SCANDIA HIGH SCHOOL

"Proud of our school" is the feeling of the students of SHS. We are also proud of our community and are grateful for the support it has given the school. This interest in the school is evident by the good attendance at school functions and the willingness to provide transportation whenever needed. Donations of food, money, time, work done on the football field, and help at ballgames were given freely. Through community-wide efforts in sponsoring a Veteran's Day fund-raising carnival, new band uniforms were purchased.

For all these efforts toward the good of the school, we say "thank you" to our community.

SUPERINTENDENT

SPEAKS

TO THE STUDENTS OF SCANDIA HIGH SCHOOL

Our belief in democracy and our conviction that all citizens must be educated as a means of assuring that democracy will function satisfactorily has placed great responsibility upon our system of public education and upon the youth of our nation.

Education is the key to success in any venture that man may undertake, but this must be reinforced by responsibility, integrity, leadership, and high moral values. As Thomas Jefferson once said, "If a nation expects to be ignorant and free in a state of civilization, it expects what never was and never will be."

Democracy is a challenge. Meet this challenge with education and personal dedication.

SENIOR CLASS PROVIDES LEADERS

For most high school students their senior year is the busiest. This was surely true of the class of '67.

In addition to working hard on their studies, the seniors sponsored the Christmas dance and a skating party, prepared the yearbook, presented a play, and participated in many all-school activities. To increase the class treasury, the class sold yearbook advertisements and magazine subscriptions, held five bake sales, and sponsored the Wallace Bruce Players.

The class provided leadership for most of the school organizations. Head offices in Student Council, F.F.A., Y-Teens, and F.C.A. were held by seniors.

By mid-April the seniors were in a mad rush, finishing term papers, meeting yearbook deadlines, and planning their sneak and graduation activities. On May 18, with their school work finished and tests passed, nineteen seniors received their diplomas.

ORGANIZATIONS

BAND HAS FULL YEAR

Practices and performances kept the band members in step this year. Besides marching at home football games, the band performed at Hutchinson State Fair, K-State Band Day, PTL Festival, State Music Contest, and American Legion Convention. They ended the year with a spring concert.

The highlight of the year was marching in their new uniforms in the Legion parade in Concordia along with Governor Docking, Miss America, and other celebrities.

The Mixed Chorus presented a program of Christmas music and performed in the Vocal Music Festival at Burr Oak.

The triple trio was in popular demand during the year, singing at school and community functions. They also participated in the music contest at Concordia.

The newest singing group in school is the SHS folk singers; Phyllis Aspegren, Cheryl Currie, Colleen Thompson, and Sonja Hammer, accompanied by Pat Jensen on the guitar.

Vickie Herrman plays diligently as she accompanies the mixed chorus. This is her last year as pianist.

PEP CLUB BOOSTS SPIRITS

The S.H.S. Pep Club has had an exciting year. The highlight was the Courtland vs. Scandia pep rally where a snake dance, followed by a weiner roast and the burning of the Courtland Tiger, was enjoyed by the student body. Other pep club activities included a slumber party, flash posters for the halls to create high spirits and the homecoming float, which to our sad disapproval was carried for many miles by the Kansas wind.

The lively skits presented at each pre-game pep rally added an extra spark of enthusiasm which was carried over into the games. The attendance of the girls was excellent.

Y-TEENS HAVE FUN HELPING OTHERS

The Y-Teen club had 29 members this year. Phyllis Aspegren headed the organization as president and Mrs. Jackson was the faculty sponsor.

The first exciting event of the year was Freshman Initiation, which proved to be a humorous occasion since the freshmen had to wear costumes to school on that day.

Vicki Florell was chosen as ICC representative. She represented the club at the fall conference at Glasco.

The Y-Teens had two money drives to help others, collecting for UNICEF and for cerebral palsy.

Also the girls sent a box of Christmas gifts to the orphanage in Parsons, Kansas.

For fun the club sponsored WPA week and a dance in February.

FCA ENCOURAGES CHRISTIAN LIVING

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes is a new organization at Scandia High. It was set up in the fall under the sponsorship of Mr. Hobelman.

The club met bi-monthly. Problems that arise within athletics were discussed, and a variety of guest speakers attended the meetings. The athletes spoke to several different church and civic groups during the year. They attended church together once each month.

COLLEEN AND RICHARD REIGN

The night was cold, the wind chilling. The opponents ran away with the score. It was the night of nights. This was homecoming.

The pep club had labored long and hard preparing a float for the queen and her attendants. The undefeated Swedes were ready to face their toughest rivals. There was an air of eager anticipation among the spectators.

While the float was being pulled onto the field, a strong north wind blew the decorations to shreds. With a mad scramble band members hastily picked up bits of crepe paper and tissue before the field was littered. And the float made a quick departure.

The Swedes met Cawker City on the football field to suffer their only defeat of the season.

Yet through it all, the queen and her attendants looked lovely. The band played a salute to the royalty at halftime. And every loyal fan present felt proud to be a Swede. For the students of SHS this was truly a night to be remembered.

GIRLS PRESENT STYLE SHOW

The Home Economics classes, under the direction of Mrs. Jackson, presented a style show May 2. The theme was "Campus of High Fashion University." The girls modeled the latest campus styles. All the garments, except the formals, had been carefully handmade by the skillful seamstresses of Scandia High.

At right, a last minute touch-up is given some of the garments before the show.
