RECORD OF MEMORIAL DAY SERVICE AT AUSTIN 1896

From Post Records 1896

On account of high water, Memorial Day services at Austin was postponed to Tuesday, June 2. At that time 24 comrades, 6 members of the Relief Corps, 8 sons of Veterans and 10 or more children met at the City Hall and led by the Plow Boy Band marched to the Baptist Church, where the following program was rendered.

Music by Band.

Recitation, The Land of the Free.....Nellie Faris

Prayer by Rev. (Gower?)

Recitation, Missing.....Mabel Briggs

Song: Honor the Fallen Brave.....Choir

Song: Under the Sod and Dew.....William H. Patterson,

Goodman, Morriss, George E. Bennett, Emerson

Recitation.....Leona Whitman

Song: The Fallen Brave.....Choir

Recitation: Our Sleeping Brave.....Edith Silvers

Song, Solo and Choir: They'll Never Come Back.....Emerson Bennett, Solo

Address, Woman's Part in the War.....Commander Whitman

Song: Sleep Comrades, Sleep.....Choir

Line of March was now taken to the Cemetery, where the service was concluded, according to the (S-of) ? of ritual. The graves of the following were covered with flowers by the comrads, the band meanwhile blazing a dirge. Chas. Moore, H.K. Ritter, W.H. Cleveland, John Meyers, George W. Stambuagh, John Seiver, Ashbel Smith, Jos. M. Butcher, Edw. Asworth, A.S. Nunnally, George Winkle, Wm. H. Johnson, John T. Phillips. E.C. Schooley, John Sawyer, Wm. Rider.

A fair congregation was present, considering the state of the road, and everything passed off satisfactorily.

WORLD WAR II VETERANS LISTED From Cemetery Index

Paul Woodard Brown, Albert Paul Hedges.

AUSTIN CEMETERY INDEX INFORMATION

The index was compiled by Ennis A. Morriss and his granddaughter, Jean M. Pierro of Akron, Ohio.; Harriet Logue, Ralph and Marjorie Patterson of Archie, Missouri. All of whom are descendants of the Morriss, App. Roberts, Fulkerson and Patterson families who are laid to rest in the Austin Cemetery.

The material was obtained by indexing each stone, reading memorial leaflets from Atkinson-Dickey, Undertakers of Archie, Missouri and the Ellsberry Book on area cemeteries and from personal memory of my mother who is 91 years old and has a wealth of information about this community. In 1955 and 1956 Roy Atkinson made a plat of the cemetery. He found about 50 unmarked graves. Many graves are marked by sand stone. The cemetery is well kept and is a very beautiful and peaceful place. Vandals broke many of the older stones at one time and the broken parts were hauled away.

The Deed to Austin Cemetery reads as follows: "This Indenture, made on the 20th day of February 1896 by and between W.K. Royce and Alice Royce, his wife of Bates County, Missouri, parties of the first Part and W.L.

Tenbrook, John O. App, Ambus Morriss, William Stevens, and Wickliff Rider, Public Trustees for Austin Cemetery and their successors in this trust of the County of Cass in the State of Missouri, parties of the second part.

2 acres in the SW corner of East half of the NW quarter of Section 30 Township 43 of Range 30.

Recorded at 11 a.m. on the 18th day of March, 1896
Dade Terrett, recorder, Harrisonville, Mo.

There is at present an Austin Cemetery Association.

The report of the Austin Cemetery was made by Marjorie Patterson, Archie, Missouri. Additional personal information is contained in the original report on file with the Historical Society.

CONNELY CEMETERY, AUSTIN TOWNSHIP, CASS COUNTY, MISSOURI

CASIDA, Nancy; wife of John; February 14, 1880; 78 years.

SMILEY, America; daughter of J. and A. Smiley; died March 6, 1874; Aged 26 years, 2 months, 1 day.

R.A.; 2nd Batt. Co. G S M Cav.; government stone; died July 1890 (GAR Records)

Issac N.; December 28, 1879 - October 18, 1908.

Issac Newton; father of above Issac N is buried here but the stone is on the ground and cannot be moved.

BLAIR; A family by the name of Blair moved from Bates County and have a few graves here. Only the lower part of one stone could be found which had the following: 1875, 51 years, 4 months, 15 days.

The Connely Cemetery is a part of the original Casida farm. No stones are standing and the area is covered with brush. A sand stone wall in the form of a square was built around the graves of the Blair family. It is about 10 feet square and 3-4 feet high. It is made of large stones 4 feet long by 1½ feet by 1 foot thick. The wall is in reasonably good condition at this time.

