Baker, W. C., Farmer, S. 8, T. Madison, P. O. Blythedale. The subject of this sketch was born April 20, 1845, in Van Buren County, Iowa. Shortly thereafter his parents moved to Monroe County, Indiana. They were formerly of Indiana and had gone to Iowa seeking a new home. Iowa was then far west. Not liking the country they returned home. He was of a family of eleven children, the eldest three being children of a first wife. Mr. Baker was the fourth son of the second wife. His mother was the daughter of Samuel Hite, who was of Scotch-Irish ancestry. Mr. Baker's father died when he was about five years old leaving his mother the farm for the support of herself and the minor children. She died in August, 1857, his father having willed one-half the farm to his eldest son J. H. Baker, at her death. In 1859 J. H. Baker, who had been in Illinois and Missouri two or three years returned to Indiana and sold the farm. He then moved to Harrison County, Missouri, near Cainesville, and made this his new home. Mr. Baker and his sister Anne, aged 15 and 10 respectively, came with their brother, he having been appointed guardian of the minor children. Mr. Baker then worked on his brother's farm for two years. In April, 1862, he volunteered in the Third M. S. M. Cavalry and was discharged September 27, 1862, at Springfield, Missouri, on account of physical disability. He came back to his brother's farm and worked until June 1, 1864, when he joined Company C, 48th Iowa Infantry, one hundred day service from which he was honorably discharged at the end of the service. He worked on the farm during the next year then went with his brother Ashbury Baker, to learn the plasterer's trade, working mostly at that trade until he was married. On November 24, 1867, he was united in marriage to Sarah A. Glaze, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Glaze of Madison Township, Harrison County, her parents having moved here from Highland County, Ohio, in 1857. Mr. Baker being saving and industrious bought a 118 acre farm with a house on it, the old Flood Farm. He repaired and plastered the house and they went to house-keeping soon after their marriage. He remained on his farm until 1869, when he went into the saw mill business on Grand River in partnership with his brother-in-law, Nelson Glaze. He remained in that business for five years when he traded his farm for another farm adjoining his father-in-law, where he has since resided. He lived the first two years in a small log cabin then he built his present residence in which he has lived for forty years. There were seven children born to them, five sons and two daughters, all church members and good citizens. He and his wife have since furnished four of the boys with good farms, three of whose farms adjoin his. He still has a section of good Missouri farm land. He is still an active and energetic farmer. He has a few business interests in Cainesville but his farm has always been his chief care and pride. He joined the Methodist church in early youth and has remained a faithful member. He has always voted the Republican ticket. He is a man well known and generally respected by all.
