HENRY C. BARGAR, son of John and Elizabeth (nee Gatchell) Bargar, was born in Harrison county, Ohio, November 15, 1840. In 1846, his parents moved to Tuscarawas county, Ohio, where he lived on a farm until the breaking out of the war. He received his education in the common schools of Tuscarawas county. In September, 1861, he enlisted in Company E, Fifty-first Ohio Regiment Volunteer Infantry, and during the combat was so seriously injured as to be disabled for duty for a period of six months, after which he returned to his regiment and participated in the battles of Chickamauga, Chattanooga, Franklin, Nashville, Atlanta, Jonesborough, and was then sent to Texas, where he served till October, 1865, when he was mustered out at Victoria, having served over four years. He then returned home to Ohio. In 1869, he moved to Linn county, Missouri, to the place where he now resides. He was married in 1866, to Miss Mary A. Saffer, daughter of Christain and Susan (nee Caples) Saffer, of Tuscarawas county, Ohio. He has had by this union eight children, all of whom are living: Alice, Luellen, John, Eliza A., Joseph, Agnes, Thomas M., and Anna Bell.

J. G. BARGAR, son of John and Eliza Bargar, was born in Harrison county, Ohio, December 11, 1837. He enlisted in October, 1861, in the Sixth Ohio Light Artillery Independent Battery and held the rank of sergeant. He participated in the battles of Stone River and Atlanta, and was in numerous other engagements. In 1864 he was promoted to second lieutenant, and assigned to heavy artillery. He was mustered out in October, 1865, having served four years. Mr. Bargar was married in 1864, to Miss Harriet Vasbinder, of Tuscarawas county, Ohio. They have three children: Stella, Adda, and William H.

HIRAM K. BARGAR, son of John and Eliza (Gatchell) Bargar, was born in Harrison county, Ohio, January 21, 1845. In 1865, he came to Linn county, Missouri, where he has ever since resided, engaged in farming and stock raising. He is recognized as one of the leading farmers of Linn county. He owns 695 acres of the very best land. He was married November 10, 1868, to Miss Esther Sproull, daughter of Andrew and Margaret Sproull, of Tuscarawas county, Ohio. Mrs. Sproull's maiden name was Beard.

HIRAM BLACK, son of Harvey and Polly (nee Tracey) Black, was born in Erie county, Pennsylvania, March 20, 1832. At the age of fifteen years he started out in life for himself, driving a team for several months on the Erie Canal. He then learned the harness trade and followed it in the State and city of New York, until 1858, when he came west, and located at St. Catherine, Linn county, Missouri, where he worked at his trade three years, and then engaged in merchandizing and in shipping tobacco. In 1867 he removed to Meadville, where he has since been merchandizing and where he does a business averaging $25,000 per year. Mr. Black was appointed postmaster there by President Grant in 1868, and still holds that office, giving entire satisfaction in the discharge of its duties. He was appointed land agent for the Hannibal & St. Joseph Railroad in 1874, and holds that position yet. He has also been honored with minor city and township offices. He is a member of the Masonic order and one of the leading citizens of Meadville. Mr. Black was married in 1862 to Miss Cynthia White, daughter of James E. and Matilda White, of Linn county, Missouri, formerly of Virginia. By this union there are five children: Frank J., Edward W., George L., Ida V., and Rufus E. Black sons, William Leonard Botts, was the father of Frederick, and he also was born in this county. In his young manhood, he married with Miss Almeda Jacobs, a native of Sullivan county, Missouri. They have two sons and one daughter living: Their son Frederick L., his brother Clifford L. and their sister Estealla, who is now the wife of Ben Doolin, a resident of this county. Their grandfather, Joshua Botts, was a son of Thomas Botts, one of the early settlers in the county. The grandfather was brought to this part of the state as a child and passed the remainder of his life here. He followed in his father's course and cleared a farm on which he lived until his death. He married Miss Elizabeth Harvey, who is still living and has her home in Meadville. They were the parents of four sons and four daughters. Frederick L. Botts married on December 1, 1907, Lula Stephenson, a daughter of Thomas J. and Julia (Thorne) Stephenson. Her father, Thomas J. Stephenson, came to this county after the Civil War and remained here until his death in 1910.

WILLIAM G. BROWN (Deceased) was born at Rahway, New Jersey, July 20, 1810. His ancestors were English Quakers and came to this country and settled in the "Penn Colony". Mr. Brown was also lieutenant of the "Macon Volunteers," and afterwards served in the "Bibb County Cavalry". Sept. 6, 1834, Mr. Brown was married to Frances Jennette Jones, an orphan sister of the late John L. Jones. Five sons and three daughters blessed this union. When he died March 25, 1882 the light of a useful, generous, noble life went out, but the memory of it all remains.

