JUDGE GEORGE RHOADES - Judge Rhoades was born in Orange county, Va., June 15th, 1803. He is the third son of a family of six children. His father, Richard, was a native of England, and with another brother, George, crossed the Atlantic and settled in Virginia a short time after the revolutionary war. They married sisters, the daughters of Wm. Wright, of Orange county. The Christian name of Richard's wife was Lucy, who died when Judge Rhoades was about eleven years old.

Mr. Rhoades received only a limited education, and while a young man, learned the carpenters trade. He was married May 11th, 1826, to Miss Ann N. Hawkins, daughter of Benjamin Hawkins. September 19th of the same year, with his young wife, her parents and family, he left Virginia and directed his course to the then new and wild country of Missouri.....

JUDGE ROBERT FIELD - Judge Field was born in Albemarle county, Va. Dec. 14th, 1803. Piper, from Albemarle county. In 1830 he left Richmond and arrived in Saline county....

His first wife died in this county and left nine children, and he was again married to Miss Fanny Combs, formerly of Kentucky, by whom he has one child-the wife of Edward McQuey, of Pike county.

The Field family owe their origin to England. They probably settled in Virginia on coming to this country. The Judge's grandfather on his father's side, Robert, at least was born in that state. He married and raised a family in Virginia, of whom we mention John, Mr. Field's father. He was married to Miss Sarah Wood. He raised a very large family, some fourteen children in all, and died in Cooper county, Mo., a short time after he settled there, in 1831 or 1832...

Mr. Lunbeck first saw this section of Missouri in the spring of 1852, while here on a visit with his father to a son-in-law, J. D. Reeves, Esq. who settled in Saline county in 1849...
