Beginning of MEMORIES

"Worthy of being Remembered"

Farewell to you, our high school Building! Born at a time when communities were depressed and purchasing power gone, you became both a stimulus to effort and a means of monetary income----WPA days. Young you are still in years and your usefulness ceaseth not, yet we must move on. Many are they whom you have sheltered as they sought to gain the knowledge so essential to happiness and success. We will long remember nor soon forget those industrious and hard-working students who studied here. You heard the little outbreak of sudden joy when some boy or girl discovered he had made the grade. You saw the hidden tear which coursed down the cheek when another discovered he hadn't made it. A pain of sorrow touched your ceilings and tears fell down from your windows as you beheld other boys and girls who just didn't care. Such is life!

Seniors have graduated and left you. Now we must all go----Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen. There is prepared for us another place. You are needed for a different purpose; voices and labors of another group will soon fill your halls. So, our beloved high school building of the past, we dedicate with great affection this lovely Annual for 1959 to of you.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

"Their Big Project for 1959--the New High School Addition to Roubidoux."

Dr. R. O. DeWitt

Dorsey Rayl

Elmer Long

Our Superintendent
Mr. Parker

"Our MEMORIES are Richer because of Them."

This year a new member was added to the administrative staff to assist Mr. Parker to more effeciently execute his increasing responsibilities. Mr. Harry Schubert was selected for this position, and he is shouldering his new burdens of administration well. In the picture below we see him talking to some students, which is very characteristic of what we see him doing every morning and evening as the busses arrive and depart.

Our Superintendent, Mr. Parker is a busy man. He works with a hundred teachers, plans for twenty-nine hundred students, and reports directly to the Board of Education. In the picture above you see him and his secretaries--Miss Norma Farris, Mrs. Peggy McKenzie, and Mrs. Ina Mae Smith---working through some school business.

"Our first Glimpse of Him at the Beginning of the School Day."

Asst. - Supt.
Mr. Schubert

"Planning something which will made MEMORIES more meaningful."

In this picture Mr. Roam is going over some important matter with his secretary, Mrs. Bernadine Howard. Bernadine is new to the office this year and is a former Waynesville graduate.

Our Principal
Mr. John Roam

The office of High School Principal in Waynesville schools is ever becoming more strenuous and responsible. The working Faculty is larger, many more students are enrolled, and the student turn-over is considerable. Mr. Roam is new in the Waynesville system this year, having come in from a two-year Fullbright Teaching Fellowship in Greece. He works for his students and faculty and he expects them to work.

CLASS PROPHECY

October 15, 1979, arrived like the first day of spring. It was the day for the '59 class reunion. Bernadine, who was still secretary after 20 years (when asked why she stayed on for so many years, she answered with a gust of laughter and shrieks---she is very happy in her work.) looked out the office window as she dusted the cabinets. A huge black Cadillac drove up and who should be seen getting out... why, Eddie Lander, who was now the only bachelor to ever become President (on the Republican ticket). Since he doesn't play golf, he took this one vacation to attend the reunion of his old Alma Mater.

"Greetings, Chick," he said to Bernadine. "Where's the 'Big Daddy of this operation?" He turned, started, as the principal came into the room followed by Waynesville's sharp coach, Larry George. "Sam," he shouted. "Sam Wood... and Larry George. Put'er there!" They shook hands, and after talking over old times, Eddie asked where everyone was.

Sam shook his head sadly. "You're the only one to come. We don't know where the others are."

"Well, have no fear, man, Eddie's here." Where upon he started dialing all kinds of numbers on the telephone. "Hello," he said, when he evidently got the number he wanted. "Get me the Chief of the F.B.I."--- short pause---"I want to speak to Special Agent, Shirley Davis. Hello? Shirley? Want you to send me some info' on the old class. Yes. Fine. Right away." A couple of hours later, Shirley, Sam, Larry and Eddie were all discussing the information they had dug up.

These are out of confidential files of the F.B.I., but we know you all will keep the secret.....

It wasn't hard to find Billy Coates for he was President Eddie's own personal mechanic and chauffeur.

Daryl True was one of Eddie's rivals in the last campaign. He also owns quite a bit of property in Alabama.

