's Diamonds, and was doing well. She was still single.

Time was running short so I went back to the airport and boarded a plane for Kansas City. When I arrived, I rented a car and drove to Scandia to see some of my old friends. I stopped at the Home Oil Company, and there was my old buddy, Gary Hammer. Gary said that he and his wife, the former Linda Erickson, lived on a farm north of Norway and had three little Hammers. I accepted Gary's invitation to supper at his home that night.

When I arrived at Gary's, I was surprised to see several old classmates, including Carl Reece. Carl told me that he had graduated from the Idiot's Stick and was now pushing a piece of carbon over a white piece of paper. He is president of Reece, Harwood, and Moe Co., and is married to the former Dixie Reece.

John Nylund was there with his wife Patty. John took over his father-in-law's business and is running the B. F. Goodrich store. He has four children.

I also met Betty Johnson Stromberg and her husband Georgie. They live north of Courtland on a farm, which Betty says she likes very much.

And the beautiful blonde, Diane Perry Hanson, was there, too. When I asked if she had been busy, she said that caring for her family, including her husband John and their two wonderful children, kept her quite busy.

It was getting late so I returned to Kansas City and took a plane to Chicago. While getting off the plane in Chicago, I fell and received a head injury, which caused me to lose consciousness. When I came to, I was in a hospital and the nurse standing by my bed was Dora Moss. I learned from Dora that Pam Anderson was in New Orleans. Upon being dismissed from the hospital, I boarded a jet for New Orleans and looked up Pam. She had just arrived home from work, which she told me was picking chickens in the Pick-A-Chicken a Minute Company. Pam said she hadn't lost her love for the farm. That night we went out and ate a chicken supper.

The next morning I flew to Miami Beach. Needing some directions concerning the town, I went to an information booth, and there was Myrna Jackson. We chatted for awhile, and Myrna said that she had been giving information for five years and still knew nothing about the place. I spent the night in Miami and flew home to Los Angeles to my old job as an I. P. B. (International Play Boy).

SENIOR PLAY

"The Real McCoy" was presented by the Senior Class on April 6, 1962, in the High School Auditorium.

The play centered around a poetry lover and her poetry-hating family. Mrs. Henry Thomas and Betty were overjoyed at the prospect of a famous poet, Mr. W. Shakespeare Tallfellow, visiting at their home. The plot thickens when Jane forgets to mail the letter inviting Mr. Tallfellow, and Freddie finds out. Jane and Georgia get the idea of finding another Mr. Tallfellow. About this time Johnny Johnson appears on the scene. Jane and Georgia convince him that he should disguise himself as Mr. Tallfellow so that Mrs. Thomas will not be disappointed. Henry and Freddie also get the idea of disguising someone as Mr. Tallfellow. They employ Gus, Smith, Henry's barber, for the job.

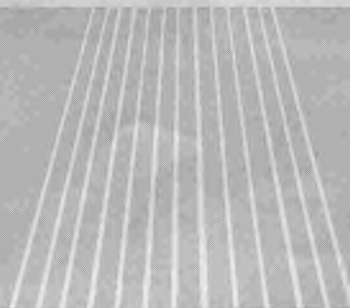

There is much confusion at the closing when the Tallfellows arrive. Bertie quits her job at the Thomases' because of Freddie's experiments, and Mrs. Thomas receives a telegram from the real Mr. Tallfellow saying he will be there the next day.

SPRING ACTIVITIES

Because the following events occurred after March 1, we were unable to include them in the picture pages and still meet the printer's deadline.

The Scandia Swedes played at the Class BB Tournament at Republic March 7-9. The Swedes played Munden in the first round, winning by a score of 71 to 34. Scandia then tangled with the Republic Wildcats, winning again 58 to 47. The final night saw Scandia playing Lovewell. After a hard-fought game, Scandia came out on top with a score of 61 to 59. Thus, the Swedes got a chance to go to the Regional Tournament at Randall. In the first night play Scandia played Randall, losing 56 to 55 to end the 1961-62 basketball season.

"Sportsmanship Always Wins" was the theme of the Athletic Banquet held March 23 in the gym. A dance followed the banquet. During the intermission John Nylund and Marilyn Anderson were crowned King and Queen. First attendants were Danny Thompson and Linda Erickson and second attendants, David Anderson and Judy Thompson.

The One-Act Play cast received a "1" rating at the PTL Play Festival in Simpson. A "1" rating was also received at the District Speech and Drama Festival in Clay Center. This entitled them to enter the State Contest, at which they received a "2" rating.

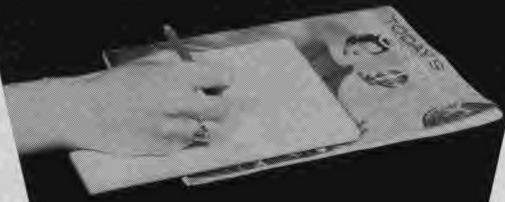

The annual Open House and Style Show was held April 23. The theme, "Showboat," was carried out by the Home Ec. Department with the help of Mrs. Isaacson and by the Music Department under the direction of Mr. Sanders. The modeling of garments made by the girls was intermingled with a variety of songs by the boys' and girls' glee clubs and the mixed chorus.

The Junior - Senior Banquet and Prom was held May 4. After the dinner, which was served at the Dinner Bell in Belleville, the junior class presented the program centered around the theme "Blossom Time." The juniors, seniors, and guests returned to Scandia to dance in the beautifully decorated Ag. Room.

The track squad took fifth place in the PTL Track Meet at Jewell. Carl Reece tied for first in the pole vault, won second in the 440-yard dash, and placed fifth in the 220-yard dash. John Nylund tied for first in the high hurdles and won second in the low hurdles and in the broad jump. Don Boswell placed fifth in the half mile.

Baccalaureate services were held at the Amana Lutheran Church on Sunday evening, May 13, with Pastor Nielson delivering the message. Class night was held on Tuesday, May 15. Diane Perry was named valedictorian and Myrna Jackson was salutatorian. Commencement exercises for the Class of '62 were held May 17 in the gym. Mr. Hugh Burnett of Hays was guest speaker. May 18 was the last day of school and the annual Alumni Banquet was held in the evening.
