INTRODUCTION

This book of Probate records copied from the Wilson County Court-house, Fredonia, Kansas is my dream come true. It necessitated many trips and volunteer hours of work for the last six years or so.

Probate Judge Dwain Spohn and the employees in his office were very cooperative in every way. We did not copy insanity records and adoptions.

I want to thank all who had a part in this project but especially Mary Ida Grubb, Lueta Kellorby, and Irene Linville, members of The Heritage Genealogical Society, who have been my most faithful helpers in every way, and Jack Grubb who did the mimeographing of the entire book and index.

We went through the papers in each packet and copied the pertinent information, which was very time-consuming.

I typed these records, starting with 1869, ending with 1912, and published them in the Genealogical Society quarterlies in chronological order, so the pages had to be cut apart and pasted alphabetically. Many people helped at that stage of the book.

Zanada Overpeck was hired to type the records thus made up, as she was between jobs. We were fortunate that she was willing to do it, as I did not feel I could do all that typing besides helping with the quarterly research and typing it.

Members Phyllis Travis and Mary James, Independence, Kansas, did the indexing, but Mrs. Travis became ill before they could check their work. ALL names are indexed except the names the cases were filed under and those are arranged alphabetically. I did the typing and Jack Grubb did the mimeographing, with the help of his wife and me. The final checking revealed errors necessitating an errata, so please refer to both sections at the back of the book. We are indebted to Phyllis and Mary for the indexing because it was a tremendous job.

Many people--members of The Heritage Genealogical Society, and friends--helped with the many tasks of such an undertaking, and their help hastened it to a conclusion which should be an invaluable aid to genealogists seeking information on Wilson County ancestors.

Our Society is sponsored by the W. A. Rankin Memorial Library, 502 Indiana, Neodesha, Kansas 66757, and our books and records are on file there for the use of the public. They are happy to have genealogists make use of their facilities. They have a copier, a microfilm reader-printer, and a Recordak microfilm reader, which is available for your use.

Due to a stapling problem we have found it necessary to make two volumes of the book. Volume two will take up where volume one leaves off, and will contain the entire index. It will make it easier to make copies of the pages of interest without so much chance of damaging the book.
