WILLIAM JAMES was born in the city of Sydney, Australia, on April 13, 1866. His parents, Isaac and Elizabeth (Williams James were migratory persons, and soon after the birth of the son returned to Wales, their native land, and in 1869, when he was but three years old, came to the United States and located in Missouri. Mr. James was married in Macon county, this state, on October 8, 1902 to Miss Martha Evans, the daughter of Thomas O. and Maria (Young) Evans, esteemed residents of that county. Two sons have been born of the union, William I. and David T., both of whom are attending school in Brookfield. They are bright boys and almost sure to make their mark in a highly creditable way in the world when they reach maturity.

SHELDON J. MERCHANT was born in Cattaraugus county, New York, on November 2, 1843. His parents, Chauncey H. and Helen D. (Vansyle) Merchant were also natives of New York state, and the father died in that state in 1886. The mother died in 1905. On May 5, 1869, Mr. Merchant was married to Miss Elizabeth Riggs, a daughter of Martin and Mary J. (Riggs) Riggs, who became residents of Linn county in 1865. They have had seven children, three of whom are living: Mary H., who is the wife of W. A. Thompson; Martin E., and Herbert.

ISAAC NEWTON WILBER was born in Dutchess county, New York, on February 24, 1836. Mr. Wilber is a son of George W. and Mary A. (Stewart) Wilber, who were also natives of the state of New York. Nine children were born in the family. One son, Jacob E. Wilber, served in the One Hundred and Nineteenth Volunteer Infantry three years during the Civil War. The grandfather of these children was Jacob Wilber. He died in the state of New York. Mr. Wilber was married on April 7, 1861, in Hannibal, to Miss Levina Kain, a native of Pennsylvania. They have seven children: Mary L., who is now Mrs. M. A. Cooley; Henrietta, who is the wife of George Chapman; George S., Jacob E., Isaac N., Jr.; Sarah E., who is the wife of Charles Betebenner, of Hannibal; and Walter A.
