James Granville Baker was a son of William and Rhoda (Summers) Baker (the latter a daughter of Abraham Summers), who came from Kentucky to Missouri in 1826, and settled near Fort Henry, in Randolph county. They lived in this county until 1862, when they removed to Carroll county, locating near Shootwman, where the father died December 20, 1881, at the age of about 80. The mother had died three years before, aged 72. James G. Baker was born in Wayne county, Ky., December 25, 1825, and was reared on Dark's Prairie, in Randolph county, where his parents settled while he was in infancy. On the 15 th of June, 1857 he was married to Miss Elizabeth Lay, a daughter of Frank Lay, of Huntsville, but originally of Virginia, where Mrs. Baker was born March 15, 1834. Mr. and Mrs. Baker have a family of six children: Binda F., now Mrs. Benjamin H. Hammett; Jasper, Miller, Jimmy, Mollie and Euler.

BENJAMIN R. BOUCHER

Page 27

Mr. Boucher is a brother of Daniel B. Boucher and has been a resident of the county from his birth, which eventful day was July 3, 1835. In 1857, when in his twenty-second year, Mr. B. began to teach and for 15 years, with a short interval when his health would not permit, he has continued to wield the ferule. February 22, 1863 he married Miss Elenor F., daughter of M. T. Halliburton, formerly from Tennessee. Mrs. Boucher came to Randolph with her parents when a child of 10 years. He (Mr. B.) owns 90 acres of land, and has at different times filled offices of public trust to the advancement of the weal of the community. He has been clerk and treasurer of the township, U. S. marshall, and for 10 years in succession justice of the peace; he has, in addition, always been connected with the schools as director or clerk. Mr. and Mrs. Boucher have seven children: Bettie, wife of Sylvester Mason; John W., Alice C., Kate, Haskell, Ezra and Delbert; Charles died at the age of 18 months, and Minnie died six years, and Vernon about nine months: both faded as the flowers, on the same day, July 19, 1882. Mrs. Boucher died October 11, 1883.

D. B. BOUCHER

Daniel Boone Boucher is of Kentucky extraction, his parents, Robert Boucher and Elizabeth Wilcox, both having been born in that State. The former, however, came to Randolph when quite a young man, first entered land about three miles west of where D. B. now lives, and remained there until 1849, then settling and improving a farm upon which he lived until his death, in December, 1872. Mr. B. married October 15, 1873, Mrs. Josephine, widow of W. G. Hastings, and daughter of U. G. and Eveline (Turner) Mason. Mrs. Boucher was born in Randolph but spent most of her life in Monroe. She was educated at Springfield, Ky. There are two children: Anna Zelme and Robert Mason. Mrs. B. also has one child by her first marriage, viz.: Mary Eva Hastings.

DAVID P. BOUCHER

David Peeler Boucher, M. D., comes of one of the pioneer families of Randolph county. His parents were both natives of Kentucky. His father, Robert Boucher, was born in Richmond, of Madison county, of that State, February 22, 1795, and his mother whose maiden name was Elizabeth Wilcoxon, in Clark county in 1805. They were married in 1823.. However, Robert Boucher had come to Missouri prior to his marriage, having removed to Howard county as early as 1818. Immediately after his marriage he settled in Randolph county, about four miles north of Huntsville and his wife is believed to have been the first white woman who ever resided north of Huntsville in this county, and west of the grand divide and east of the East Fork of the Chariton. She died on the 12th of May, 1867, and her husband on the 24th of December, four years afterwards. Eight of their family of 12 children are still living, four sons and four daughters. Dr. Boucher was born in Randolph county, November 26, 1837. On the 1st of January, 1865, Dr. Boucher was married to Miss Sarah A., eldest daughter of Harrison Leslie, a successful farmer. Dr. and Mrs. Boucher have five children: Robert Ulysses, Millie B., Sophia J., Manly D. and Nellie D. Five are deceased: Arthur O., William L., Hattie E., Emma P. and Norvil R. A superior medical education, supplemented with over 20 years' experience in the active practice of his profession, have conspired to place Dr. Boucher in the front rank of physicians in Randolph County.