The cemetery is located just east of the Fairview (Connely) school house. The stone wall was a favorite place to play when we had a teacher that would let us play out of the school yard. The boys always tried to push the girls off inside the wall and how we would scream for help, always enjoying every minute of it.

GAR VETERAN: R.A. Smiley

CEMETERY NORTH OF TOWN, AUSTIN TOWNSHIP, CASS COUNTY, MISSOURI

No name is known for this burial site. It would appear to be one of the very early cemeteries. For years sandstone markers were in place but these were broken and misplaced. Tradition has it that this was also an early Indian burial site. The GAR Post Records show that comrades were appointed to go to the cemetery north of town each year to decorate the graves in memory of Memorial Day. However, it was in the year 1885 that any name was mentioned as being buried at this place. It would appear from reading the record that probably additional burials of GAR veterans may have occurred. At the Memorial Day Service in 1885 the names and records of the various GAR veterans were read. The only comrade listed for the Cemetery north of Town was Christopher H. Clark with the following data: "was born in Kentucky, March 4, 1804, Enlisted March 12, 1862 in Comp. "A" 2nd Battalion MSM and was discharged October 6, 1862. Died April 12, 1879. Aged 75 years."

INGLE CEMETERY, AUSTIN TOWNSHIP CASS COUNTY, MISSOURI

This was an early day family cemetery, although neighbors were reported to have used the cemetery. All the stones have been removed from the area. It is thought that some graves may have been moved to other sites but no definite information has been obtained at the present time. The Ingle family were among the first settlers of Austin area.

The family had a sawmill and maintained the stage crossing of the Grand River, keeping a stable of horses for changing teams.

HALL'S CEMETERY, AUSTIN TOWNSHIP, CASS COUNTY, MISSOURI

What has been known for the last 70 years as the Hall's Cemetery, named after Tom Hall, who owned the surrounding farm for about 1900 to 1913 was originally called the Barnard Cemetery named after J.W. Barnard who owned the property in the early half of the 19th century and through the Civil War period. It lies on a small hill overlooking a bend of the Grand River, about ¾ mile NE of Archie. Legal description being NE¼ of NW¼ of Section 34, Twp. 43, Range 31. Exactly when the cemetery was first used is unknown but is supposed it came into use at about the same time that Mr. Barnard built and established a church which was built on the banks of the Grand River about 200 yards from the cemetery. This was said by some to be the first church built in the Austin Township and was simply known as "Bro Barnard's Church". (Some research into early Baptist records at the State Baptist Library indicate that this was a Primitive church, a member of the Fishing River Association active in the early 1830's) Although the establishment of the church and cemetery is indefinite it is known to have been there in 1854. The church was probably destroyed under Order No. 11 during the Civil War.

The cemetery covered about an acre on top of the small hill overlooking the Grand River. Like most of these old cemeteries, there were several marble monuments with names and dates on them but many of the graves were merely marked with a stone at the head and at the foot of the grave. A great many of the graves marked in this manner were short, thus reflecting the large number of children who died at an early age.

I wish that I could remember more about the names on the Monuments, but it has been about 60 years since I saw them and my memory is rather scanty, but I do remember that the oldest one that I could find was dated 1836. Most of the markers were dated from then on through 1879-1880. I can recall a few names on some of the larger monuments such as Winkle, Baker and Kimball. Use of this cemetery evidently was discontinued about 1900. The Drainage Ditch went across one corner of the cemetery when it was dug. Some of the last to be buried were the murdered wife and children of a Mr. Soper. Mr. Soper was caught in Oregon and tried in Harrisonville and was hanged there. It is presumed that he was buried by the rest of the family. The last one to be buried in Hall's Cemetery was a negro who was run over by a train in Archie in 1912. Within recent years the monuments, together with the trees and brush which had overrun the cemetery were bulldozed up in a pile on the edge of the waste bank of the drainage ditch, therefore very little remains of this cemetery.

"INDIAN MOUND"

Northeast of Archie is a mound which has been called an Indian Mound. In the early 1900's Dr. Jesse D. Wrench made a study of the mound and determined that it was a glacial deposit and not an Indian burial mound. Dr. Wrench, a professor from the University of Missouri, found some facts that indicated that there had been a burial site located on top of the mound but could not determine whether or not it was of Indian origin.
