COLIN McK GRANT/ Born in Charleston, S. C. died Sept. 21, 1921/
He was a man of the highest integrity, the buildings for the/Government wharves and jetties, court houses and private homes/attest his skill as a mechanic and contractor/ As a citizen he was generous and public spirited/ he rendered his goodness permanent by founding the Colin McKay Grant Home/ for aged Presbyterians, where those who may enjoy the benefits of his bounty,/ shall perpetuate and bless his memory/ (Verse)

GRANT/ Jane Caroline/ beloved wife of/ Colin McK. Grant/ and

At Rest

Sacred to the Memory of/ JOHN WILSON/ Born in Kildare Co., Ireland/
Died on his plantation in/ Abbeville, S.C. April 16th, 1864/
As husband, parent and master/ he was generous, indulgent and kind/
He was an obliging and faithful friend/ a Patriot, Citizen and was a Member/ of the Charleston Light Dragoons/ And was with them in the/ Battle of Pocotaligo/ As a Christian, faith was firm/and unshaken in his Savior/ to whom he calmly resigned his soul/in death committing His widow and daughters to him/ who is the Husband of the widow, and Father of the fatherless/ (Verse) Erected by his Wife and Daughter/

In Loving Memory/ of/ Frances LETITIA/ Beloved Wife/ of John WILSON/
Born in Liverpool England/ Died at Charleston, S.C. Sept. 6th, 1898/
A most loving and devoted Wife/ and Mother, thinking no persona;/ sacrifice too great for her Husband and Children/ She was queenly in her person, brilliant in mind/ she opened her mouth with wisdom/ and on her tongue was the law of kindness,/ most industrious and frugal/ and taught it to her Children/ and early dedicated them to her God/ The Bible was ~~XXXXXXXX~~ my dear Mother's guide through life/ The poor and afflicted/ always had a friend/ who gave them of her means/

Fell asleep in Jesus/ AMELIA MARY ANNIE/ Youngest daughter of John and Frances L. WILSON/ Born in Charleston, S. C./ Died at Williston, Barnwell Co., A.S./ August 11, 1886/ She was religiously inclined from her childhood and lived a sincere and blameless life/
