THE YELLOWSTONE

Rocky Mountain College is very fortunate to have a very qualified selection of faculty members, administration members, and a loyal and hard working staff.

The effectiveness of this fine system is due to many things but much credit can be readily and worthily given to our president, Dr. Widenhouse, who has contributed much to the growth and development of RMC.

Three other important figures that stand out as individuals invaluable to the functioning of the college are our deans, Dr. Small, Mr. Jamison, and Mrs. Ryniker. The duties of these three, even though often difficult, are always capably handled.

With individuals such as these making the decisions, and offering guidance and encouragement, Rocky will excel in its hopes and aspirations for the future.

With a single year of college comes many new experiences, some good, some bad, and all of them memorable. These experiences are influential in building the character and ideals that are to serve us our entire lives. It is the chief aim and purpose of the editors of this annual to portray a faithful and accurate picture of the memorable events of the past year.

It takes the cooperation and efforts of many people to organize and plan a yearbook. To these people, the editors of this book extend their sincere appreciation.

LIFE

It's so wonderful to be beautiful.

Why can't Suzie be normal like me?

Eating is such a problem.

Of course I can fly. Can't you?

What a bunch of witches those girls are!

Dog? What dog? Do you see a dog?

...then suddenly I got this brilliant idea for a hairstyle.

...and now a word from our fashion experts.

Caught in the awful act of STUDYING!

So I'm cool. What else is new?

I'm going to tell my mommy!

...slidin right along

THE UNCALLED FOUR PLUS TWO

Don, don't you understand, it is only a song.

"Ya gotta stop kicking my dog around!"

I'm bored, wish we would get back to the poker game.

PATIO ART SHOW

I've got something that I have been going to tell you, honey.

Got it yet Sam?

Would someone hold that snake still!

Do you really think this is my best side?

Hold still or you won't be beautiful.

The make-up room is always a scene of action.

Two leading men are made up

Jan applies her own make-up.

Bob Fitzgerald receives his eye make-up.

Ah, Bob. You are nothing but desirable.

I lead a rough life.

One of the many ways of letting a proctor feel wanted.

The "hustler". "

The S. U. B. is a good place to relax.

Sharon Stuver does a quick three minute sketch.

Mary Sue Parsons, cute freshman contestant from Butte, smiles into the crowd.

At last it is over and Sharon Stuver, the new "Miss R. M. C." smiles happily.

HOMECOMING

A variety of floats make a beautiful parade.

King "King Size" is crowned by Queen Linda.

Lovely Queen Linda sits upon her throne.

The parade was very impressive.

A verse from the Bible makes a good theme.

The efforts exerted by Dave Spencer and his very capable staff to publish a fine college newspaper were hugely successful. The Echo was masterfully composed of interesting and readable copy highlighted by many good pictures. Few events passed the notice of Dave or his "super snoopers" reporters. The Echo staff is to be commended for their excellent publications.

DRILL TEAM

The large and small drill teams, under the leadership of Julie Thompson, worked out several routines to be performed for halftime entertainment at basketball and football games. The girls were selected on the basis of grades, appearances, and leadership.

ART CLUB

The big event for the year is always the Patio Art Show. This year it was held on a beautiful spring day in May. The event was highlighted by the appearance of RMC's Uncalled Four Plus Two, who sang many popular folk songs and helped make the event a success. Many talented artists made the show well worth-while with their displays. President Mike Kosorak was the MC while the secretary, Sharon Stuver, handled the sales. The art club is sponsored by their favorite art critic, Mrs. Ryniker, who has provoked a great deal of interest on campus in art.

"I" CLUB

BACK ROW: Leonard Mucene, Del Spicer, Calvin Ray, Dean Dunn. FRONT ROW: Mila Espinosa, Peter Malinda, David Hsu, Imogene Burnett.

The "I" Club was originally organized for foreign students, but it has more recently been widened to include American students. The "I" Club has three primary objectives: to promote interest in current affairs, to incite an awareness of the world about us, and to inspire its members through fellowship and hard work.