Not to be outdone, Thomas Cusick owns a 2,000 acre farm in Arizona.

It seems that Marie Alcalá is in Italy filming her latest movie. She is now rated as Sophia Loren II. Also, in the show business world they found Bill Condra, Johnnie Stacey, Jerry Laughlin, and Karl Wienand. They just made an appearance on "This Is Your Life." As recording stars they once sold over 2 million copies of "You Had A Dream"... or was it a nightmare? Frank Jones is still playing the guitar for Elvis Presley. They have a new record out called "Don't Get Around Much Anymore." Jimmie Smith's band played at Carnegie Hall last week, and won such acclamation that he was asked to appear again... somewhere else. Jerry Jackson now owns a chain of T.V. stations and Carl Bartlett, though not in show business directly, makes his living as a T.V. and radio technician.

In the world of society, Carl Givens, playboy and world traveler, told reporters of a movie magazine that he was once shy and had an inferiority complex.

A number of the old classmates were found in the sports world. Don Prock made headlines this year by pitching a no-hitter enabling his team to win this year's world series. Basketball is in season now and Danny Kipp was found playing on that All-Star team, "The Arkansas Travelers." B.J. Sessoms is right there cheering the team away...er...on, that is. Also in the sports world we recognize Earnest Spears, a former member of the Globe Trotters now playing for the Alaskan Moon Trotters.

Anna Mae Farris and Kay Morrow were working as secretaries in a big New York corporation. Judy Stickney started out as a secretary too, but found business much better when she married her boss. Beverly Webster, who has a modeling agency, is building a chain of 'Slim Bym's' in the East. Larry Weatherly finds that being an accountant is quite profitable. Carolyn Fulbright is employed as a stenographer by Becky Strode, who has just written the sequel to Peyton Place. Marie Null is chief hair stylist at Micheal of the Waldorf's

David Wells is still in college. He has decided to continue his studies there...the advanced, advanced studies of the college co-ed. Joe Smith is studying art and living in Greenwich Village.

Margarita Yray is such a cute nurse that her patients are trying to find excuses not to get well. Frank Ellzey is a well-known doctor now. He lives in Texas.

Also in the medicine business is Janet Hough. She is the originator and owner of Hough's Cure-All Elixer--guaranteed to cure anything.

Robin Ruzek was found on Mt. Palomar in deep concentration studying the vast, complex, amazing, physical, and chemical conditions on the far-away planet, Pincus number 9.

Certain that they had found everyone, Shirley contacted Janet Thompson, who now owns her own "bomber" lines, and asked her to fly everyone to Waynesville. With the help of Milagros Rios, who was stewardess, Janet brought everyone in safely, and by 7:30 p.m., October 15, the class of '59 reunited in the W.H.S. Gym.

It was such a riot that the police were called in, but since Clenis McClain was chief, he hauled the neighbors into court instead.

Although 20 years has brought some wrinkles to the class of '59 and put some grey hairs on their heads, they have kept the same spirit as when they walked from the stage with their diplomas 20 years ago. It was a great day for everyone and may they all live to see another class reunion in 20 years, and many, many more after that.

The crest on our front cover.

Did you notice it? No other Yearbook in the world can carry one like it; it is Waynesville's very own. At the request of Mr. Brown, Instructor in Publications, Mr. Cantwell of the Art Department secretly set one of his students to the task of designing and creating a suitable crest, or emblem, for the front cover of the '59 TIGER. Danny Kipp, a Senior brought this design into existence, though he didn't know why he was working upon it. After its submission to the Publications Department Mr. Brown made a slight change in the top of the crest by adding the date line. We hope you like it, as well as the whole Annual.

The Class of '59 is a visionary one. It will make its Future great because its MEMORIES of the Past are challenging. It is ready to go to its larger Field of Service. As a Symbol of its future Outlook the front Endsheets of this Annual has been designed. The Graduates of the Class are represented by Larry Weatherly and Beverly Webster looking over their educational Home of the Past and pointing with courage and conviction to the Future.