HENRY F. EVERTSON, is a native of Adams county, Illinois, where his life began on January 22, 1867. His parents, William and Sarah (Murry) Evertson, were southerners, the father born in Virginia in 1823 and the mother in Tennessee. He died on January 26, 1904 at the age of eighty one years. He and his wife were the parents of ten children, five sons and five daughters. Eight of the ten are living yet, but Henry is the only one of the number who resides in Linn county. His grandfather, Jeremiah Evertson, was born and reared in Virginia. In middle age he moved to Illinois. On January 26, 1896, Mr. Evertson was united in marriage with Miss Flora M. Shifflett, a daughter of Harrison and Rebecca (Lively) Shifflett, who became residents of Linn county in 1887. The mother died here in 1900, and the father some years later.

the Twenty-eighth New York Infantry, and was sent to the Army of Virginia. He was in Banks' campaign and retreat up the Shenandoah Valley, and the battle of Slaughter Mountain. He was also with Pope in his campaign, and the battles of Antietam and Chancellorsville, after which he was mustered out, his term of enlistment (two years) having expired. Next he enlisted in the Twenty-fourth New York Independent Light Artillery, which went out in Third Regiment of Light Artillery, and served to the end of the war, latterly acting as first duty sergeant. There were two of his brothers also in the service, the trio having served from the first call till peace was declared. In 1867, he came to Linn county, this State. Mr. Hinton was married in 1846, to Mary A. Ainsworth, daughter of Luther and Sarah Ainsworth, of Monroe county, New York. Both her parents were native of New York, and her grandfather was a Revolutionary soldier. Mr. and Mrs. Hinton are the parents of seven children, five of whom still survive: Dayton L., Clifford R., Simeon A., William S., and an infant not yet named. When three and a half years old Simeon had the misfortune to have his foot cut off by a mowing machine.

MATHIAS JOHNSON, son of Hans C. and Anna F. (nee Peterson) Johnson, was born on the Island of Als, belonging to the Kingdom of Denmark, November 25, 1839. December 12, 1868, Mr. Johnson came to Meadville, Linn County, Missouri. Mr. Johnson was married in April, 1872, to Miss Catharine M. Larensen, who was born on his own native island. They have three children: Annie, Hans, and Minnie.

JAMES B. JOHNSON, is a son of Scarlet and Amelia (nee Burns) Johnson, and was born in Clermont county, Ohio, October 22, 1831. His mother died when he was eight years old, and his father when he was twelve, thus leaving him orphaned at that early age. Young James found a home with his aunt, a married sister of his mother's, and was well treated by her and her family. This kindness he repaid by remaining with them as a faithful friend, looking after their comfort and happiness till both aunt and husband were laid in their graves. In 1864 he enlisted in the One Hundred and Fifty-third Regiment of Ohio "hundred days' men," in which he served his full time doing duty in Virginia. After the war, he tended his uncle's farm, remaining unmarried till his uncle's death. March 15, 1868, he married Miss Martha J. Riggs, daughter of George Riggs, Esquire, of Ohio.

ADGATE L. LOOMIS, born and reared on a farm in Connecticut, the first representative of the family in this country settled at Windsor, Connecticut in 1638 and put on record a title to land he owned in 1640. His name was Joseph Loomis, and he came to this country from England. The particular branch of the family to which the subject of this brief review belongs continued to reside in Connecticut until 1866, when he came to Missouri. His parents, Anson and Emily (Phillips) Loomis. Here the mother died on August 28, 1877 and the father on October 1, 1885. They were the parents of two daughters and three sons. The life of their son Adgate began at Lebanon, New London county, Connecticut, on December 4, 1843. In August, 1862, he enlisted in the Union army in Company C, Eighteenth Connecticut Volunteer Infantry, and served two years and eight months. His regiment met with disaster at the battle of Winchester, Virginia, which began on July 13, 1863, and lasted three days. He was honorably discharged from the service with the rank of captain in 1865. On August 2, 1871, Mr. Loomis was married in Missouri to Miss Melissa B. Hardy, a daughter of Moses D. Hardy, one of the early settlers in Linn county. He was a native of Maine but HENRY MILLER is a native of Ohio, born on May 30, 1840, and the son of Daniel and Susanna (St. Clair) Miller, the former, like himself, a native of Ohio, and the latter born in Pennsylvania. The parents moved to Clinton county, Indiana, in 1842, and lived there until 1881. In that year all the members of the family moved to Linn county, Missouri, and here the parents died, the father in 1883 and the mother in 1896. Early in life before Henry reached manhood, he began farming on his own, until 1865 when he enlisted in the Union army as a member of Company K, One Hundred and Forty-seventh Indiana Volunteer Infantry, in which he served seven months and was present at the occupation of Richmond, Virginia, by the Union forces. When he received his honorable discharge from the army he returned to the Indiana home, and on December 17, 1868, was joined in wedlock with Miss Mary A. Somsel, who was born in Ohio. They have two children, their son David, who is a Linn County farmer, and their daughter Susanna, who is now the wife of William H. Somsel.