YOUNG REPUBLICANS

YOUNG DEMOCRATS

How can we contribute to our society unless we develop our own ideas of life and how to govern our lives? This group of young people has taken a definite step toward becoming more active in the functions of their country. They no longer say "I don't know," but instead, "I believe.." Our country is built on beliefs, both Democratic and Republican.

FIRST ROW, left to right: Tom Bird, David Fox, Del Spicer, Ed Piesen. SECOND ROW: Mila Espinosa, Cindy Miller, Virginia Madeen.

Rho Alpha Rho, essentially a service organization, consists of members who have earned a letter in at least one major sport. Most of the campus athletes are frequently seen around this stately old building - the gym.

TYLER HALL

Secretary Sharon Stuver holds her trusty horse.

The newly formed RMC Rodeo Club held their first rodeo at the Midland Empire Fairground as a joint sponsor with the EMC Rodeo Club and the Billings Livestock commission. Eleven schools were invited to participate in the event. Many fine trophies were given to the numerous winners.

Anyone for a good hangin'!

Today we need efficiency in our schools more than ever. There is a growing demand for teachers to help develop the youth of today for their positions in tomorrow's world. Therefore, much importance is placed upon the future teachers. With this in mind, one might visualize, the importance of an organization such as the Student Education Association. The purpose of the SEA is to prepare prospective educators for the teaching profession.

CIRCLE K CLUB

FIRST ROW: Ted Logan, Jim Peterson, Randy Hammer, Bill Kraske, SECOND ROW: Charles Boris, Charles Theroux, Les Berkman, Tom George.

Circle K is an organization composed of willing members anxious to assist, and help where they are needed. This organization assisted in the setting up of the Miss RMC Pageant and the jazz concert and also offered their assistance in other areas during the year.

The jazz concert would not have been possible without the cooperation of the Circle K, who set the SUB up for the performance.

WOMAN'S INTRAMURALS

To be healthy, every girl should be active. Life is more enjoyable when seen through the eyes of a person in good physical condition. One tires less easily and accomplishes more when in good condition. Besides, a college girl's life is full of tensions and schoolwork, and she needs the opportunity to release tensions through volleyball, basketball and other team sports. Just look at those girls! Don't they look healthy?

MEN'S INTRAMURALS

Hey, where'd the ball go?

