Richard Thomas Yarborough

JOLIET — On Feb. 1, 2003, Richard Thomas Yarborough passed to the life beyond while vacationing with his companion Grace Willems in Truth Or Consequences, N.M.

Tom, as he was called by family and friends, moved to Montana in the early 90's and quickly adopted it as his home. His exacting craftsmanship can be seen in many remodeled homes and apartments in Carbon and Yellowstone counties.

Born in North Carolina, July 4, 1945, Yarborough grew up in an area known as the Cotton Mill Hill in Troy, N.C. He joined the U.S. Army July 14, 1963, and was stationed in Germany near his cousin Ralph Hogan. Within his unit, he achieved expert designation for his skill with firearms and earned a good conduct medal. He was released from active duty June 1, 1966, and served in the Army reserve until May 31, 1969, when he was honorably discharged.

Shortly after returning to the United States, he attended the University of Florida and earned a bachelor's degree in broadcasting and minors in speech and history.

Yarborough's life spanned a variety of careers. After graduation, he worked at Piedmont Airlines (later called U.S. Air) as an apprentice mechanic until he landed a job as a DJ at Davidson County Broadcasting in Lexington, North Carolina. He then moved on to work for the Davidson County Government and later created his own production company.

In Montana, he worked on a potato farm near Joliet and started his own handyman business.

One of Yarborough's favorite quotes stated: "The bond that links your true family is not one of blood, but of respect and joy in each other's life. Rarely do members of one family grow up under the same roof (author unknown)."

Thus defined, Yarborough's surviving family includes companion Grace Willems of Billings; Willems' daughter Martina Willems-Pfarr and son-in-law Paul A. Pfarr II of Everett, Wash.; Willems' son and daughter-in-law Jarrod and Kim Willems and their children of Billings; long-time friend Helene Gruel and her companion Linda Remmick of Jollet; Gruel's son and daughter-in-law Jason and Angela Gruel and their children of Jollet. Yarborough's North Carolina relatives include cousins Ralph Hogan and his wife Marlene, and Carey Bateman and his wife Nancy, and aunts Lola Hogan and Martha Brown.

Memorial services to be held Saturday, May 31, by invitation only.

Margaret E. Zimmerman

NOV 21 2003

SPOKANE — Margaret E. Zimmerman, 86, entered peacefully into rest, Nov. 19, 2003, in Spokane.

She was born June 1, 1917, in Dooley, Mont., the daughter of R.E. and Hazel Lang. She graduated from Poplar (Mont.) High School in 1935 and from the College of St. Catherine's in St. Paul, Minn., where she was valedictorian of the class of 1939.

MARGARET ZIMMERMAN

The same year she married Glenn W. Zimmerman, and together they operated their family wheat farm in northeastern Montana, raising their eight children both in Spokane and in Poplar. In 1979, she moved to Mesa, Ariz., and until 1995, she divided her time between Arizona and Spokane.

She is survived by her brother, Raymond E. Lang of Apache Junction, Ariz.; and by her eight children, five of whom live in Spokane, Nancy Gossett, Larry Zimmerman, Sara Martin, Suzi Stone, Dave Zimmerman; and by Mary M. Zimmerman of San Jose, Calif., Ben Zimmerman of Parker, Colo., and Gary Zimmerman of Poplar. Gary has continued the family farming tradition in Poplar. She was the loving grandmother of 23 grandchildren and 34 great-grandchildren, and a great-great-grandchild, all of whose birthdays she managed to celebrate.

Working her way through St. Kate's during the last years of the Great Depression, she received her BA degree in history and business, even though her real passion was sports. What she could not do herself, between raising her children and doing the cooking and book-keeping for the family farm, she saw her children do. Over the years, she drove thousands of miles to watch her children compete in many sports, and became both "bus driver" and "Mom" to many, many others.

Over the years, she became more knowledgeable than many officials in her favorite sports, baseball and basketball. During her years in Arizona, she adopted the Phoenix Suns as her local team, but returning to Spokane in 1995, she readjusted her loyalties to help the Seattle Mariners and her beloved Gonzaga Bulldogs win games, and remained secure in her belief that the Zags will one day make it to the Final Four.

In Poplar, Margaret was a member of Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church. In Spokane, she worshipped at St. Augustine's and, most recently, at Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

She was preceded in death by Glenn, her husband of 56 years; her sister, Olive Ferestad, Scobey, Mont.; and an infant son, Raymond Allen Zimmerman.

In lieu of flowers, donations in her name may be made to The College of St. Catherine's, 2004 Randolph Avenue, St. Paul, MN 55105 or to the Convent of the Holy Names, 2911 West Fort Wright Drive, Spokane, WA 99224.

Visitation will be Friday, Nov. 21, from 12 noon to 5 p.m. at Hennessey-Smith Funeral Home, 2203 N. Division, with a rosary service to follow at 5 p.m. at Hennessey-Smith Funeral Home. Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at St. Peter Catholic Church, 3520 E. 18th Ave., on Saturday, Nov. 22, at 10 a.m., with Reverend Joseph Bell as celebrant. There will also be a memorial service at Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church, 101 F. Street West, Poplar, Monday, Nov. 24, at 10 a.m. Interment will follow at Poplar City Cemetery in Poplar, Monday.

EVERETT ZUMBRUN

Everett Zumbrun

ROBERTS — Longtime Roberts-area rancher Everett Zumbrun, 89, passed away Sunday morning, Aug. 3, 2003. He was grateful that his wish to die at home was granted, because Everett loved the ranch where he was born and lived his entire life.

A son of Clarence and Hedwig Keschull Zumbrun, Everett was born on July 9, 1914, on the Zumbrun Ranch, north of Roberts. Ranching was much more than a business to Everett — he treated his cows with nearly as much love as he showed his dog and companion, Pepper. He worked hard and was proud of his accomplishments over the years.

On July 2, 1942, Everett married Alice L. Burris in Red Lodge. He served on the Rock Creek Water Board for over 30 years, and belonged to the Eagles and Elks lodges of Red Lodge. He greatly enjoyed the dances at the Elks Club, fishing on Rock Creek, and he had a special fondness for his grandchildren. His family and friends were often entertained with stories about his life experiences. Although he exhibited a gruff exterior and manner, he always had that twinkle in his eye.

Survivors include his devoted wife of 61 years, Alice L. Zumbrun of Roberts; his children, Judy (Corb) Strommen of Boyd, Sylvia (Glenn) Clabaugh of Gillette, Wyo., Roger (Jane) Zumbrun of Roberts, and Darlene (Mason) Mikkola of Missoula; his niece, Cheryle (Gene) Hunter and Doug (Susan) Linderman, both whom he helped raise to become part of the family; nine grandchildren; one great-granddaughter; two brothers, Lloyd Zumbrun of Belgrade and Earl (Bertha) Zumbrun of Billings; five sisters, Ida Schwend of Red Lodge, and Irma Ellis, Hazel Conway, Norma Freeman and Florence Steiner, all of Billings; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 7, at the Roberts United Methodist Church. Interment will follow in the Roberts Cemetery, with Smith-Olcott Funeral Chapel in charge of arrangements.