OSCAR H. PRATT's life began on June 22, 1868 and he is a son of Henry and Ibeline (Connelly) Pratt, the former a native of Tennessee and the latter of Kentucky. The father was born in 1825 and the mother in 1828. The father was reared to the age of nineteen in his native state and in 1841 came from there to Missouri with his brother John M. Pratt. Oscar H. Pratt's father died on June 30, 1891. The mother died on September 7, 1894. They were the parents of eight children, of whom six are living: William, John, Arthur and Oscar, sons, and Alice and Emma, daughters. Alice is now the widow of Daniel Maynard, of Kansas City, and Emma is the wife of W. P. Thorne, of Linneus. Mr. Pratt was married on December 5, 1906, to Miss Alice E. Harris, a native of Nodaway county, Missouri, whose parents, George and Elizabeth (McPherrin) Harris, now live in Brookfield. One child has been born of the union, a son named Howard H.

JOHN H. SENSENICH is a native of the great county of Lancaster, in the great state of Pennsylvania, where he was born March 1, 1835. His parents, Christian and Katie (Hestand) Sensenick, were also natives of that state. The mother died in her native state in 1891, aged ninety years, and the father at the same place in 1845. They were the parents of four children, three of them sons, the only ones now living being John H. and his sister, Mrs. Weaver. The grandfather, whose name was also John Sensenich, was also a native of Pennsylvania, and passed his life in that state. The first representatives of the family in this country came over from Switzerland before the Revolutionary War and some of its early American members took part in that great and arduous struggle for liberty and independence. John H. Sensenick was married in Pennsylvania to Miss Harriet Diller, in 1859. They have had eleven children, two of whom died in infancy and two, Adam and Ulysses G., further advanced in life. They have seven living: Clara, who is the wife of Charles E. Robbins; David, who is residing Wheeling, Missouri; Catherine, whose home is now in Pennsylvania; John J.; Elizabeth, who is the wife of M. B. Harter, of Linn county; Susan, who is the wife of Henry Gauger, of Oklahoma, and Charles S. Their mother died on January 22, 1912.

SAMUEL SHOUP was born in Delaware county, Indiana, on Jan. 7, 1853, and is a son of John and Frances (Shoup) Shoup, natives of Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, where the mother was born in 1811 and the father in 1812. The father was a farmer and moved to Indiana about 1830. He secured a farm in Delaware county on a lease and remained on it until 1866. On his arrival in this county the father bought the farm on which he he died in 1899, having survived the mother twenty years, her death having occurred in 1879. They were the parents of nine children, four sons and five daughters, all of whom have passed away but Samuel, his brother John and their sister, Mrs. Martha Cole, who resides in Illinois. One son, Martin, died in the Union army during the Civil War. He served in the Twenty-fifth Indiana Infantry. Their grand-father, John Shoup, was born in Pennsylvania. Samuel Shoup married January 16, 1889 Miss Clara B. Cassidy, a daughter of George M. and Mary E. (Lee) Cassidy, who became residents of Linn county in 1871. Mr. and Mrs. Shoup have no children of their own, but are rearing an adopted son whose name is Robert C., and who is now 15 years old.

EDWARD C. WILLIAMS was born in Washington county, Ohio, on December 10, 1823. His father, Reuben Williams, was a native of Massachusetts, and his mother, whose maiden name was Elizabeth Johnson, was born in Connecticut. He moved to Washington county, Ohio, and located on the Muskingum river near the present city of Marietta, where he opened shop. Here he was married to the mother. They became the parents of twelve children, seven sons and five daughters. Edward C. Williams was married on March 20, 1855, to Miss Margaret A. Belshe, a daughter of William Belshe, who became a resident of Linn County in 1834. Of the children born of the union two grew to maturity, William P., who has since died and Nancy E., who is now the wife of William F. Van Dyke of Meadville.