WEIGHT LIFTING

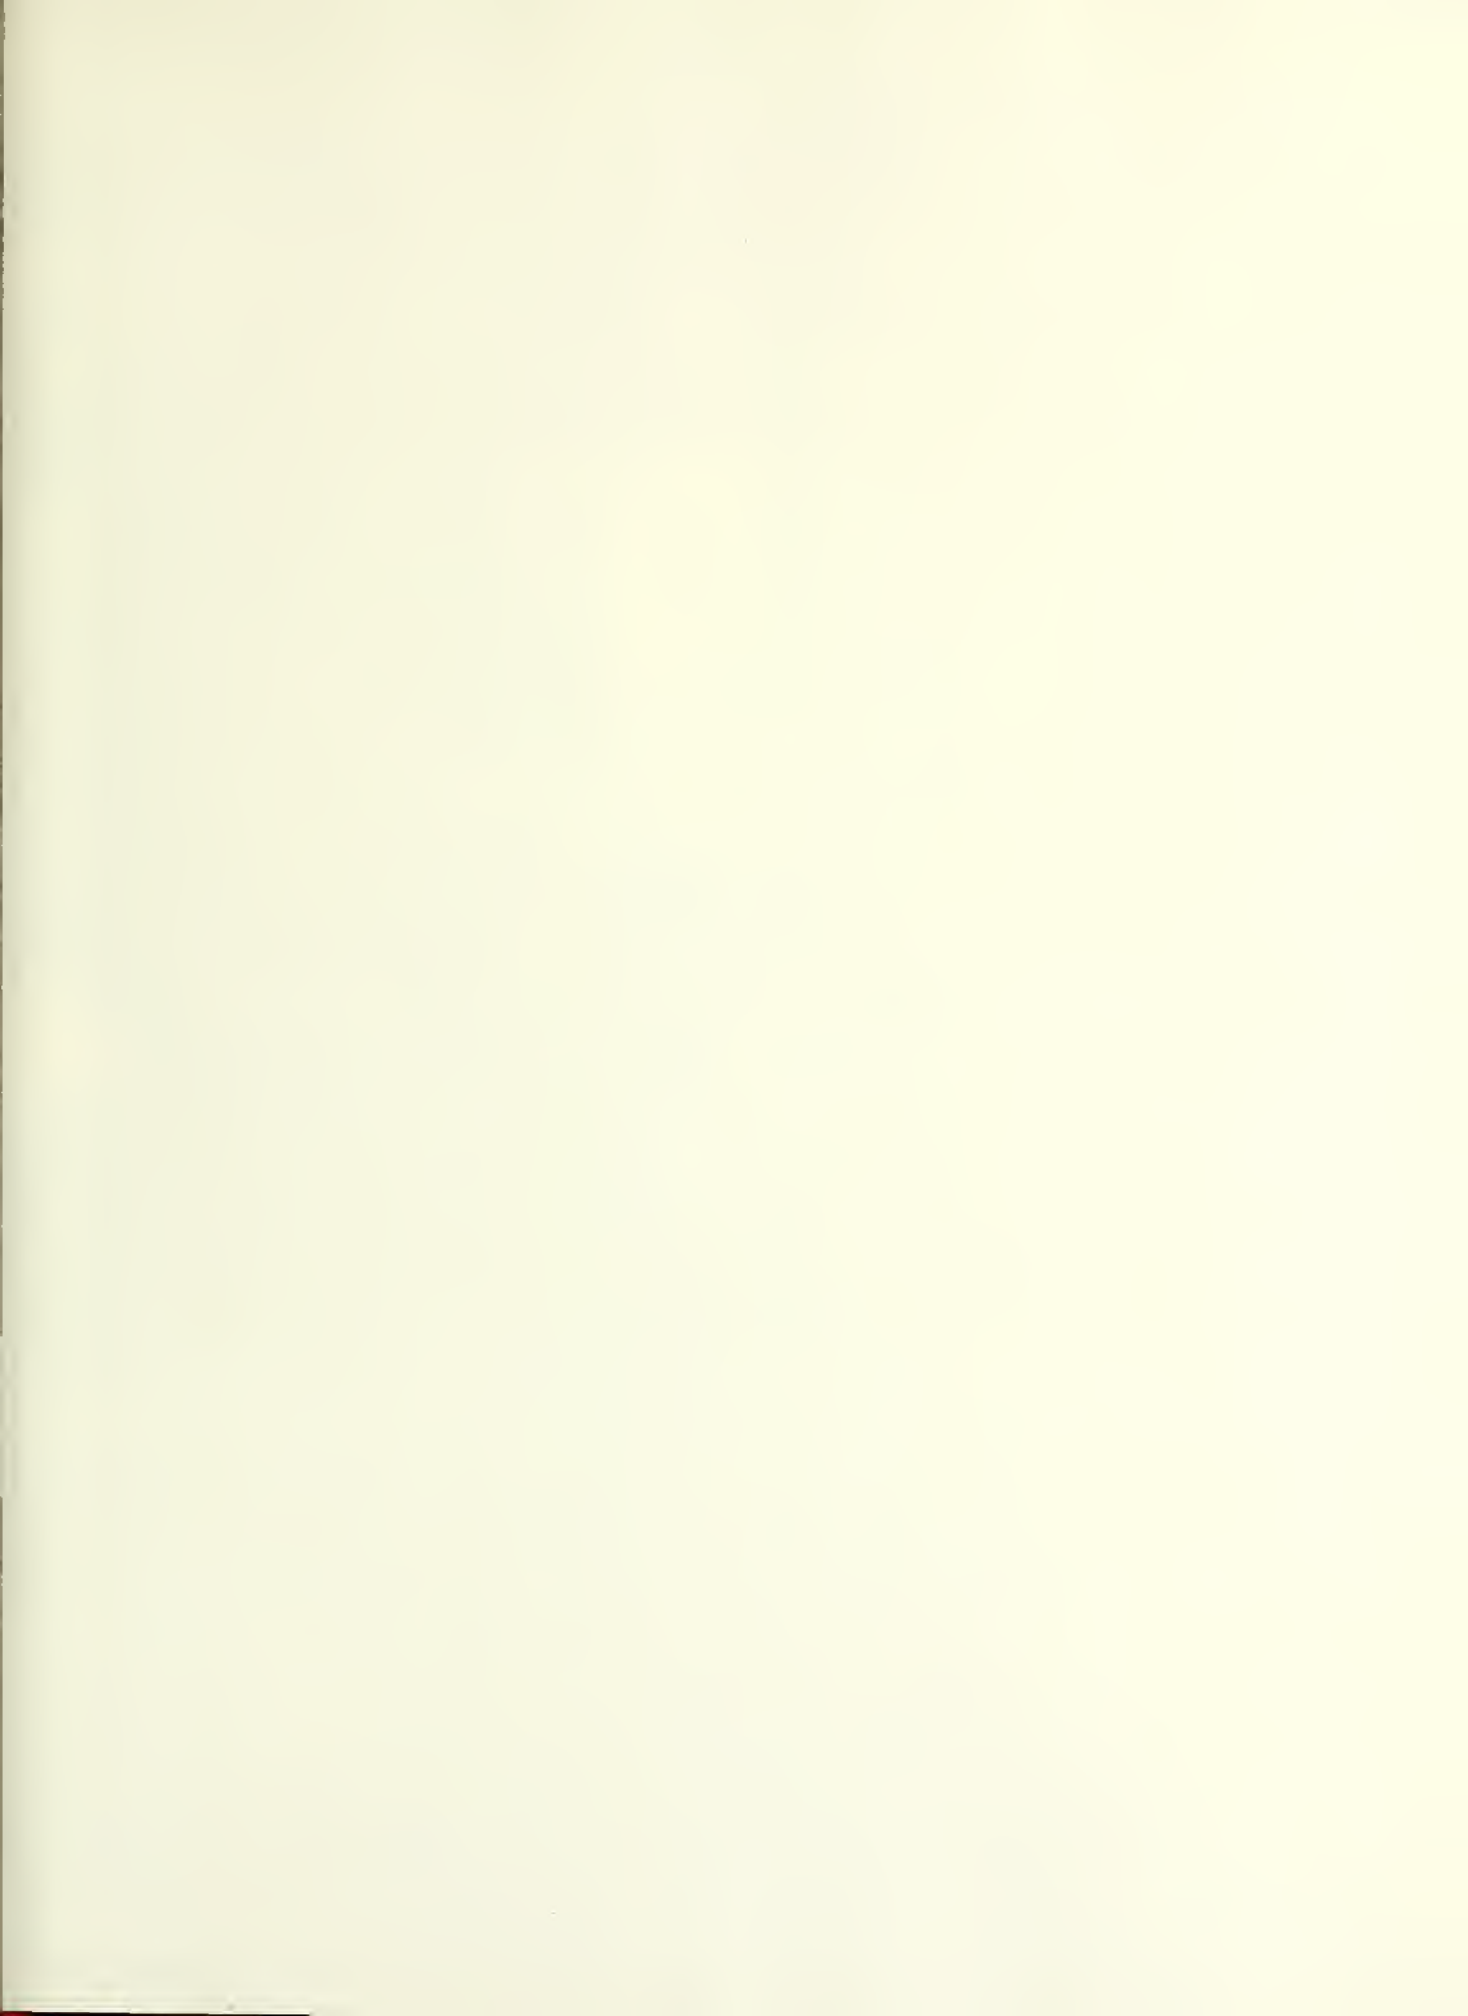

