PREFACE

When members of the Yakima Valley Genealogical Society began abstracting records in the Yakima County Courthouse, in the winter of 1973, as an American Revolution Bicentennial project in keeping with the Society's program of making records of our heritage more easily available to genealogists and historians, publication of the abstracts in the Society Bulletin was planned. However, it soon became apparent that the abstracts would be too bulky to publish in the Bulletin within a reasonable period of time. Therefore, the Society decided to publish the Yakima County Records in a series of separate volumes. Also, because most of Benton County was a part of Yakima County during the period under study, it was decided to include Benton County records in the volumes to be published so that the records of individuals who had been residents of both Yakima County and the newer Benton County would be in one place.

To underwrite the expense of publication the Society took various actions. In addition to budgeting some of its regular income for records publication, members of the Society undertook special money raising projects. Miss Dorothy Prior, who several years ago generously gave the Society money to establish a publications fund, agreed this project should be the beneficiary of that donation and to make further contribution to our publication expenses. Finally, the Society applied to the Washington State American Revolution Bicentennial Commission for a grant to match somewhat less than one-half of the records publication budget.

On October 26, 1974, the Washington State American Revolution Bicentennial Commission made a grant to the Society of $450 to assist in the publication of these Yakima County and Benton County records, for which we express our sincere appreciation.

The Yakima Valley Genealogical Society members and especially its President, Mrs. Cyril W. Davis, and its American Revolution Bicentennial Committee, Miss Dorothy Prior, Chairman, realize that publication of these records would not be possible without the assistance of many people. Thanks for their cooperation go to the Yakima and Benton County Auditors and Clerks for providing a place to work on the records in their custody and to their staffs, past and present, for providing good records with which to work.

Our thanks also go to the members of the Yakima Valley Genealogical Society who, through their dues and support of special projects provided substantial financial backing for the project and to Miss Dorothy Prior for her special gifts. Special appreciation is given to the following, who spent many hours abstracting records in the courthouses and in making the indexes for these volumes:

INTRODUCTION

The Yakima County Cemetery records now being on microfilm and available to everyone through inter-library loan from the Washington State Library, some members of the Yakima Valley Genealogical Society decided to work in the courthouse during the winter of 1973-74. Records were sought which would supplement our cemetery records through the year 1907, when registration of births and deaths was centralized in the Washington State Department of Health at Olympia. Four principal groups of records were abstracted--the birth, marriage and death records in the office of the County Auditor and the probate records in the office of the County Clerk. In addition, the few naturalization records held by the County Clerk were abstracted.

While the records in the Yakima County Courthouse were being abstracted, it became apparent that very little work would be required to provide similar abstracts for the records of the Benton County Courthouse, that county having been established only two years before the end of the period we had elected to study. Therefore, the birth and marriage records (there were no deaths recorded before the spring of 1907) in the office of the Benton County Auditor and the probate records in the office of the Benton County Clerk were abstracted. The result is that abstracts of birth, marriage, death and probate records and of some naturalization proceedings (incomplete as such records were not uncovered in the Benton County Courthouse) through 1907 are available for most of the residents of the area that became Benton County. The only data missing is that for the relatively few residents of the southern one-fourth of Benton County, that area having been the eastern tip of Klickitat County.

To understand what may be expected from these abstracts, a brief outline of the history of Yakima and Benton County and their record keeping is essential.

Records in the Courthouse of Yakima County, Washington

When the first missionaries settled in the Yakima Valley, about 1850, it was part of Clarke County, a gigantic county encompassing most of the present State of Washington as well as land further east. On April 25, 1854, Walla Walla County was formed and assumed jurisdiction over the Yakima area. When Klickitat County was formed Dec. 20, 1859, some of the land now in Yakima County was given to the new county. When Yakima County was divided off from Walla Walla County on Jan. 1, 1865, its northern boundaries were much as they are now, but on Jan. 31, 1867 they were extended northward to the Wenatchee River, taking in all of the present Kittitas County and the southern part of Chelan County, these additions coming from Stevens County. Between 1868 and 1873, various shifts of boundaries between Yakima and Klickitat Counties occurred, but no major division of Yakima County occurred until Nov. 24, 1883, when Kittitas County was formed (including in its boundaries that land further north that is now in Chelan County). The final major change in Yakima County boundaries came on Mar. 3, 1905, when Benton County was formed.

Since registration of births and deaths began in Yakima County in May 1891, the boundary changes noted above have little effect on the location of these records except for residents of the southeastern portion of Yakima County that was cut off to Benton County. The naturalization records date from Sept. 2, 1882 and the same conditions apply to them as to the birth and death records, except that a few may concern residents of what are now Kittitas and Chelan Counties.

The boundary changes that occurred in Yakima County's history have more effect on what may be found in its marriage records and probate records. The earliest marriage record in existence is dated Nov. 25, 1877, the earlier records having been lost in the courthouse fire of 1880. The marriage records prior to Nov. 1883 concern a considerable number of residents of the present Kittitas County and prior to Mar. 3, 1905 many residents of the southeastern part of Yakima County that now lies in Benton County. Also, since a marriage license is valid anywhere in the state, some licenses recorded in Yakima County were used elsewhere.