WILLIAM A BALCOM's life began in Wayne county, New York, July 13, 1837, and he is a son of Jesse and Martha (Reed) Balcom, the former a native of Connecticut and the latter of the state of New York. Both parents died in Wisconsin. The grandfather, John Balcom, was a manufacturer and farmer. He died in New York. Mr. Balcom has been married three times. His first union was with Miss Elizabeth Kady, and was solemnized in this state in 1867. She died in 1869, and he was united in his second marriage, with Miss Laura B. Brunemer, in 1871. She passed away in 1879, leaving one daughter, who is now Mrs. May Duroche and lives in Rosedale, Kansas. The third marriage took place in 1882 and joined him with Miss Nannie E. Clough, a native of Missouri and daughter of Elbridge and Lettie (Sensentaaffaer) Clough, long esteemed residents of this county. They have two sons living, Russel L. and Harold C.

DR. JOHN L. BURKE was born at Morgantown, Butler county, Kentucky, on January 11, 1847, and is a son of Dr. Bartlett J. and Amanda H. (James) Burke, also natives of Kentucky. The father served during the Civil War in the Seventieth and the One Hundred and Forty-fifth Illinois Volunteer Infantry, enlisting in 1863. At one time he was elected captain of Company A. His father, James Burke, was also a native of Kentucky. He was a son of John Burke, who came to this country from Ireland in 1760 and helped to win independence for the United States as a soldier in the Revolutionary War. On his arrival in this country he located in North Carolina, and during the Revolution served in a North Carolina regiment. He died near Richmond, Indiana. Dr. John L. Burke's mother died in 1883 and his father in 1905. They were the parents of eleven children. He was accepted in 1864 as a member of Company D, One Hundred and Forty-fifth Illinois Volunteer Infantry, in 1865 he enlisted again in Company D, One Hundred and Fifty-second Illinois regiment. On February 27, 1873, the doctor was married to Miss Mary F. Moss, a native of Livingston county Missouri. They have had four children, three of whom are living: Dr. Foster W. Burke, of Laclede; Louise H., who is now the wife of Alvin C. Lippitt, of Meadville, and William E. who is a resident of Brookfield.

DR. FOSTER W. BURKE, the son of Dr. John L., was born in Clinton county, Missouri, on September 29, 1874. On October 20, 1906, the doctor united with Miss Georgia E. Maxey, of Kansas City, Missouri. They have one child, their son, Foster W., Jr. Mrs. Burke's father, Stephen Maxey, was a soldier in the Confederate army under General Price. His wife, whose maiden name was Sarah Templin, is a native of Ohio.

ROBERT GLENN, the grandson of a Revolutionary soldier; the nephew of other gallant soldiers who fought with all their ardor in the War of 1812; and himself a faithful servitor and defender of his country in the Civil War. Mr. Glenn was born in Marion county, this state, on May 8, 1841, and is a son of Absalom and Artemesa (Pepin) Glenn, natives of Mason county, Kentucky. The grandfather, Robert Glenn, was born in Hagerstown, Maryland, and emigrated from there to Mason county, Kentucky, where he died in 1858. Mr. Glenn was married in 1863 to Miss Julia A. Worlow, a daughter of Peter Worlow. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn have seven children living: Sarah M., who is now the wife of A. J. Harter and resides in Linn county; Kate E., who married G. F. Lacey and dwells in Los Angeles, California; Moses; Nannie, who is the wife of Sylvester Carter and has her home in Kansas; James R.; Frances, who is one of the leading teachers of Livingston and Linn counties, and Vich, who is the wife of Dr. G. S. Fitzjohn, of Seattle, Wash.

JONATHAN KNIGHT was born in Washington county, Pennsylvania on June 23, 1840, and is a son of William and Hannah (Fisher) Knight, also natives of that state. The father was born there in 1810. He farmed in Pennsylvania until 1863, then moved to Mahaska county, Iowa. He died in Oskaloosa in that county in 1897, having outlived by seven years his wife, who passed away in 1890. They were the parents of four sons and three daughters. His paternal grandfather, whose name was also Jonathan Knight, was for a long time a farmer in Washington county, Pennsylvania. He was a son of Able Knight, an Englishman, who died at a good old age in Pennsylvania. On April 23, 1862, Mr. Knight was united in marriage with Miss Evelin B. West, a daughter of Edward and Mary (Neblic) West. Mr. and Mrs. Knight have four children, all daughters and all living. They are: Mary H., who resides at Utica, Livingston county, Missouri, and is the wife of J. Cady; Jennie E., the wife of W. R. Kent, whose home is near Osgood, Sullivan county, this state; Nora, who is a resident of Linn county and the wife of S. C. Kohn; and Alice E., who married Prof. W. L. Cochrane, who has been superintendent of several city schools and lives with him at Aberdeen, South Dakota.