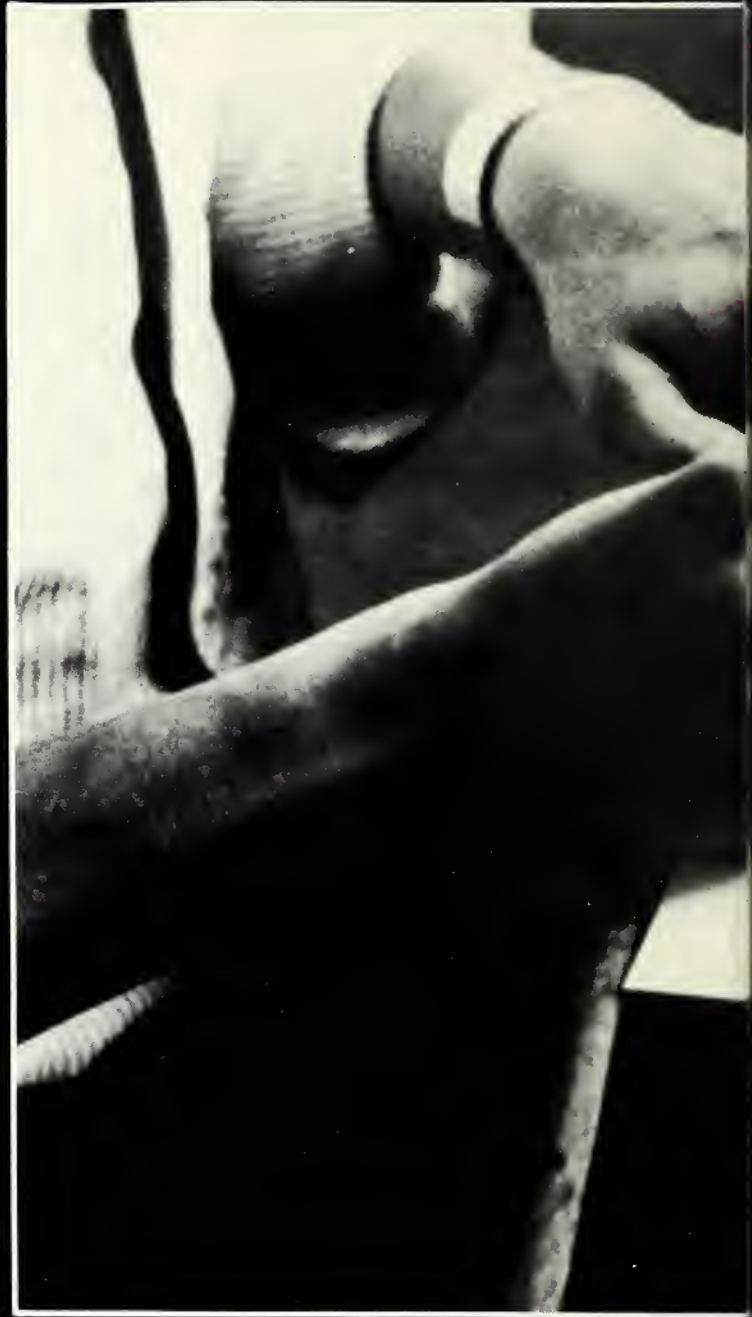

Mike McIntire - The snatch.

