George,
 I think you
 about the butch
 and the sweetest guy I've ever met. You look to your of fun. Best look to your in the future. You'll be grateful as far as I'm concerned.
 Don't get connected now!
 It didn't take 10 minutes at all!
 Love ya,
 Phyllis

George
we have come to school for the past four years together
and now we're ready to go our separate ways so
the best of luck
in your life
to come

1960

WAYNESVILLE HIGH SCHOOL
WAYNESVILLE, MISSOURI

THE OLD and THE NEW

MASTER ANTHONY KEN FOSTER
A new basketball star is born. This picture of Kenny's and Sue's first arrival was made on the third day after his birth, at General Hospital in Waynesville. He looks just exactly like his father, doesn't he? Welcome, young man, to the Coaching staff of the Waynesville High School faculty.

This is how Coach "Kenny" Foster looked on the third day of his first Fatherhood. Kenny says he doesn't know which is more nerve-wrecking----- "managing" his newborn son, or "managing" his basketball boys. Mr. Foster, the Annual staff congratulates you on the birth of your wonderfully fine son. Naturally, he'll be a TIGER product.

The OLD. 1960 Seniors. Last to leave the old building and the first to graduate from the new.

The NEW. 1960 Freshman class. First new class to enroll in the new building. They and the new building will start their new experiences together.