In the case of probates, we have been unable to find out where any estates may have been probated prior to Sept. 28, 1869 when the first entry was made in Probate Docket Book A. Probates before 1865 should be in Walla Walla County, which has probate records from 1860. Noting that the first probate records for Walla Walla County appear about five years after formation of the county, we suspect that if there were any estates subject to probate before 1869, they may have been probated in Walla Walla County. It may also be that the earliest probate records were lost in some general court journal during the courthouse fire of 1880, in which Probate Docket Books A and B were among the very few records saved.

Records in the Courthouse of Benton County, Washington

Benton County was established Mar. 3, 1905 by running a line due south from the Columbia River along the boundary between range 23 and range 24 east, Willamette Meridian, until said line again intersected the Columbia River. The land east of said line, lying in the bend of the Columbia River, became Benton County, the bulk coming from Yakima County with a small tip of the eastern end of Klickitat County being included in the new county.

The effect of the establishment of Benton County on the records of its past residents is important. Prior to Mar. 3, 1905, records for most if its residents should be found in Yakima County with those for residents of about its southern one-quarter being in Klickitat County. However, the distance residents of the future Benton County had to travel to the courthouse at Yakima or Goldendale seems to have influenced what may appear in the records of either courthouse. It appears that residents of the Benton County area did not report as high a percentage of births or deaths as did those in other parts of Yakima County, this practice being carried on after formation of the county, only 38 births and no deaths being recorded between Mar. 3, 1905 and April, 1907. It also appears that some residents of the Benton County area secured marriage licenses elsewhere, especially those in the Konnewick area who were very close to the Franklin County Courthouse, at Pasco. Newspaper and other sources also indicate that residents of the southern part of the Benton County area often went across the river into Oregon to be married rather than travel to Yakima or Goldendale for marriage licenses prior to Mar. 3, 1905.

In the case of legal proceedings, including probates, those who lived in the Benton County area prior to Mar. 3, 1905 did, naturally, have to use the courthouse of the county having jurisdiction over the part of the area in which they lived. When Benton County was formed, its courthouse took over jurisdiction of such affairs. In the case of probates, cases which were not concluded were transferred to the Benton County Probate Court and the first Probate Court Journals and Will Books include copies of all such proceedings transferred to the new court from Yakima and Klickitat Counties. Records of guardianships that were still active and of past probates of estates which involved title to land within Benton County were also transferred to the new County. Whether any naturalization proceedings were similarly transferred could not be determined, since we did not discover any naturalization records during our work in Benton County, though some records for 1905-07 may exist.

Condition of Records

The condition of the records in the Yakima County Courthouse, at Yakima, Wash., and in the Benton County Courthouse, at Prosser, Wash., is excellent. The only problem is the usual one of inconsistency of spelling of people's names, which arises from two causes. First, all the records we used were in volumes which had been prepared by copying records into them. Secondly, the style of handwriting common during the period these records were made leads to difficulty in transcribing names accurately. In the case of birth and death records, only one record for each was available. In abstracting these records, the alternative spellings are shown, but we decided it was unwise to insert what we think some of the names really were, even when it might bring members of a family together, after we found some of our assumptions might be wrong. In the case of marriage and probate records, there were two or more sources for the majority of the records. Few discrepancies in the spelling of names during a probate occurred. However, in the marriage records, names were frequently spelled differently in the Marriage Register and the Marriage Certificate. The increase of name variants in the marriage records had two causes. The first was the handwriting used in preparing the volumes. The second, and more important cause was the fact that those who made the entries into the volumes for the two types of marriage records either had difficulty reading the original documents or found inconsistencies in the spelling of names in the basic documents. The greatest variation in the spelling of names naturally occurred in those of foreign origin, especially in Germanic, French, Dutch and Slavic names, but many variations appear to be due to handwriting, especially the poor formation of the following letters, grouped as they caused confusion:

A, O, C	F, L, T, S	D, O, G	I, J, L	L, S	M, N, V, W	Y, Z
E, C	K, P, R	a, o, u	ei, ie	h, k	m, n, u, v
c, e, s	g, y, j	r, v, w	rn, m	e, i (not dotted)
l, t (not crossed)		dt, tt	sch, sh	ey, ry

All variations in the spelling of names which were found are included in the text of our abstracts. In the Birth Records and Death Records, we included some cross-references where the spelling of the father's surname indicated that the spelling of the child's or decedent's name probably was wrong. However, it was not possible to cross-reference all the records that may possibly apply to one family group, since, in the case of a mother's name we had no basis for cross-referencing. The Marriage Records were so extensive that cross-referencing within the body of the text was impossible.

In the Surname Index, in each volume of our records, every spelling variant of a surname appearing in the text is shown. We recommend that anyone who does not find the record they seek in the place they expect, study the Surname Index carefully, checking all bearing surnames having the vaguest phonetic connection to the surname in which they are interested.

