To Whom It May Concern

Via Mrs. Jean Porcaro, I am sending a donation of genealogical material for your library. This letter and the attachments contain releases for you to reproduce any/all of these items.

1. Barnett, Rev. J.N., 1881, HISTORY OF GILEAD EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH, CENTRE BRUNSWICK, RENSSELAER CO., N.Y., Gazette Co., Book Printers, Fort Wayne, Ind. ccF 252369
No direct connection

Since the book bears no evidence of a copyright, I believe it can be reproduced, especially since any copyright would have run out.

2. Carver, Mr. & Mrs. Fred. E., 1967, GRAVESTONE INSCRIPTIONS FROM THE OLDEST ONE-FOURTH OF EVERGREEN CEMETERY IN THE TOWN OF MILO, PISCATAQUIS COUNTY, ME., typescript 711493

Carver, Mr. & Mrs. Fred. E., 1967 and 1972, GRAVESTONE INSCRIPTIONS FROM CEMETERIES IN THE TOWN OF LEEDS, ANDROSCOGGIN COUNTY,, ME., typescript ~~711493~~

Mr. Carver died Nov. 16, 1992, but I am able to authorize reproduction of both of these works.

3. Carver, Margaret R. and Kathryn H. Bowers, 1971, REMINISCENCES AND GENEALOGY OF THE JOEL HINKLEY AND AMOS HACKETT FAMILIES, Pvt. ptd. 711268

Attached is a release from Mrs. Bowers to supplement my permission for reproduction of this work

4. This book is an up-date of DESCENDANTS OF SIDNEY AND NANCY FORD that I published in 1969. Attached is a release from Mrs. Tove Burhen (formerly Tove Webster) to supplement the permission I am giving for reproduction of the contents of this book. Note: the inked in corrections were made by Mrs. Webster before she sent me this book. 711266

5. Ruth, Barbara Bower, 1986 (revised 1987), SIMMONS FAMILY HISTORY, Pvt. ptd. 711261

This book is an up-date of THE ANCESTORS AND DESCENDANTS OF JONATHAN SIMMONS AND MARY TROUTMAN, by Margaret R. and Fred. E. Carver, 1970. Attached is a release from Mrs. Ruth giving permission for reproduction of this work. I also give my permission since a good part of the book was copied directly from our 1970 book. Note: In parts taken from the 1970 book, some mistakes in transcription were made. I have penned in the necessary corrections as well as some others that came to light.

6. Carver, Margaret R., 1992, DESCENDANTS OF SUSANNAH SIMMONS, BORN 1775, typescript. 711500

You have my permission to reproduce this work.

I hope these items will be of value to those who use your library.

P.S. I'd appreciate a note saying you've received this material

Sincerely
Margaret R. Carver

INTRODUCTION

When we prepared our report on the cemeteries in the Town of Leeds, Maine, in 1967, we said that we hoped to return to Leeds to complete work on the two cemeteries which had been only partially done and to do the remaining four. In September, 1972 we returned to Leeds and transcribed all the inscriptions in the cemeteries that had not been finished in 1967 except for No. 20, the Caldwell Cemetery, shown on the map in our 1967 report. The Caldwell Cemetery was reported by Mrs. Turner, Town Clerk of Leeds, to be no longer in existence, the gravestones having disappeared and the field plowed for crops some years ago.

The results of our 1972 trip should have been reported long ago, but a series of illnesses occurred and the records were tucked away and forgotten until a request came for permission to microfilm our 1967 report. So, belatedly, the information obtained in 1967 is now presented. The listings follow the form of the 1967 report--see page 2 of that report. A separate index for this report is included. In the case of the Additon and Francis Cemeteries, a complete re-listing has been done for the convenience of the user.

Copies of this 1972 report are being forwarded to the Maine Old Cemeteries Association and to the Maine State Library.

7. FRANCIS CEMETERY - REVISED

A single obelisk, 1.7 mi. south of Highway 219 on the west side of North Road. The stone was set in a pasture and, in 1967, a barbwire fence and cattle prevented a check of the west side of the stone. By 1972, the barbwire had been moved so that all sides of the obelisk could be viewed.

16. ADDITON CEMETERY - REVISED

This very old cemetery is on the north side of Anson Road, approximately  $\frac{1}{4}$  mi. east of its intersection with Additon Road. The area is heavily wooded and moisture has taken a great toll of the gravestones. The Anson Road is very sandy, and care should be taken in traversing it.

In 1967, we reported a partial recording of inscriptions in the cemetery. We revisited the cemetery in 1972 and recorded all legible inscriptions on the gravestones.

17. QUAKER RIDGE CEMETERY

This cemetery lies on the north side of Anson Rd., approximately  $\frac{1}{2}$  mi. east of the intersection of Anson and Additon Rds. Caution is advised in driving to this cemetery since the hill down to it is very sandy and slippery. Since the bridge at the east end of the road is out and the hill so likely to be difficult it would be wise to leave word with someone before going to this cemetery.

In a wooded area, the stones in this cemetery were more badly weathered than in any other Leeds cemetery, probably less than half now being readable. Although the cemetery was associated with the Quakers, as shown by the form of date used on a few gravestones, it is believed many non-Quakers were buried here.

18. EVERETT CARVER CEMETERY

This small cemetery lies on a knoll northwest of the end of Campbell Rd., nearly 2 mi. north of the intersection of Campbell Rd. with State Highway 219. The cemetery is not visible from the road and guidance of the Town Sexton is advised if anyone wants to visit it. Only one gravestone survives in the cemetery. Though named for the owner of the farm on which it was established, members of the Everett Carver family were buried in the Dead River (Knapp) Cemetery.

PHILLIPS: Abner Phillips, Maine, Pvt., Merrill's Co., Mitchell's Det., Rev. War., June 26, 1829

19. STINCHFIELD or OLD INDIAN CEMETERY

This cemetery lies on a knoll behind the bridge across the Dead River on State Highway 106 and about 2 mi. north of the village of Leeds. According to Edwin Longley, Jr., owner of the Riverbend Campground at the foot of the knoll, only two burials were made in the cemetery--that of Paul Marshfield and of an Indian boyhood friend of his, a rough rock, without inscription, marking the Indian's grave.

MARSHFIELD: Paul Marshfield, Pvt., Wentworth's Co., Gerrish's Regt., Rev. War, (no dates)