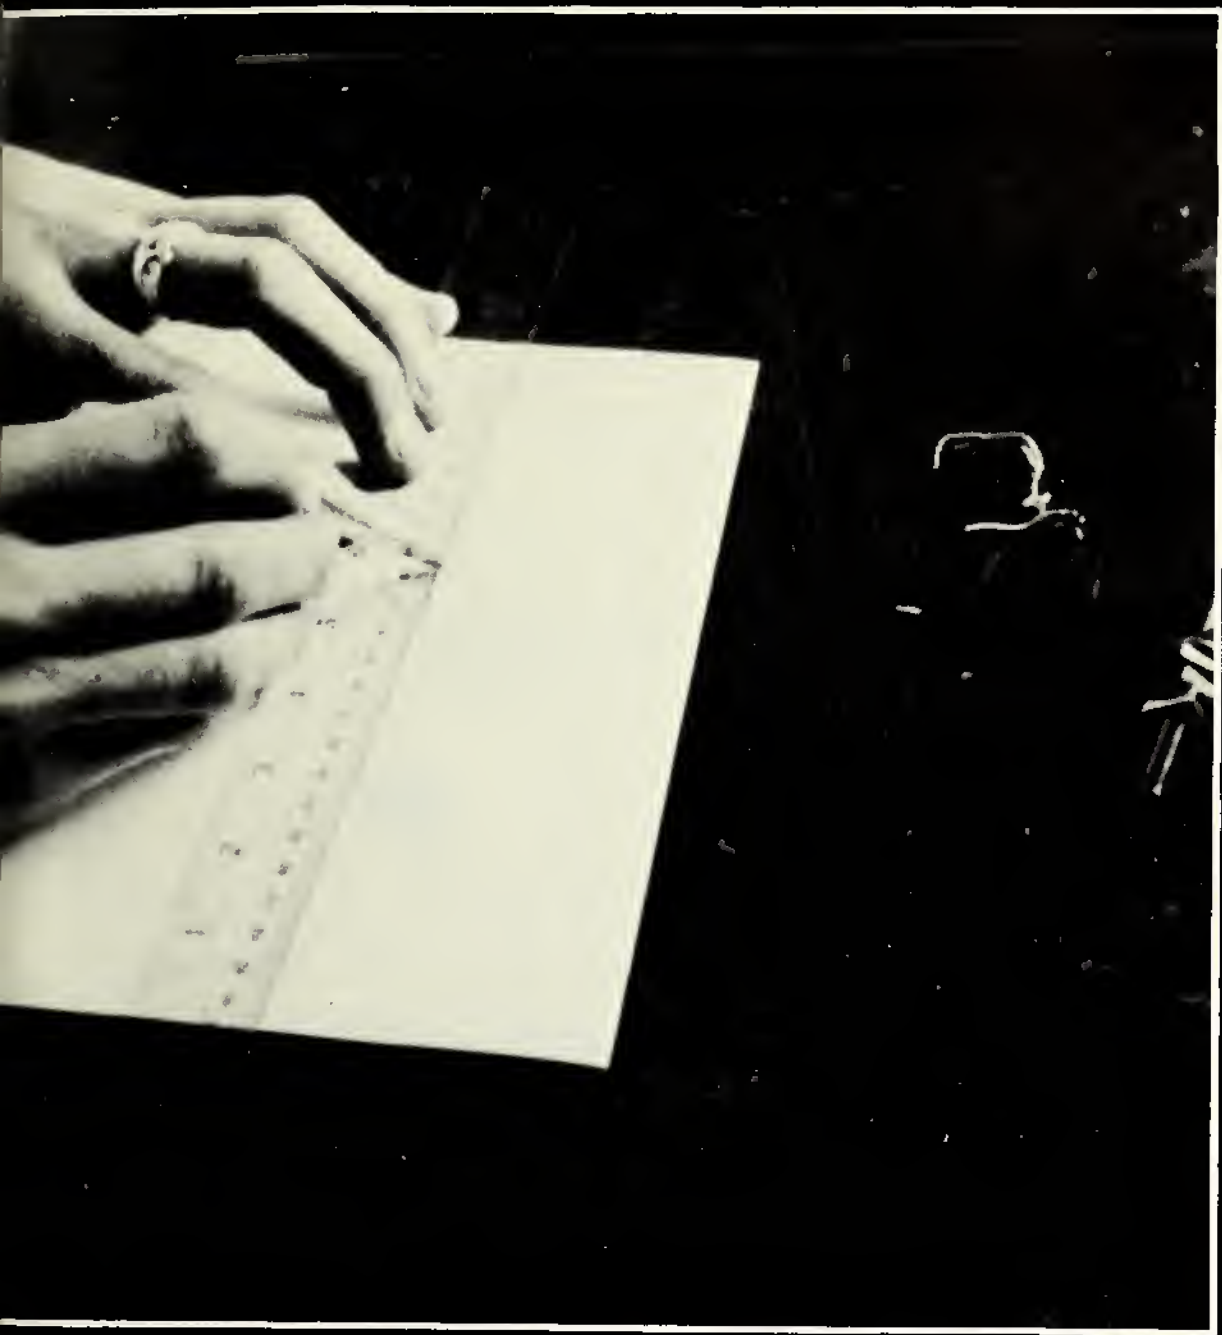

One must have many qualities to be a weightlifter, but the main quality is perseverance. Only through endless hours of lifting weights can the body be gradually built up to achieve feats such as that pictured above. Larry LaCounte, Mike McIntire, Paul McCabe, Bill Kraske, Dick Sire, Henry Becker, and Charles Bannerman are RMC's mighty weightlifters.

Mr. Jamison is the man behind the success of the team.
