Bartles Station

Located on R.R. north of Freedom; between Versailles & Glensted. Capt. Bartle resided there, was a big cattle feeder and had a double track-switch to put off car loads of corn.

People who were raised here, and moved away and died:
 were often shipped back for burial at Freedom Bapt.
 Church Cem. The train would stop here at Bartles Station and a wagon would meet the train and take the body to the church.

Koy & Ethel (klein) Spaulding worked faithfully the winter of 1965-1966 getting Freedom Church Building back in shape as it was—before the partitions were put in. The back door was moved back over the steps and made useable again. They papered the church and put back all the pews. Doris (Todd) Sims helped the floor. It was finished before Memorial Day 1967, and many viewed it and showed appreciation — for a job well-done.

On Sat. June 22 & June 29 several interested families met with Mr. Thomas Woolsey, and talked, and are seeing if, the Freedom Cem. Association, can be Inc., and if it could become a cemetery with perpetual care. Several other meetings will probably be called in 1968. But it is hoped that the cemetery will always be cared for. Mrs. Gerald Yarnell & dau. Viola Ann, attended the above mentioned Saturday meetings.

Martens School, N.W. of Stover on Highway 135. School was on the east side of road. Dist. no. 29 school house was sold when re-organization came, and it was made into a dwelling.

Across the road the Marten (Annual) Fair was held.
Exhibits hung on the clothe-line or rope. Had food stands with soda pop. A platform was erected for the speakers, patriotic programs, candidates spoke, people were introduced. Mrs. Autrey Sims was a judge of the fancy work for many years. Uncle Charley Ball always attended and visited with the old timers and would talk livestock trade. Ilene Farnall attended several fairs and always got a drink of water at the school house.

 Joe L. Sims
 Harvey J. Sims
 age 1068, Morgan Co. Section, Goodspeed.
 She was an excellent oral reader, and had the ability to remember local names and birthdays
 and could explain area history.
 Her garden always had a row of rose bushes in it.
 She always had a complete row of rhubarb in the middle of it. A few times the boys forgot about it when plowing the garden in the fall;
 they would have to re-set, but it always thrived. Neighbors would get a nose of pie-plant (rhubarb) to eat, or would dig in and try to get a few plants to set out at home.
 She always appreciated the new house her husband built. The place is now owned by a grand-dau.
 Arleen G. Sims (Mrs. Robert E. Kitchell).
 The Kitchells are enjoying the same roses she set out, and the elm shade tree on the east side of the house that was set out by Mr.
 Sims.

Judge Henry Wagenkuecht, Born Mechlenburg, Germany 1833.
 Came to America 1855
 Married Dec. 17, 1859 to Ellen Smith (dau. of G. W. Smith)
 The judge put in tile on his farm 1889, the only man in the county to do so. His farm had much bottom land-swamps and willows- this land was broken by ox team.
 Cleared of Willows and surveyed. The drainage ditches were dug by shovel and men. (Back Breaking labor by hand).
 Huge tiles were put in place; and many tiles 4 in. in diameter and larger were connected to the big tiles-all tile bought from Bennett Hummel Pottery works at Florence, Mo.

School &amp; Notes of—Ritchie Bapt. Church.

Ritchie Baptist Church Dedicated Aug. 15, 1886, New Building Dedicated, June 30, 1963, these dates were copied from a sign on the front of the new building. The cemetery was mowed, and had a new woven wire fence, with metal posts around it. This church is located 7 miles Southwest of the town of Versailles, on a gravel road.

Rev. J. Ed. Sims preached in Ritchie School House in 1867, later the church was organized there. The school house stands near by, and was sold when re-organization of the school districts occurred; and the old school is now a private dwelling place. Rev. J. T. Letts later preached at Ritchie.

Henry Marriott resides near the church, and was the church clerk, his address is Route 4, Versailles, Mo.

Mrs. Pertie Hite, R.F.D., Versailles, Mo. used to teach at the Old Ritchie School, and might answer a letter of inquiry of this area. Ritchie School always had a large enrollment of pupils. Mrs. Hite taught for many years.

In 1915 Henry Bauer was a merchant in the Ritchie School District.

Ritchie School District Fair was held in Oct. 1911, Miss Frances Pontius, Teacher. Exhibits of fancy work and pastries were judged. Basket dinners served, talks were made. Horse racing and fun for all. (Oct. 27, 1911, Leader, Versailles, Mo.)

RITCHIE BAPTIST CHURCH

Located in Morgan County, Mo., Haw Creek Township, Township 42 N., Range 18 W., near Richey Creek. In and near the west side of Section 27. (Very near the east edge of Sect. 28). On the north side of the road.

Copied Oct. 1, 1968, by Mrs. Preston Hutchison & Mrs.
 Gerald Yarnall, Berwickies, No. This is as complete as it is readable, a high percentage of the markers are hand made, then painted with white paint. Many of the letters are made backwards. Mrs. Hutchison copied in the new part and she found 15 field rocks marking graves, with no data on them. I copied in the older part and did not try to count them.

About 15 yrs. ago I visited this cemetery, and at that time it had been allowed to grow up with tall grass, and some one had burned it off. This had cracked off the paint (Many coats of it) on these concrete markers, and it was something! At the present time, these markers have been scraped off, and are standing erect and readable. So glad the cemetery is now mowed regularly.

I have never seen a history of this church printed in the newspaper, but am sure it would be most interesting if someone would take the time to record this church and its community.
