Mrs. Delbert Kohler (32-E-I-B-A) had a list of the names and birthdates of 10 of the 11 children of George Klees and wife Mary Bardo; she thought it was compiled by her grandmother Mrs. John Frederick Pfeiffer.

George Klees: b. Nov. 8, 1797 (Kohler); newspaper obituaries died age 76 y, 6 m, 5d.

Mary Bardo: b. June 14, 1805 (Kohler)

Catharine Lair: b. June 8, 1827 (Kohler)

David Klees: d. aged 25 y, 1 m, 15 d, but 15 days uncertain.

Lycoming County Will Book C, page 58: Last Will & Testament of George Klees, mentions tavern known as Klees' tavern situated in Muncy Twp. on the road leading from Muncy Hills to Hills Grove.

George Klees is said to have first lived on a farm near Pennsdale and later moved to a farm near Huntersville. He also ran a tavern/hotel of some sort at Huntersville which his son Abner inherited. Lycoming County Deed Book 18, page 681: George Klees of Lycoming County buys land in Muncy Twp. at Huntersville (see Deed 142, 211) on October 25, 1830. This is the oldest Klees record in Lycoming County court house.

Clinton Burtnett later married Myrtle Harris of Farragut; no record of their marriage can be found. In 1976 their daughter Sara Jane Burtnett Poust, then of 303 South Main St., Hughesville, PA, said that her father had been married only once, to her mother Myrtle Harris. The Episcopal records at Muncy give no additional information beyond Lycoming County marriage license #4450 (above). Lycoming County births and deaths for 1893-1905 show nothing further, except: Sarah Burtnett, b. July 4, 1904, Muncy Boro, daughter of Clinton & Martha Burtnett.

Other than confusing information on the Lipp's information (32-J-C) the family traditions preserved nothing about the Lair family. Even people such as Isaac Pfeiffer (32-E-I-A) said nothing about the Lair family.

Lucinda Lair, second wife of John Hoppes (32-C-F), is assumed to have been a daughter of George & Rachel Lair.

R. D. "was married to his first wife, Yvonne Myers (Moore), on Nov. 25, 1954, and had four children shortly afterward."
R. D. and Margaret buried Granite City Cemetery, Granite, Greer County, Oklahoma (findagrave with photo of marker)
Yvonne buried Hugoton Cemetery, Hugoton, Stevens County, Kansas (findagrave with photo of marker); findagrave links Yvonne to husband Robert Lynn Moore (1946-2011) buried Fort Sill National Cemetery, Elgin, Comanche County, Oklahoma but Robert's obituary on findagrave says nothing about wife

R.D. Newton, 79 years old, of Duncan OK, passed away on Sept. 10, 2011. R.D. was born Jan. 14, 1932, in Granite OK to Ralph and Bessie Newton. He graduated from Granite High School and served in the U.S. Navy. He was married to his first wife, Yvonne Myers (Moore), on Nov. 25, 1954, and had four children shortly afterward. On June 12, 1973, he married his second wife, Margaret Mobley (Gowdy).

R.D. loved spending time with people and treated them with love and tremendous respect. He was the type of man to whom a handshake was important. He enjoyed antique cars and spending time with his family and friends, and had a sincere smile that put anyone at ease.

Survivors include his children and their companions, Nina Davis and Terry Ringler of Angola IN, Jerry and Connie Newton of Duncan OK, Donnie and Sheila Newton of Chickasha OK, Nan and Dr. Andrew Gorby of Glendale AZ, Bobby Goudy of Elk City OK, and Paula Pickering of Redding CA; 16 grandchildren and spouses; 29 great-grandchildren; and five great-great-grandchildren. Survivors also include his sisters Norma (and Rex) Brooks of Oklahoma City, and Ann Greason of Warr Acres OK, and brother Andy Newton of Giddings TX. He is also survived by his children's sister, Jamie Day of Norman OK and her three children; numerous nieces and nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews, cousins, and dear friends in many towns throughout Oklahoma and other states.

He was preceded in death by his parents, three siblings, four grandchildren, and his wife.
