Obit — Avis Ipsen the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Absolom Ipsen died March 10 of lung fever, at the age of 7 years 11 months and 9 days.

Avis was born at her parent's present home two miles west of Randolph. She had been rather delicate in health from birth consequently her parents guarded and fondled her with the utmost precaution.

She entered the Randolph school last fall and was present thirty-five days. Though she was with us but a little while her quiet and loving disposition gained for her many dear little friends.

To miss her at school and we unite in sympathizing with the bereaved parents and her only sister who mourn her death.

"There is no fireside howsoever defended

But has one vacant chair."

"She is not dead the child of our affection

But gone unto that school,

Where she no longer needs our poor protection

And Christ himself doth rule."

E. Edwards.

Obit (with picture) — Born June 19, 1885, Died Dec 11, 1906.
 The death angel visited the home of Mr. & Mrs. Chas. Gebhardt, on last Tuesday, Dec. 11, 1906, taking from this earth to the Home beyond, their beloved daughter, Tillie. Miss Tillie had been a great but patient sufferer for almost three years, being operated upon Feb. 26, 1904, for inflammation of the frontal sinuses. She had several operations since that time, all of which proved futile, and she at last after untold agony succumbed to the inevitable. Through her long suffering she never complained and was ever hopeful.

Her friends were innumerable. This was shown by the number who assembled to give a last look at the calm and peaceful slumberer. They made her pillowed couch more beautiful by their floral offerings -- the last gift, the last visible token on earth for her, while in their breasts was buried an invisible one still more beautiful -- a knowledge that she had departed for a home not made with hands, but whose Builder and Maker is God. She was a member of the Lutheran church, from which indeed her services were held. Rev. Wagner officiating. The text was carefully chosen from St. John 11th chapter. Her favorite hymn, "Laying on the Everlasting Arms" was sung, also a selection by the school children.

Her immediate relatives who were left for a short time, but who will some day join her, are a devoted mother, father, four sisters and two brothers.

A FRIEND.
