The records of the Presbyterian Church have been copied and bound in a nice little pamphlet by Mrs. Jack (Mary Ida) Grubb and Mrs. Lucy Dun (a non-member). This is a time consuming job well done. We should have more of the church records copied by members. Find out if anyone is working on your church records and if not, why not give it a try?

Our book sale was pretty successful, we made about a third less than last year. Of course, volunteers to work were as scarce as always. I found the following in a book and thought I would reprint it as it is pertinent.

All societies exist through the efforts and work of their members and no society can exist where the members expect to receive without giving.

What have you done lately? There are so many jobs that need to be done that really don't require specialized experience. Typing, sorting, proofreading, indexing the 1880 census, pasting clippings in notebooks-- all have to be done. Also, does anyone want to work on the quarterly or learn to run the mimeo? Give it some thought.

It won't be too long (if this weather ever clears up) until the Wilson Co. Marriages are ready for publication. I have to spend a few days at the court house checking the copy and so it is coming along and won't be too long.

This has no real bearing on our group but I thought it should be shared. From the Neo. Daily Sun, 29 Aug, 1911. 'Troy, Mo., Aug. 28., Mrs. Nancy Edey, 96 years old, today married her 6th husband, Ree Inlow, 24 years old. The bride's 5th husband died 6 weeks ago at the poor farm. The throng at the depot cheered as the pair stepped lightly aboard the train bound for Hannibal. The couple appeared oblivious to the staring crowd. The bride was gowned in a plain black dress with a belt made of a piece of leather and a clothesline. She wore a sunbonnet and appeared happy. Inlow wore overalls and a hickory shirt. He was coatless and smiled as he helped his aged bride aboard the train surrounded by eager spectators. The bridegroom, too, has lived near nearly all his life. He stated he was marrying her because of his love for her. Lincoln Co has been practically keeping Mrs. Inlow for the past 5 years. She has been living in a tent between Silex and Whitesides, for the last few weeks. Mrs. Inlow drove to Silex this morning and joined Inlow. After their brief wedding journey they will return to her tent, where they will make their home until winter. The bride has retained good health and can see without the aid of spectacles. Her hearing is also good. Mrs. Inlow is familiarly known to Silex residents as 'Aunt Nanc'. The bridegroom is employed on a farm near Silex."

RESEARCH

As an aid to members we have a research section. Members who have genealogy books of their own will do limited free research from their own books for other members. New books now available are:

Montgomery Co. Va. ca. 1790 Comprehensive Study including 1790 tax lists, abstracts of over 800 land surveys and data concerning migration.

To take advantage of this service, available only to members, send your request to the Society, along with a stamped, self-addressed envelope and it will be forwarded to the member owning the book. If you have books and would be able to participate and research let us know what you have available for future publication.

Whiteside Cemetery

Fall River Twp.

This cemetery is near New Albany. Cross the RR west of Owen Mason's and the cemetery is back in the fields near the river on a place where the banks are very high and it does not flood.

Mrs. Ray Garrett took Mrs. J. D. Long, Mrs. Howard Cantrall and Mrs. Giles Creager to visit this cemetery in the spring 1964. We found it needs to be fenced, brush removed and mowed. There were wild flowers in bloom and the stones were beautiful but need to be set up.

We deciphered the following:

The following names were taken from two old account books which were loaned to us by Joe W. Allen, which had been kept by the late Dr. Allen Richard McCartney during his practice here. The first account book is obviously missing since he started practicing here in 1867 and continued until his death in 1907. Some of the pages were undated but were in the book containing the earliest entries so it can be assumed that they were in the 1800s. The short list at the end of this article is the babies he delivered, and this is the only record there is of the births. Some in paranthesis have been identified.

Fredonia Citizen 25 August 1876

A boy named Witt, about 10 years old, was killed by lightening at the residence of Mr. Barkley in Fall River, last Saturday night. The lightening struck the chimney of the house, passing down the stove pipe to where young Witt lay on the floor in bed and continued through the floor, killing a dog that lay under the house.

During the storm of last Saturday night, lightening struck the house of A. J. Hunter, of Verdigris, and exploded a flask of powder hanging on the wall over a bed where three children were sleeping. The powder flashed in the faces of the children, burning them quite badly, and the shock stunning them quite severely.

Uncle Dan Smith is now the miller at the Toronto Mill.
