D.A.D.E COUNTY TOWNSHIPS

Dade County Missouri was organized in accordance with an Act of General Assembly of the State of Missouri, approved January 29, 1841, and an act supplemental thereto, approved February 15, 1841. The County was formed from what was Greene County. The original county extended nine miles south of its present southern boundary and ten miles north of its present northern boundary. The county was reduced to its present limits March 28, 1846. The Courthouse at Greenfield was destroyed October 6, 1864, along with most of its records.