C. F. BURCKHARTT

Judge George H. Burckhartt-- descends from one of the pioneer families of Missouri. His grandfather, Christopher F. Burckhartt, was a native of Maryland, and a gallant soldier under Washington during the War of the Revolution. he immigrated to this State with his family in 1811 and settled first in St. Louis county, and in two years moved to Howard county, where he lived until his death. He was well advanced in years when he came to Missouri, and most of his family of children had grown up and become themselves the heads of families. Among these was George Burckhartt, who became the father of Judge George H.

George Burckhartt, pere, was reared in Frederick county, Maryland, and was married in Jefferson county, Kentucky, to Miss Ruth Dorsey. He and his family came to Missouri five years after his father, and also settled in Howard county. But in 1820 he removed over into Randolph county, where he resided for many years. He died in Howard County when 83 years of age. Before coming to Missouri he had served under Harrison in the War of 1812. He was a member of the first Legislature of Missouri from Howard county, and was a member from Randolph after it was organized.

Judge George H. Burckhartt, the ninth and youngest in his father's family of children, was born in Randolph county on his father's homestead, six miles south-east of Huntsville, Sept. 11, 1823.

In September, 1839, he began teaching in Monroe county, and continued to teach for two years. In the meantime he had determined to devote himself to the legal profession, and during his leisure, while teaching, he pursued a regular course of study preparatory to his admission to the bar. In 1843 he was duly admitted to practice law by Judge P. McBride, of Monroe, sitting at Paris, Monroe county, Mo., and he immediately afterwards entered upon the practice of his profession at Huntsville, Mo.

On the 16th of October, 1849, Judge Burckhardt was married to Miss Amanda McCampbell, a daughter of Wallace McCampbell, an extensive farmer and respected citizen of Randolph county, who settled in that county from Jessamine county, Ky. This union has proved a long and happy one, and was blessed with seven children: John, who died at the age of 24; George Dorsey, who resides in this county some 10 miles south-west of Huntsville; Maria, who is now the wife of J. A. Heether; Wallace, Odon, Guitar, the last two of whom are at home, Miss Ella being in school at Stephen's College, at Columbia.

NEWTON CUNNINGHAM

Page 28

Mr. Cunningham is a native of the county, born October 6, 1847. His father, Joseph Cunningham, came from Tennessee to Missouri, a single man, in 1833, and located in Randolph county. He was married twice, his last wife, and the mother of the subject of this sketch, being Miss Mary J. Goodding, a native of the county, and born on the place upon which N. C. now lives. Joseph Cunningham went to California in 1849, and was in the gold mines for three years. He returned to Missouri but only for a short time, and in 1863 moved his family to California, where he has since made his home. Until the age of 15 Newton C. lived on the farm in Randolph. He then spent eight years on a ranch in California. When he returned to Missouri he took charge of the place upon which he still lives and bought in 1880. Mr. C. is making a speciality of butter-making averaging about 40 pounds a week. He is also largely interested in the sheep business. Mr. Cunningham was married April 11, 1875 to Miss Mary E., daughter of J. D. Dameron.

CHARLES S. DAY

Page 10

Mr. Day, a brother of W. D., is a native of the county, and was born February 28, 1846. He grew to manhood on a farm upon a portion of which he resides. He received a good common school education. In 1864 he enlisted in the State Militia and served until discharged in July, 1865, being stationed most of the time at Huntsville. Mr. D. was married April 15, 1866 to Miss Mary C. Lessly, daughter of Harrison Lessly, formerly of Kentucky, but a resident of the county for many years. Mr. and Mrs. D. have five children living: William E., Dora Belle, Hubert L., Rubie and Jennie Pearl; besides these, one died at a tender age.

