Ralls County, in the eastern part of the State, is bounded north by Marion County, east by the Mississippi River, which separates it from Illinois, and by Pike, south by Pike and Audrain, and west by Audrain, Monroe and Marion Counties. The first settlers came to Ralls in 1811, while the county formed a portion of St. Charles. The county was organized from Pike, 16 Nov. 1820. Daniel Ralls, for whom the county was named, emigrated from Bath County, Kentucky to the Territory of Missouri in October 1817. (Campbell's Gazetteer of Mo., Robert Allen Campbell, 1874.)

The records here presented are made from a microfilm copy, filmed by the compiler, in the Office of the Recorder in the Ralls County Court House at New London, Missouri.

Marriage Book "A" covers the years 1821 to May 1845, and Book "B" from 1845 through 1866. Each marriage bears a number, beginning from the first entry in Book "A" and continuing through Books "B" and "C".

Within the past few years, the Recorder has made a new inverted Index, one according to the grooms, and a second indexed according to the name of the bride, at which time he "corrected" the phonetic spelling of many of the names. This has proven to be helpful in interpreting some of the early script, however, no changes have been made in the names. Wherever there is a variance, the index spelling is placed in brackets immediately following the name as recorded in the marriage register.

All information of genealogical interest has been abstracted. It is assumed that the parties were "of age" and were residents of Ralls County unless otherwise stated.

A "Key" to the names of Ministers and Justices who performed the ceremonies will be found in this book, beginning on page 57. The names are alphabetized and will not appear in the surname index that follows.