DARYL TRUE wills his handsome flattop to Roy Fritts.
SAM WOOD wills his dirty gym locker to Lester Keith.
KARL WIENAND wills his high note in "Rhythm 'n Blues" (Boys' Quartet) to the Alto's in Acapella Choir.
LARRY WEATHERLY wills his white bucks to Ogden DeWitt.
BEVERLY WEBSTER does hereby declare and will to Donna Dunstedter said electric typewriter in Mrs. Pemberton's room for safe keeping.
DAVID WELLS wills his Union Card in "Rafter Monkey's of America" to the least talented idiot in Dramatics. (Wonder who it is?)
MARGARITA YRAY wills her pony tail to Juanita Maldonado.

GUIDANCE AND COUNSELING

Here's something for your MEMORIES!!! "Where do I go from here, Mrs. Mottaz? I'm graduating but I don't think I've made very good use of my time while here." Or, "I want to change courses, Mrs. Mottaz; the teacher wants me to work in this other course."

The seniors will remember meeting with this person as one of the last before going out into a rough, demanding world. Others will lean upon her before getting to senior rank. Mrs. Mottaz helps them all.

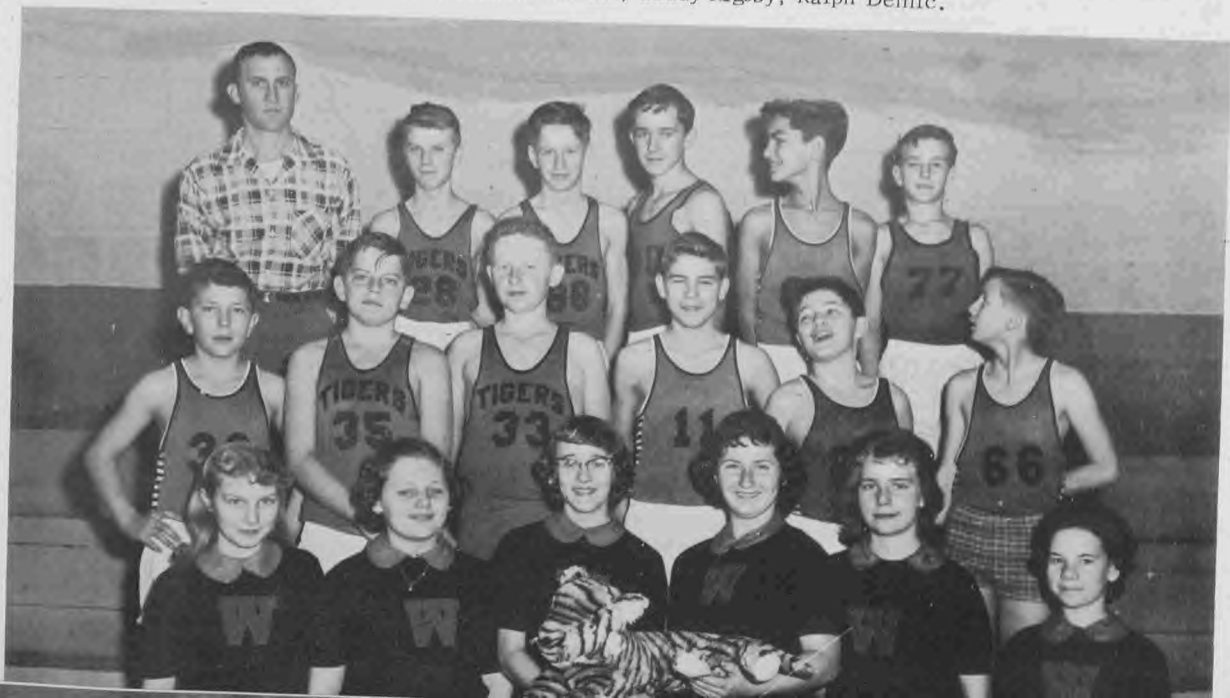

CHEERLEADERS: Judy Proud, Jane Dryden, Margaret Miller, Barbara De Witt, Vicky Covington. FRONT ROW: Billy Davenport, Billy Doolin, Dick Stolp, James Smith, Jim Deviney, Antonio Guiuan, Chris Hadley. She'll never find it there!

Boys, boys, on the court play BALL. If you MUST, go outside to settle your differences.