WILLIAM D. DAY

Mr. Day, who is engaged in farming and stock-raising, was born in Washington county, Tenn., on the 23rd of January, 1836; his father, Thomas Day, came from Virginia when a young man, marrying Matilda Henley, a native of Tennessee. He moved to Missouri in 1844, and settled in Randolph county, buying a farm already partially improved which is still in the family.

William D. , on April 7, 1863, was married to Miss George Ann, daughter of John V. and Ann Dunn, formerly of Kentucky. Mrs. D. herself, however, was a native of Randolph. They have had four children: Ida G., Anna L., Birdie May and William A. The Day's lived for two years on his present farm, then went to Iowa for a year, and upon his return, lived a year in Macon county, and in 1867, moved back to the old home. During the late war, Mr. William Day served in the militia in the fall of 1864 and winter of 1865.

A remarkable feature of the family of 12 children of Thomas and Matilda Day, six boys and six girls, is all grew to manhood and womanhood with the exception of one, an infant, who died at a tender age. All these have assumed the cares and responsibilities of married life. The parents are still living, the father being nearly 80 years of age and the mother in her seventy-fourth year.

Mr. Elliott was born on his father's farm in Randolph county, Mo., August 4, 1829; his parents Robert and Frances (White) Elliott having emigrated thither from Madison county, Ky. W. W. lived at home until he was 21 years of age, and was given such education as the limited advantages of the county at that time afforded. Upon attaining his majority he learned the carpenters trade, at which he continued to work in different places for the next 15 years. He then came to the place upon which he still resides. in Randolph. It was in the merry month of May, 1863, that Mr. Elliott brought home a blushing bride, Miss Jane, daughter of William and Ithema Terry, originally from Kentucky. To them have been born two children, viz: Alonzo H. and Balie. Although Mr. E. is intensely Southern in his sympathies, the feebleness of his health incapacitated him from taking any active part in the hostilities between the North and South.

JOSEPH A. HANNAH

If one had been on the road between Missouri and East Tennessee in 1835, he might have seen a covered wagon wending its way on to this State. In the wagon was Robert Hannah and wife, formerly a Miss Melinda Jenkins. They came on and settled in Randolph county. He died here on the 4th of March, 1876, and his good wife, had preceded him to the grave in 1855. Six of their family of children are living: James M., now of California; Joseph A., the subject of this sketch; Sarah E., the wife of W. M. Baker; Louisa J., the wife of Elder J. E. Sharp; Julia A., the wife of S. R. King, of Saline county; and Emily E., the wife of E. H. Jett. Margaret F. grew to womanhood and became the wife of J. S. Howard, A. B. and A. M., a professor in Oxford Female College, of the State of Mississippi. She died in 1866. Joseph A. Hannah, was born in Lincoln county, Tennessee., August 5, 1830, emigrated to Missouri in the spring of 1835 and was reared on his father's farm. Having decided to devote himself to farming before he reached manhood, he has ever since followed that occupation. On the 14th of September, 1853, he was married to Miss Isabella, a daughter of Lydia and William King. They have six children: William E., James S., Joseph E., Julia Belle, Mattie F., and Susie B. One child, Lydia A., lived but nine months.

JOHN T. HUNT

Page 48

Mr. H. was a grandson of Daniel Hunt, from whom the city of Huntsville took its name. He and his brother, Nathan, came out from Kentucky and both lived here until their deaths. In Daniel Hunt's family were two sons, William and Andrew, the first of whom married Miss Matilda Turner, also originally from Ky. Of this union came John Thomas Hunt, who was born on the present site of Huntsville, September 15, 1845. His father went to California during the gold excitement and died there in 1849. He left one other child besides John Thomas, Sarah M., who is still unmarried. John Thomas was reared by his uncle Andrew. In 1864 he enlisted in the Southern Service, and was under Capt. Jack Baker most of the time, the latter's company being a part of Elliott's brigade. Remaining out until the surrender at Shreveport, he then returned to Randolph county, and engaged in farming, which he has since followed. March 4, 1869, he was married to Miss Eliza J. Chapman, a daughter of Robert and Eliza J. (Barnes) Chapman, of this county, but originally of Ky. Mr. and Mrs. Hunt have four children: Ella, Arthur, Wilmer and Lillie. One is deceased, John Forrest Jackson.

