

XI. Pictures

Decoration Day Parade, Liberal, Kansas, 1889

Liberal Band 1895

Second row: Lem Green, Abe K. Stoufer, Burt Keating, Arthur Ellison, Thos. J. Smith, John Brown.
First row: E.O. DeVoss, Albert Stoufer, Loretta Carr, Josie Rupert, Myrna Keyes, Dasie Hood, Geo. Ellison, and Otto DeVoss.

Swink adobe house, 1908.

Hazel Viola Scandrett and Harvey Kendrick Scandrett.
Taken in 1897

John W. Baughman Real Estate Office, 1907

This Woodmen Band in 1907 and 1908 led the downtown parades in Liberal.

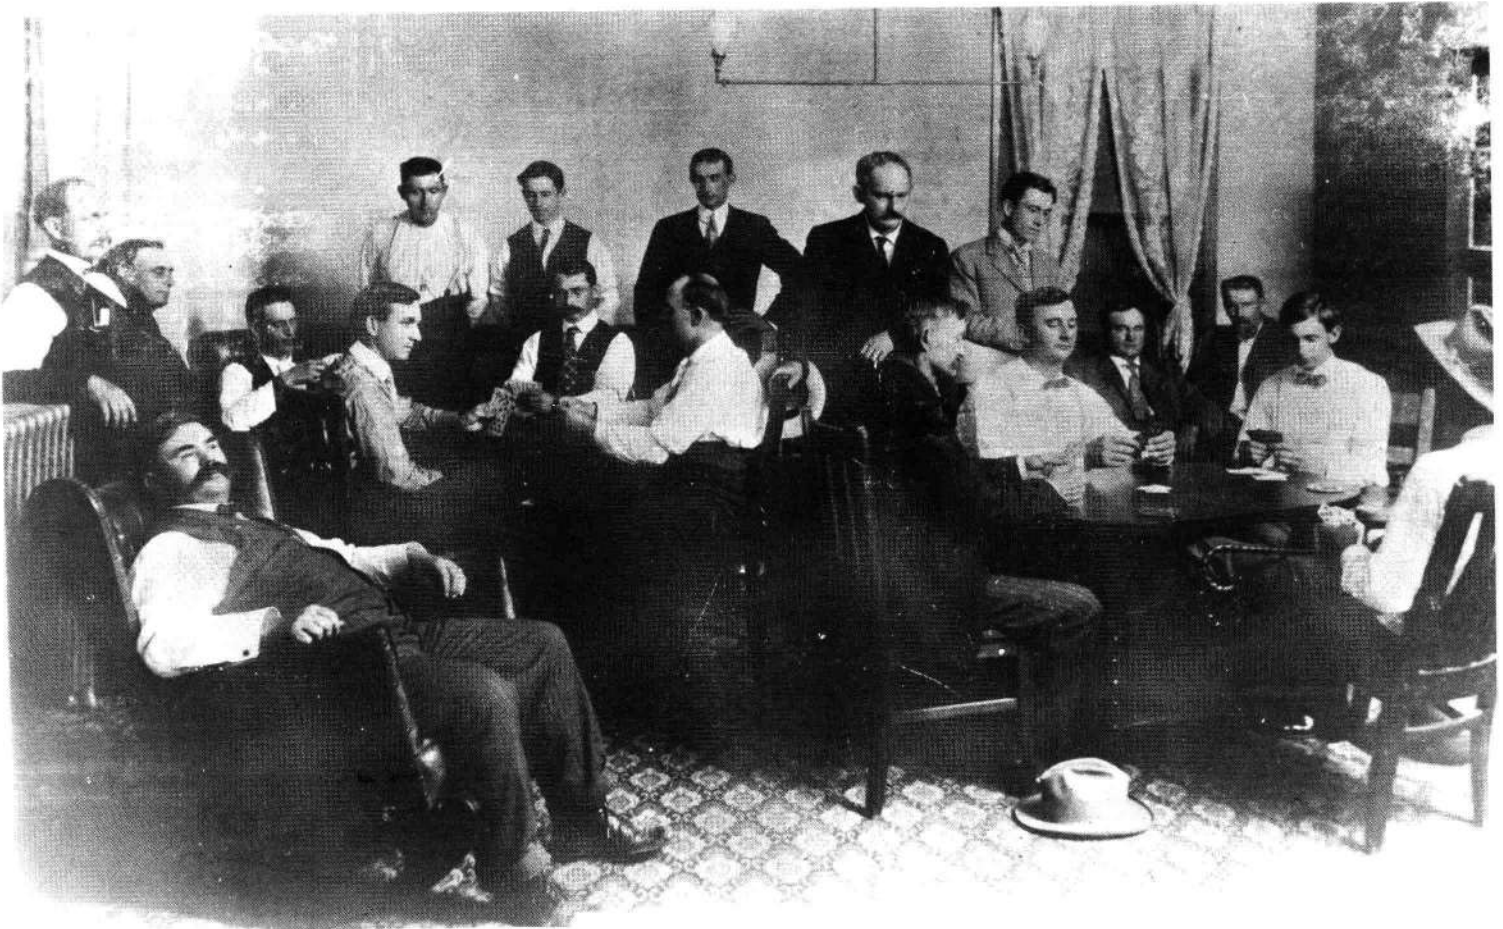

Front row, left to right: Lon Gaskill, John Miller and H.C. Polk.

Middle row, left to right: Jack Padden, the band leader; Lon Kavkson, Abe Pankratz, Leslie Longnecker and Cash Waters.

Back row, left to right: Arlie Atha, Robert Gentzler, Russell Yost, J.D. Stephens, Bert Holloway and Had W. Lane.

