Mr. Frank Johnson was born in Sweden in 1833, moved to Gasconade County in 1866 and settled on farm that he now lives on in Sec. 31, Township 45, Range 6. From a swamp to one of the very best farms on Gasconade River is Mr. Johnson's record. His farm is equipped with many modern conveniences most of which are a result of Mr. Johnson's inventive mind. A small trolley which brings his mail across Gasconade River to his door is one invention which gives him and his family much pleasure. He is the inventor of Johnson Shock Loader which is one of the most useful pieces of machinery on farm today. A threshing attachment is no less useful in its way. Patent gates and many other useful friends to the farmer are the output of Mr. Johnson's genius. Mr. Johnson is a progressive man, a great reader, a great home lover. Although he is of nearly 80 years of age he yet runs the Fredericksburg Ferry and is concerned actively in the manufacture of his Shock Loader. One of his sons, James, is equipping a factory on the farm. The other son, C. C. Johnson, is an active farmer and a great believer in thoroughbred stock of all kinds. He has a splendid flock of thoroughbred Plymouth Rock Chickens.