JOHN P. KLINK

Page 40

Mr. Klink is a Bavarian, and the son of Gotlieb F. Klink and Jacob Wena Wooldridge, both natives of Bavaria. He was born April 14, 1828, and lived in his own country until 1849. He received a good education in his native language and when 15 years of age began to learn the baker's trade, and after serving as apprentice at it for three years he traveled through Germany, plying his vocation in the different cities. At the age of 21 every young man is required to enter the army and as no minor is permitted to leave the State, John P., being on the border line, slipped away and emigrated to the States. After a stormy and adventurous trip across the ocean, he landed at New Orleans May 8, 1849. He worked first in St. Louis, then at Boonville, and on to Glasgow in 1852 and started a bakery for himself. After a year he came to Randolph county and went into business in Huntsville. After two months he was burned out, losing everything, but he started again, and his was the first bakery in the whole section of the country. Mr. Klink was married February 14, 1855, to Miss Elizabeth S., a daughter of Robert Belsher, formerly from Ky. They have a family of eight children: Mattie, Jonathan, Sylvester, Louisa, Emma, George W., James F., and Mary Sue.

W. T. RICHMOND

Page 43

Mr. Richmond is a native of the township in which he still resides, Chariton, and was born April 14, 1834. His parents, John and Elizabeth (Rose) Richmond, were early settlers. On the 24th of January, 1856, Mr. Richmond was married to Miss Sarah J. Gray. She died, however, eight years afterwards, April 25, 1864. There are three children now living the fruits of this union: Mary F., now Mrs. Charles McLean; Bettie, now Mrs. Alex Broaddus, and James G. at home. Mr. Richmond was married a second time, January 9, 1867, when Mrs. Mary S., the widow of B. B. Austin, became his wife. She, too, was taken from him by death after a short married life, dying November 19, 1877, leaving him three children: Allie, now Mrs. Italy Wright; Lutie, now completing her college course at College Mound, and Frankie B. To his present wife Mr. Richmond was married November 11, 1878. Mrs. Richmond was before her marriage to him the widow of Theophiles Sears, and her maiden name was Cornelia S. Hicks. Her first husband, who was public administrator of the county, died September 18, 1874. She has one son, Theophilus P. Sears. Her first husband by a former marriage of his had a son, Walter S., who is at present representative of Macon county, and resides at LaPlata. Mr. and Mrs. Richmond have no children by their marriage.

JOSEPH C. RIDINGS

Joseph C. Ridings, M. D., and Overton H. Ridings, M. D., leading practitioners in the medical profession in the north-eastern part of Randolph county, are the sons of George Ridings, Esq., an old and respected citizen and successful farmer of Monroe county, but originally of Virginia. George Ridings was born in the Old Dominion on the 10th of September, 1815, and came to Missouri in an early day. In 1848 he was married to Miss Martha Hersman, formerly of near Lexington, Ky., where she was born in 1827. She died, however, three years after her marriage, on the 16th of December, 1851, in Monroe county, where she and her husband had previously lived. She left two sons, only one of whom, however, Joseph C., lived to reach manhood. On the 15th of May, 1854, the father was married to Miss Susan Hersman, a cousin to his first wife. Of the family of five children by this union, two are now living, Overton H. and Abbie, now also of Cairo, residing with her mother, who is still living. The father died at Lynchburg, Ohio on the 22nd day of April, 1872.

Dr. Joseph C. Ridings was born in Monroe county, Mo., May 8, 1849. He has taken a leading and enviable position in his profession. On the 6th of October, 1874, he was married to Miss Rosa Voorhies, a daughter of C. F. Voorhies. Mrs. Ridings was born in Rapides Parish, La., June 16, 1853. They have three children, Pearl, George V. and Cornelius R.