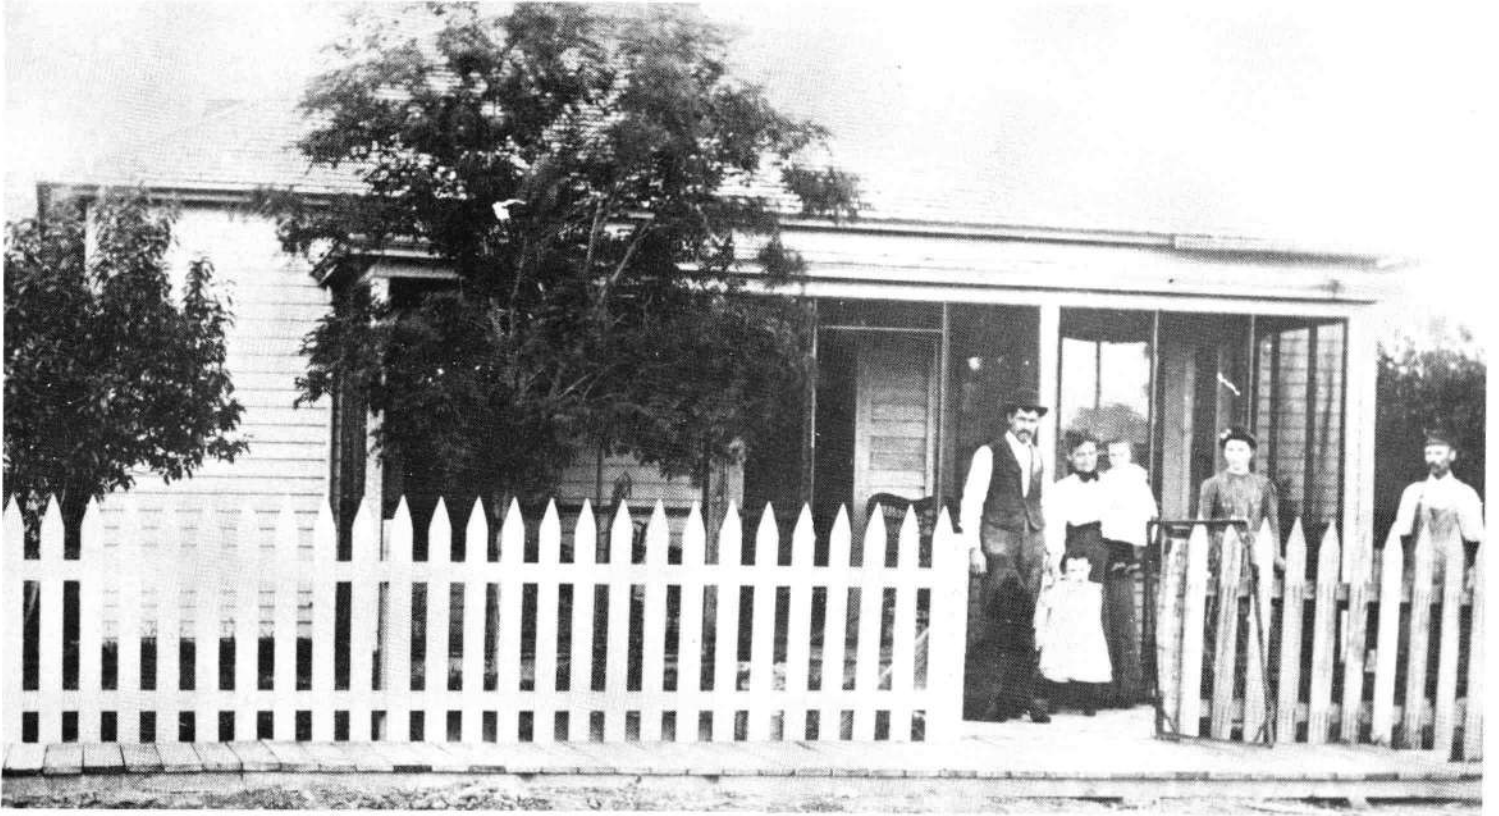

Clyde West stands behind the counter in the Nichols Drug Store, located on the southwest corner of Kansas Avenue and Third Street. Dr. Roscoe T. Nichols, owner, and his two doctor sons, Schuyler and Ross shared offices in the rear of the store. Later the store was sold to Dr. Fannon, who in time sold to Charles Taylor.

Standing left to right: Bill Feather, Mr. Craige, Had Lane, Dr. Nichols, a barber, Mr. Etzold, John Hobble.
Seated left to right: J.E. George, Ed Woods, Mr. Reed, Dr. Knisley, Mr. Craige, Judge Campbell, Mr. Meyers, Al Farmer, Mr. Templeton, Unidentified, O.T. Wood.

Limestone quarry on the John Kneeland Ranch.

Ezra Shorb home at 521 North Pershing (moved from 107 East 2nd)
Note the board walk.

Lumber being hauled to the Sealy well north of Liberal in 1918.

Crowd gathered for Merchant's Drawing, on East Third Street.
Early 1930's

Weidensaul home, 712 North Grant

Epworth Hospital was built in 1919 by the Methodist Church Conference at a cost of $87,000.00. A three story building of copper chief brick with Bedford stone trim, it had 54 rooms, including an operating room, clinic room, X-ray department, diet kitchen, dining room, storage room and laundry. In later years additions were made and remodeling has been done.

Liberal High School girl's basketball team 1909. Top row, left to right: Maurine Long, Edna Stevesson, and Mildred Hood. Front row, left to right: LaFaun Wilkens, Hazel Scandrett, May Stevesson, Laura Wood and Edna Fuest and Professor F.O. Rindom.

Liberal street scene, November 11, 1921.