TAX PAYERS OF 1861
 McDONALD COUNTY, MISSOURI

The original tax list of 1861 was taken to Arkansas in 1861 - 62 by County Clerk Hensley for the uses of the Confederacy, and so escaped the destruction of county records in 1863. The roster of Confederate troops is based principally on the recollection of Abram Price and others.

MCDONALD COUNTY, MISSOURI MARRIAGES

1865

The marriage record of Barry County, Missouri contains many names connected with the early history of McDonald, Newton and Lawrence, otherwise there would be nothing extant to show what was taking place in the matrimonial world of the southwest corner of Missouri in her youthful years. The old marriage record of this county was destroyed in 1863, and not until 1865, was the new book opened. From this venerable post-bellum volume the following record of marriages is taken:

WILSON, Jehu F.	MORGAN, Mary J.	26 Mar 1866	- R.M. Morgan, J.P.
SHELLY, Thomas	LOVE, Mary E.	26 Oct 1865	- E.G. Williams J.P.
MANNING, JOHN W.	MORRISON, Martha L.	20 Dec.	- D.C. Hopkins, J.P.
BOLES, Thomas A.	LAUGHLIN, Laura J.	31 Dec.	- H.H. Fox, J.P.
MARTIN, Thomas	REGNEY, Elizabeth	29 Mar.	- J.T. Lewis J.P.
GILBERT, Isaac A.	CLARK, Mary E.	1 Apr.	- R.M. Morgan, J.P.
KITTER, Solomon B.	DAVENPORT, Nancy	13 May	- R.M. Morgan, J.P.

SOME McDONALD COUNTYIANS MENTIONED IN MISSOURI DEMOCRACY pages 676-77.

McDoanld County met with some discourgements in obtaining representation in the General Assembly. Although organized some years previously it elected BURTON MCGEE in 1854, but he was not permitted to take his seat. THOMAS JONES from McDonald County later appeared and presented his credentials, and was seated. Afterwards it was declared that he was not entitled to the seat. However, in 1856 THOMAS JONES represented the county. WILLIAM C. DUVALL was representative in 1858-60; C. B. WALKER in 1862-64-67; JOSEPH J. BROWN in 1877; JAMES B. PRICE in 1869; J. C. LAMSON in 1871; WILLIAM C. PRICE in 1873-75; ALBERT W. CHENOWETH in 1879; N. J. PHILLIPS in 1881; THOMAS F. FORD in 1883; THOMAS COLLINS in 1885; JOHN J. McMATT in 1887; M. C. CHRISTIAN In 1889; J. WALTER B. STEVENS in the "Centennial History of Missouri,"
(Vol. 1, p. 104), relates the following:

"Indian Creek in McDonald County, according to an early writer, was so named from the fact that along its banks was the great Rendezvous for the Indians who inhabited this country. Among the earliest traditions gathered from the Indians by the white settlers was one of healing fountains which were said to exist in this region, the waters of which healed all diseases; large numbers of Indians came every year. A few daring hunters, by affiliating with the Indians, visited these fountains and told wonderful tales of their location, and so tenaciously did they cling to the surrounding country, that most white men were deterred from settling in this immediate vicinity. The few white settlers who did settle here, however, were not shown these "fountains," but got only their history and description of their location from the red men; but so great were the praises of the Indians, that the whites soon began to search for them. Among the first to make an extended search was a man named FRIEND, who was also, probably, the first white man to settle on Indian Creek, and a member of whose family was severely afflicted with rheumatism. Guided by the Indian descriptions, he was not a great while in finding the "Four Great Medical Springs." Living but a few miles away, the water was freely used, and a speedy and permanent cure effected."
