WHITE OAK GROVE CEMETERY

Copied from the PLATTE PURCHASE PARADISE-THE STORY OF WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP, NODAWAY CO MO. page 9 by Anna Lee Walter

In the depths of the White Oak Grove is the final resting place of some who have gone before us. Recollection is that a rail fence on the south identified the location of about 30 tombstones. Only 2 are visible now. One marker reads "Robert J. Gray, age 34, died 1854". The other Lucy, wife of Guilford Richards", "Remember me as I pass by, as you are now, so once was I".

end of quote

The following information was given me by Leona Whorton & Nettie Turnipseed on Sept 19 1981. Known burials include:

MEEKER CEMETERY

Located in Gentry Co. MO. about 1/4 mile from Gentry co. line, and about 1 1/2 miles from Andrew Co line. The cemetery is fenced, brush has been trimmed in recent years, but grass and weeds have grown very tall, making it difficult to find some stones.