OSCAR F. LIBBY's life began in Cumberland county, Maine on December 9, 1852, and he is a son of Nathaniel S. and Sarah (Freeman) Libby, also natives of that state and county, where the father was born on January 14, 1830. In March, 1855, he left his native state and moved his family to Greene county, Illinois, but only remained there two months. He then moved to St. Croix county, Wisconsin. It was in October, 1869, that he brought his family to Linn county, where he resided until his death, which occurred on July 20, 1901. He was married in April, 1851, to Miss Sarah Freeman, also a native of Maine and a daughter of George Freeman of that state. Of the eleven children born of the union ten are living: Oscar F., the immediate subject of this sketch; Walter, who is a resident of Cheyenne, Oklahoma; Ernest L., whose home is at Linn Creek, Camden county, in this state; Lucy F., who is still residing on the family homestead north of Laclede; Sarah M., now the wife of I. H. Watson of Brookfield; Lucius E., who is also living on the homestead; Lottie L., who is now the wife of Charles Sternkey of Brookfield; John, who has his home at Bonne Terre, St. Francois county, Missouri; Grace, who married with William F. Havner and is living at No. 300 North Fifth street, Kansas City, Kansas; and Maria H., who is now Mrs. Carl E. Brown of Clarimere, Okla. On September 27, 1882, Mr. Libby was joined in wedlock with Miss Rebecca J. Watson, a daughter of James H. and Rebecca J. Watson, the former a native of Missouri and the latter of Chariton county, Missouri. Six children have been born in the Libby household, five of whom are living: Oscar F., Jr., whose home is in Kansas City, Missouri; Harry J., who is a resident of Shelbyville, this state; and Louis, Mary V., and Bertha E., who are still at home with their parents.

H. C. LOMAX was born in Adams county, Illinois, on Sept. 21, 1844, and is a son of John and Anna (Shank) Lomax, the former born in Sevier county, Tennessee, in February, 1812, and the latter in Virginia on June 16, 1819. They were married in 1835 and had thirteen children. The father died in February, 1877, and the mother Anna Lomax, 1902. Of the thirteen children born of their union eight are living: W.M., who resides at Laclede; Melinda J., who is the widow of the late J. C. Carothers; J. W., who also has his home at Laclede; Hattie, who is now the wife of Gilman Reed of Kansas City, Kansas; Laura L., who married W. C. Love and is living with him at Long Beach, California; George N., who dwells in Denison, Texas; Elizabeth, who is the wife of Horace Alexander also a resident of Denison, Texas; and H. C., the Laclede banker who is the immediate subject of this writing. On September 26, 1876 H. C. Lomax married Miss Matilda A. Turner, and by this union he has become the father of six children, four of whom are living. They are: E. M. Lomax, president of the Linn county Bank in Brookfield; J. C., who is prominent in the abstracting and loan business at Princeton John T., who is president of the Farmers State Guaranteed Bank of San Benito, Texas; and H. W., who has already been mentioned as the assistant cashier of his father's bank. The mother of these children died on July 2, 1894, and on March 18, 1896, the father contracted a second marriage in which he was united with Mrs. Betty L. (Watson) Heryford, the widow of the late Walter Heryford, of Hale, Missouri.

A. C. MOORE, a farmer in times of peace and a valiant Union soldier during a portion of the Civil War. Mr. Moore is a native of Guernsey county, Ohio, where he was born on October 10, 1845. His parents, John and Nancy (Waller) Moore, were natives of Virginia and died in Ohio. A. C. Moore's great grandfather was a soldier in the Revolutionary War, and even before it began. He was at Fort Necessity with General Washington in 1754-5. He died in Virginia. A. C. enlisted in the army raised for the defense of the country from dismemberment, entering Company I, Eighty-fifth Ohio Volunteer Infantry. Mr. Moore was first married in Ohio in 1865 to Miss Mary A. Gray, and by this marriage became the father of five children, all of whom are now residents of the state of Oklahoma. They are: Frank W., who is a farmer in that state; Nettie A., who is the wife of William Watson; Nancy J., who is the wife of Jess Foster; Maud S., who is the wife of Edward Moore; and James L., who is a farmer. The father's second marriage took place in 1900, and was with Miss Alina Shoemaker, a native of Chariton county, Missouri. They have two children, their sons Harry E. and Virgil L.