Which one is human!!!

Now, who do they think they're foolin'?

Goin' up or comin' down--the player or the ball?

You're not the only one that's lost.

Now see here, Mrs. Ousley, get out of that refrigerator! You know very well Mrs. Long or Mrs. Logan will catch you before you can sneak a slice of baked HAM out that door. Or would they join you!!!

These are the good cooks who feed the hungry mob at Central Cafeteria. And their temperaments and their friendly ways are as good as their cooking. In your MEMORIES remember Mrs. Long, Mrs. Logan and Mrs. Ousley.

Here you see our School Lunch Supervisor in her proper surroundings and at her very best. Smiling, affable, friendly, Mrs. Mae Hensley is one to be retained in our MEMORIES when we think of "eats" and when we hear "Come and get it, you hungry boys and girls." She took time out of a busy hour to rise graciously and pose charmingly when the photographer called upon her.

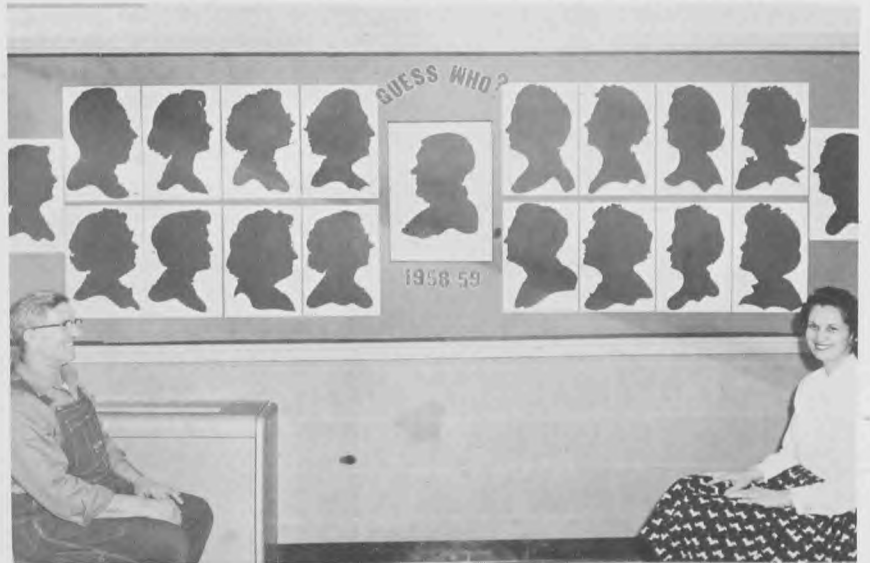

While angels announced once again the birth of the Saviour to a sinful world, Jim and Lewis, swinging their brooms and pushing their mops, scattered the dust and brought a note of cleanliness to an otherwise dirty building. Before the English Department's Christmas scene James Crossland and Lewis Graves flash a smile as they wish everybody a merry Christmas and a happy New Year at the beginning of the long Christmas holidays.

WAYNESVILLE Elementary Schools

Mr. Norman Humphrey and his secretary, Mrs. Ada Moore. Mr. Humphrey is a fine Principal and liked by all his students and teachers.

Silhouettes of all personnel at Roubidoux School. This was a bulletin board display and was the creation of Mrs. Hester Eldredge. She is shown at the right with Mr. Miller, custodian, at the left.

These are they who feed the hungry mouths in the lunch room at Roubidoux. Mrs. Roam is cutting the cake, Mrs. Goforth is mixing the salad, and Mrs. Foster is stirring SOMETHING on the range.

FT. WOOD SCHOOLS

At the desk in his office in Pershing School we see Mr. O. W. Brown, Principal of all On-Post Schools, conferring with his secretary, Mrs. Mary Woodstock. Principal Brown is doing a fine job and all his students and teachers like him.

These Pershing cooks really "dish it out." Mrs. Ruby Fields, head cook, and her able assistants, Mrs. Opal Sheldon, Mrs. Joan Orcutt, and Mrs. Kathleen Ogle, make an attractive picture in a well-furnished kitchen, don't you agree? Mr. Oad Long, the custodian, is not attempting to fill his pockets with beans; he's just posing for the photographer.
