JESSE WILSON RIDGWAY (Deceased): born January 13, 1827. In 1850, he was married to Miss Melcena True a native of Boone county, Missouri. They have reared a family of seven children, of whom five are living: Laura E., William E., W. Thompson, Sampson G., Mary J., Arthur E., and Jesse W. (Page 560-561)

MAJOR LUTHER THOMAS FORMAN: is a native of "old Kentucky", born in Bourbon county, August 21, 1825. The Christian names of his parents were Joseph and Margaret, his mother's maiden name was Barbee. In April 1846, he married Miss Eliza Hobbs, who died in the fall of 1852. His second wife was Miss Araminta Brown, daughter of Colonel Meredith Brown, married in the spring of 1853. Nine years thereafter, in 1862, his wife died, and in 1863, he was united to Mrs. Emily Graham. The Major is the father of eleven children living: viz., Charles H., Benjamin L., and John by his second wife, and Joseph W., William Ernest (alias Peter Cooper), Maggie, Katie Frances, Lida E., Virginia, Estella, and Lillian Maude. (Pages 440-441)

JOSEPH C. MOORE (Deceased): was born in Alabama, on the first day of May, 1791. He was the son of James Moore. He was first married in Tennessee, in about the year 1828, to Miss Jane Pate, daughter of Jeremiah Pate, of Tennessee. She died in 1846, and Mr. Moore was again married early in 1848 to Miss Sophia Root, daughter of David Root. She also is dead. Six children were born to Mr. Moore by his first marriage, four of whom still survive: Nancy (Root), Jeremiah, William L., and James A. By his second marriage Mr. Moore had four children: Jane, Ann, Martha, and Leco (Taggart). (Pages 455-456)
