T H A N K S

To Mr. and Mrs. Hal Hunter, Red Oak, Missouri for making the Cemetery Association records available for this book. Without their kind efforts, their patience to my every question, their recollections of many early day residents, much of this information would not be contained in this book.

They opened their doors to us and made us feel at home while pouring over their records. They took time out from their chores and their carpentry work to help finalize our work on our last unexpected trip to their home.

Mr. Hunter has kept the cemetery record book since about 1950 and has helped to keep the cemetery looking neat and clean through much of this time. The keeping of the cemetery is assigned to others now, and I would like to say they are doing an excellent job. The record book is still kept by Mr. Hunter.

I N T R O D U C T I O N

Many of our ancestors settled in the area that became the community of Red Oak, Missouri. The search for their final resting places kept bringing me back to this cemetery and the ones surrounding it. After numerous trips, it became apparent that complete accuracy could only be attained by compiling complete burial records for these cemeteries as time permitted.

Our third Great Grandfather, Christopher Guin emigrated from Tennessee to Missouri in 1845 and settled on North White Oak creek, his land included the later site of Red Oak.

The land for the Red Oak Cemetery was donated by John Thomas Guin "Tom", son of Christopher and Amelia Guin. Prior to the establishment of this cemetery, burials of a few early day residents were made in the "Guin Family Cemetery." This cemetery is located about a half mile north-east of the Red Oak Cemetery. This old cemetery is in very bad condition, being over-run by cattle, many of the stones broken and laying on the ground. Some of the graves are unmarked. All of the tombstone inscriptions from the Guin Family Cemetery are included but these names are not in the index of the Red Oak Cemetery as we did not want to confuse the Red Oak record.

Christopher Guin, or "Kit" as he was called, had no near neighbors so when he heard chopping in the timber to the east one day, he went to investigate. He found David Gray, who had recently settled about three miles east on the same stream. (He is the man for whom Gray's Point was named.) Mr. Gray was felling trees to make logs for a school house. Mr. Guin offered to help, went home and returned with his slaves and had them get the logs out for the building. The one room log school house was built about one-half mile west of Red Oak several years before the Civil War. The seats were slabs, there were no blackboards, and no money for public schools. These were subscription schools and pupils usually paid one dollar a month to attend. When a frame school house was built at Red Oak later, this log school house building was moved to Red Oak and used as a blacksmith shop by Adolph and William Weber. This building later burned.

As a matter of interest, we submit a list of teachers from the Red Oak school. The exact chronological order is unknown to the writer but these names do appear with most of the early day teachers listed first. This school closed and merged with other districts in a consolidated school for the fall term of 1952.

At one time this thriving, industrious little community of Red Oak boasted of a church, school, music hall, I.O.O.F. Lodge, Masonic Lodge, blacksmith shop, general store and also a car repair shop in the early 1900's.

Other prospering - growing communities in this same area were Gray's Point, Larussell, Bowers' Mill, Avilla, Round Grove, and Golden City. None of these ever attained any size, but instead, most have practically faded away.

GUIN FAMILY CEMETERY

Red Oak, Lawrence County, Missouri
[T29N, R28W, Sec. 17]

Canvassed 1964 by:
Paul & Mary Curry

Location: Farmland northeast of the old homeplace of John Thomas Guin, Sr. along the White Oak creek bed. This creek is dry most of the year.

The cemetery is very much in need of care as cattle seem to have the run of it. The stones are either falling over or being knocked down, and some of the graves are unmarked.

The slave cemetery is said to be across the creek and west a short distance. Unfortunately, these graves were only marked by field stones. An older resident of Red Oak and a descendant of Christopher Guin was unable to locate this burial ground when he searched for it.
