ROBERT W. DAVIS was born in Lewis county, New York, on October 4, 1842, and died at Brookfield, May 31, 1912. He was a son of William and Susan (Williams) Davis, also natives of the state of New York. He died there in 1900. His widow also died in that state, passing away in 1906. They were the parents of six children, three of whom are living. Robert being the only one residing in Missouri. The others are: David H., a missionary in China and connected with the Chinese government in an official capacity; Charles M., and Henry E. Their paternal grandfather was Benjamin Davis, a native of New York. Mr. Davis was married three times. His first wife, whom he married in 1867, died in 1871. In 1873 he was united with Miss Helen E. Clarke, a daughter of A. O. and Fannie (Holloway) Clarke. This union resulted in two children: Mabel F., the wife of Leon R. Lane of Topeka, Kans. and Albert C., a resident of Tulsa, Okla. Their mother died in 1891 and in 1894 the father married his last wife, whose maiden name was Katharine Roberts. They had: Robert V., Helen, Louise, Frances and Theodore.
