NODAWAY COUNTY'S FIRST COURTHOUSE

Nodaway County's original courthouse was built at Second and Main for $250. By the fall of 1852, there had been built a small brick office building on the courthouse square for use of the county clerk. (It was torn down in 1868.) The county courthouse square had been established a block north of the site of the original courthouse. By 1853, the second courthouse of the county was under construction. It was a brick building that served the county until the present courthouse was constructed in 1881. (From an article written by Dr. J. W. Jones, president emeritus of Northwest Mo. State College, and printed in the Maryville Daily Forum, April 26, 1966.)
