MRS. HENRY CLAY CHILES, STATE REGENT

MRS. TENNIE SELBY BURK, STATE TREASURER
316 E. JEFFERSON ST.
KIRKSVILLE, MO.

I've pointed 'em out in Savage, I've run 'em down in Burke,
Through Hotten's lists and others, I've warmed unto the work,
Till now I've got 'em sorted and set out in a row,
Two, four and eight, and so on, as far as they will go.
As they lie spread before me, my pride is taken down,
By the over great proportion of Smith and Jones and Brown.

I've stalked a herd of nobles and backed into a king,
So that an ancestral corner is quite the proper thing,
As far as lesser liars, celebrities or cranks,
I've resurrected all I own, to decorate the ranks.
But they make no impression when they are reckoned with Humiliating numbers of Brown and Jones and Smith.

I have no foolish scruples about a missing link,
But forge 'em quite as deftly as Mr. Burke, I think.
My flying leaps and guesses are always to the good
And fill a link as neatly as any old link could.
But still with all my efforts my heart in secret owns
That mainly I'm compounded of Brown and Smith and Jones.

My Smiths are not connected with famous of their kind,
My Browns and Jones did nothing much so far as I can find;
But I've a consolation when tempted to ask why,
It seems to me quite likely they were just as good as I.
And how can I be doubtful about my kin and kith,
If I'm a living sample of Brown and Jones and Smith.