Page 4

Mr. R., one of the substantial and respected citizens of Jackson township, is at the same time one of the oldest native residents, if not the oldest, of Randolph county. He was born near Huntsville, on the 23rd of July, 1823. From boyhood he has followed farming. On the 25th of December, 1849 he was married to Miss Elizabeth J. Tedford. Seven of the nine children are living. Mr. Riley's first wife died on the 24th of April, 1873. His present wife was, previous to her marriage to him, a Mrs. Susan Tabor, the widow of Thomas Tabor of Macon county. This marriage was solemnized August 9, 1874, and three children, two sons and a daughter, have followed. The names of his children are: Laura F., John W., Margaret L., Susan H., Olivia A., Virginia C., Nannie J., Mollie Lee, Victor H., Herbert E., Buler G. and Earl. Mr. Riley's parents were Abraham and Mary (Dale) Riley, the father born in Maryland, June 18, 1776, and the mother in Kentucky 10 years afterward. They had six sons and six daughters, four sons and two daughters of whom are residents of Randolph and Macon counties. The others are deceased. The parents were among the very earliest settlers having removed here from Ky. in 1822. The mother died in 1847, and the father died September 16, 1866, aged 90. It should be mentioned that Mr. R. served as a volunteer in the United States army in the Mexico in 1846-47.

VALENTINE ROLLINS

Page 22

Mr. R. was born in Danville, Cumberland county, Me., Sept. 14, 1818, his parents, Abiel L. and Martha (Manuel) Rollins, living all their lives in the same State. Mr. Rollins, Sr., served at one in the militia, doing muster service. Valentine R. spent his youth, and, indeed, part of his maturer years in his native State. He was educated there, and taught school for one term. His first wife, to whom he was married in Cumberland county in 1844, was a Miss L. S., daughter of Samuel Verill, also a life long resident. The year after his marriage, Mr. Rollins came West to seek his fortune, and made his home upon part of the same ground upon which he now lives. In 1857 Mrs. Rollins died, and the following year Mr. R. was married again, this time to Miss L. B. Boucher, daughter of Robert Boucher, formerly of Kentucky. To them have been born seven children; Martha J., wife of W. R. McDaniel; Aba A., wife of James D. Peeler; Sarah L., Millie B., Walter A., Frederick V. and Charles. Mr. Rollins has some military experience though he was not in any engagement.

W. M. SEARS

Mr. Sears, a popular young business man of Jacksonville, comes of an old Randolph county family, and was born in this county on the 28th of June, 1856. His father was a substantial farmer of this county, and Willard M. was reared on the farm and received a good practical education in the common schools. On the 15th of December, 1878, he was married to Miss Elva V. Campbell, born and raised in Randolph county. They have had two interesting children: Zula E., born Oct. 7, 1879, and Virgil E., born Dec. 4, 1881. Both are now deceased, Zula having died Apr. 21, 1880, and Virgil, Aug. 21, 1883. Mr. Sears was one in a family of four children of Andrew J. and Fannie A. (Palmer) Sears, of this county. The mother died in Sept. 1863, and two years afterwards the father was married to Miss Minnie Teter of Macon county. Seven children followed his second marriage. He died here May 22, 1881.

GEORGE T. SWETNAM

Page 48

Mr. Swetnam was born and reared in the county. His parents are George T. and Nancy E. (Barter) Swetnam. John A., born on his father's farm near Darksville, Apr. 22, 1850. He was a graduate of Mount Pleasant College at Huntsville and at one time was a professor of mathematics at his alma mater. He was elected to the office of surveyor in 1880. On the 12th of September, 1875, Mr. Swetnam was married to Miss Margaret E. Baker, daughter of Nathan and Irene E. (Mathis) Baker, of this county. She died of consumption June 4, 1880. Two of her children are with her in her home beyond the grave. One survives her, Prince W., aged seven.
