MOST HOLY TRINITY

PARISH HISTORY

On the fifteenth of August, 1827, the Feast of the Assumption, Bishop Fenwick of Boston came to Saco; and celebrated mass at the home of Dr. Harvey Green (now 374 Main Street). That event marked the beginning of the history of the Catholic Church in Saco, Maine. But it was not until 1916 that Saco Catholics got their own parish. Up until that time they had to go to Biddeford to attend mass, and receive the sacraments. Most Holy Trinity Parish was formed on the second of November 1916. The first pastor was Rev. Timothy J. Mahoney.

Two years before on the second of November 1914, the historic King-Woodman house was purchased. The house had been built in 1807 by Cyrus King; and had later been owned by Horace Woodman. It still serves as the parish rectory. The building which became the first church was built about 1767. It had been used as both a home and a theater before being purchased by Father Mahoney, on the twenty seventh of December, 1918.

Father Mahoney served all the Catholics in Saco until 1928. It was then that many of his French speaking parishioners founded Notre Dame de Lourdes Parish. Father Mahoney continued to serve at Most Holy Trinity until his death in 1938.

Father Mahoney was succeeded by the much loved and admired Reverend Francis McPartland. Through his unfailing affability and dedication to his Church and its parishioners, Father McPartland did much to raise his parish in the esteem and good will of his fellow citizens.

After Father McPartland's death in 1950, Reverend Maurice Boland was appointed pastor. In 1966, Father Boland celebrated his Golden Jubilee of Ordination. In that same year, Most Holy Trinity celebrated its Golden Anniversary. Father Boland encouraged the formation of the Catholic Women's Club, and the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine. He also acquired a house on High Street; to be used as a convent for the Franciscan Sisters of Atonement, who came to the parish in 1959.

In 1967, Reverend James Daly succeeded Father Boland. Father Daly was instrumental in implementing many of the changes brought about by Vatican II; and in building the parish hall. Father Daly retired in 1973.

Reverend Norman Cormier was appointed interim pastor following Father Daly's retirement. Late that same year, Father Robert Brennan, c.s.c. became the new pastor. Father Brennan's arrival marked the assumption of pastoral duties of the Most Holy Trinity parish by the Eastern Province of the Holy Cross Fathers.

Together with Father Jack Walsh, his Associate, they continued to implement the changes brought about by Vatican II; and began a major restoration and redecoration of the church.

In 1979, Father Brennan was reassigned; and was replaced by Reverend Lawrence Jerge, c.s.c. Father Jerge completed redecoration and restoring the church. He is also credited with introducing the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, in accordance with Vatican II decisions.

In 1982, Reverend Leo Poiselli, c.s.c. was appointed pastor, following Father Jerge's reassignment. Father Poiselli was especially active in furthering Church Christian Education programs; and in bringing the Church's message to a growing and increasingly active parish. Father Leo served as pastor of Most Holy Trinity until September of 1986, when he was appointed Assistant General in Rome, for the Congregation of Holy Cross Fathers and Brothers.

When the position of Pastor became vacant in 1986, Reverend James David, c.s.c., then assistant pastor, became interim pastor. In April of 1987, Father Jim became the fourth Holy Cross Father to be named pastor of Most Holy Trinity.

In the late 1980's, the planning was underway for the construction of a new church. The old wooden structure was in need of major repair; and much too small to meet the needs of the parish. So in the fall of 1992, the old church was demolished. Masses would be held in the parish hall, while the new building was under construction.

Construction was completed; and the first mass in the new building was held on Holy Saturday, the tenth of April, 1993. In July of 1993, Reverend George B. Mulligan was named Pastor, upon Father Jim's resignation. The new Church was dedicated by the Bishop, on the tenth of October 1993.

Associate pastors who have served Most Holy Trinity over the years are: The Reverends Newman A. Monaghan, Edwin A Shannon, Antonio A. Gosselin, Leon J. Chaloux, Henry H. F. Simms, Arthur H. St. Pierre, Robert Lee, Philip Tracy, Constanzo Piselli, John Walsh, c.s.c., Richard Hockman, c.s.c., R. Bradley Beaupre, c.s.c., James David, c.s.c., James Fenstermaker, c.s.c., and Daniel J. Issing, c.s.c. Reverend James F. Murphy, c.s.c. is our current associate pastor.

The Holy Cross Fathers have also been assisted by deacon members of their Order, who have served the parish in the year before their ordination. In addition to Father Richard Hockman, these include: Alan Kraw, Jim Preskenis, Robert Wiseman, Tony Grasso, Jack Donahue, Charles Kociolek, Ed Sylvia, Michael Massaro, George Mulligan, Genaro Aguilar, James David, and Daniel Issing.

The Franciscan Sisters of Atonement served the parish from 1959 to 1985. During that time, the parish was blessed with an excellent Christian Education Program for all members, and for all ages. Sisters who have served the parish were: Mary Barbara Hance, Marion Connolly, (Mary Edmond), Margaret Blanche, (Mary Giles), Mary Elizabeth Kraft, Eleanor White, John Joseph, Carmel Joseph, Mary Patrick Burns, Mariam Quartz, Theresa Meehan, Margaret Mary, Mary Gregory Bernes, Mary Louise Natale, Kathleen Conboy, Ellen Donahue, and Jean Tavin.

In June 1985, the Franciscan Sisters of the Atonement departed from Most Holy Trinity. That is when Sister Mary Morey, R.S.M., became our Director of Religious Education. Then during 1987, she was named Pastoral Associate. Her duties included sharing the responsibility of Marriage and Baptismal preparation with the Pastor and Associate Pastor, as well as other duties. She also had many other duties to fulfill. In 1990, Sister Rita Bujold, CSJ, of the Sisters of Saint Joseph, assumed the responsibilities of Pastoral Associate.

The community of Most Holy Trinity Parish is very proud of its heritage; and its place in the history of Saco.