WILLIAM L. SENSINTAFFAR was born on the farm which he now owns on December 26, 1866, and is a son of Rufus and Harriet E. (Culbertson) Sensintaffar, the former born in Tazewell county, Virginia, and the latter in Shelby county, Missouri. During the Civil War the father served four years in the Confederate army under General Sterling Price. He was married in Linn county in 1866, but death robbed him of his wife in 1883. They were the parents of seven children, five sons and two daughters, and six of their offspring are living, but only two of them are residents of Linn county. Their father was one of two sons born to their grandparents, who also had four daughters. On September 27, 1888, William L. Sensintaffar was married to Miss Mollie E. Moss, a daughter of Luke and Rebecca (See) Moss of Shelby county, Missouri. Five children have been born of the union: Olive Lillian, Pauline R., Naomi L., Walter W. and Robert M.

ACHARY T. STANDLY, M. D. was born near Paris, Edgar county, Illinois, on January 13, 1847, and is a son of Richard and Catherine (Bullock) Standly, both natives of eastern Tennessee. The father was born in 1812. He died in October, 1869. The mother died in September, 1869. On June 2, 1872 he was united in marriage with Miss Jennie Vance, who was of the same nativity as himself. They had three children, two of whom are living: Their daughter Catherine V., now Mrs. Walter Brownlee, who was a practicing physician in Brookfield, and their son Horace M., who is a resident of Mojave, California. The mother of these children died on June 7, 1882, and on May 1, 1895, the doctor was married again, uniting himself with Miss Ella D. Griffin, of Glidden, Iowa. Of this marriage one child has been born, a son named Harold G.

THOMAS L. WATSON (Deceased) was the son of Thomas and Sarah Jane (nee Fowler) Watson. His father was one of the earliest settlers of Linn county, Missouri, having come here in 1833 from Chariton county, Missouri, from which he was once a member of the legislature. He also represented Linn county in the legislature, and kept the first tavern in this county. He and his wife were natives of Virginia. The grandfather of the subject of this sketch was a native of Ireland, and was a soldier in the Revolution through all the seven years of that struggle. He died in this country in 1845, aged ninety years.

THOMAS L. WATSON (Deceased) who died on December 25, 1877 was born in Chariton county, this state, on July 23, 1825, and was the son of Thomas and Sarah Jane (Fowler) Watson, natives of Virginia. The father was a man of local prominence in both Chariton and Linn counties. His father, Thomas Watson, was born in Ireland and came to this country in 1773 before the Revolutionary War, in which he took part, being in the Colonial army throughout the seven years of the struggle and was present at the surrender of General Cornwallis. He died in this county in 1840, at the age of ninety seven years. He served as sergeant of Captain Sam Kearsley's company, which was attached to the Sixth Virginia Regiment, commanded by Colonel James Hendricks.

ALEXANDER A. WELSH hails from the village of Glencoe, Belmont county, Ohio, where he was born on February 23, 1840. His parents, John and Mary (Sheldon) Welsh, were natives of that county, too, and his grandfather, Crawford Welsh, of Scotch parentage, died there in 1862, aged eighty years. The mother died in the place of her birth on May 13, 1855 and in 1866 the father and his living children moved to Missouri. He located in Laclede, this county, where he bought the Bell Hotel and conducted it until his death on February 2, 1888. His second wife was Miss Sabina Simpson, who died in 1907. Ten children were born of the first marriage, six sons and four daughters. The fruits of the second union were one son and one daughter. Alexander A. Welsh was married in Ohio in 1867 to Miss M. McVeigh, who was born and reared in Monroe county in that state. They have had four children, two of whom died in infancy. The two who are living are Albert D., and Cecil, who is also a Linn county agriculturist.

JAMES M. WELSH was born in Belmont county, Ohio, July 8, 1838. He is the son of John and Mary Welsh. When the Civil War began Mr. Welsh enlisted September 1, 1861, in Company F of a regiment of infantry then being recruited in his section. It was soon after organized into the Fifteenth Ohio Volunteers. He was married October 10, 1861, to Miss Louisa Neff, of Belmont county, Ohio. They have had six children: Ulysses Grant, Charles B., Marietta H., Diantha, and John L.