Anyone writing for certified copies of records listed in these abstracts should be sure to show any variations in names shown in the abstracts, for the record may be indexed under either form of the name. Also, to secure a complete marriage record, the request should include the fact that information from both the Marriage Certificate and the Marriage Register is desired.

PROBATE COURT RECORDS, YAKIMA COUNTY, WASH.

The first Probate Court record in Yakima County was entered Sept. 29, 1869 in a volume labeled "Probate Docket No. A, Court of Yakima Co., Wash. Terr., Journal A," the first of four court journals which run through "Docket No. D," ending in January 1890. During the Territorial period, other Probate Court series were begun: "Record of Wills, Probate Court, Yakima Co., W.T.," begun Aug. 15, 1874; "Record, 1869-1890, Probate One," which also contains some wills, mostly of 1889-91; and "Letters of Administration, Book A., U.S.A. Territory of Washington." In 1890-91, after statehood, new sets of records were begun, each labeled "Yakima Co., Wash.," with the books in each series numbered "Book A," "Book B," etc. The principal series of volumes are: "Superior Court Journal, Probate," "Record of Wills," "Record of Administrations," and "Record of Bonds."

While making these abstracts of Probate Court records for the estates of individuals who died through the year 1907, we searched all of the above named series of volumes. The most comprehensive were the "Probate Dockets" and the "Superior Court Journals, Probate," which are a daily record of all matters coming before the court. These volumes, in conjunction with the "Record of Wills," allowed more complete identification of heirs of those who died testate than use of wills only. They also allowed identification of the greater number of adults who died in the county (and of their heirs)--those who died intestate. The Dockets and Journals also record the appointment and supervision of guardians, sometimes providing clues to the decease of residents whose estates were too small to probate. Search of the "Record of Administrations" and "Record of Bonds" served principally as a check that no entry in the Dockets or Journals had been missed, but occasionally was the only source of data about a case.

The Probate Court also has jurisdiction over adoptions and sanity hearings, and the records of such proceedings appear in its open records until sometime after 1907. However, in view of the fact such proceedings are now sealed, we have not abstracted these two types of proceedings, which represent a relatively small number of actions through 1907.

In compiling these records, the decedent's name is followed by the date of death and age, if known. The existence of a will, together with the date it was made, age when made and witnesses, executor of the will or administrator of an intestate estate (or an estate in another state) follow, the relationship of the executor or administrator to the decedent being noted if known. Next, the widow (or widower), if not already named, and children are listed with their ages, followed by a similar listing of all other heirs. The residence of all persons is shown if mentioned either as a specific town within the county or as outside the county. Guardianships established during the probate of an estate are noted with said estate. Finally the date on which the case first appears in the records and the date of the last record found, usually the final accounting (if it occurred before Sept. 22, 1910) is given. In some cases, apparently when on first appearance in court it was determined an estate was too small to probate or the appearance was ancillary to probate of an estate in another state, only one date appears.

When a case before the court established a guardianship without being part of a probate proceeding, the names of the persons over which the guardianship was established are listed together with their ages, the name of the guardian and relationship, if given, and the date of the proceeding. Occasionally the date the guardianship terminated was found, but more often it extended beyond the period of this study or was not noted in the records.

Anyone interested in the estates and guardianships listed here may examine the wills or other papers personally or secure copies by writing for an estimate of the number of pages to be copied and price per page to: Yakima County Clerk, Courthouse, Yakima, Wash., 98901. In many cases, the County Clerk also has case files (Jackets) which contain papers presented to the court during probate that may be useful, especially if one is interested in the land a decedent owned or further elucidation of relationships between persons mentioned in our abstracts.

The Yakima County Probate records are in excellent condition and very thoroughly indexed. Unlike other county records, there is little variation in the spelling of peoples' names, but where variants were found they are noted. To save space in printing these abstracts, the following abbreviations have been used:

wid.	= widow (widower)	Ex.	= Executor or Executrix

PROBATE RECORDS, BENTON COUNTY, WASH.

With the establishment of Benton County, Wash., on Mar. 3, 1905, we see in its probate records a good example of what happens to records for people who live in an area formed from previously created counties. First, there is a lag between the time the county is established and the time its officials begin operations in the new courthouse, because the law allows time for the new officials to be elected and to set up their offices. In the case of Benton County, it was the summer of 1905 before the Probate Court began to operate. In the interim, the Probate Courts of Yakima and Klickitat Counties took care of the estates of those who died in the spring of 1905 that had previously been residents of one of these counties. When Benton County's new Probate Court did begin to function, the incompleated probates of estates of decedents who had lived in the area, encompassed by the new county were transferred to the Benton County Probate Court. Similarly, guardianships involving residents of the new county were transferred to its court.

Secondly, in Washington, as in many other states, when land is transferred as the result of inheritance the only documentation of the transfer is usually in the Order of Distribution of an estate (occasionally, though, a separate deed may be issued). Since it is important that a complete record of land titles for all the land in a county be in its courthouse, the law provides that when a new county is formed copies of all transactions involving land in the new county be secured from the counties in which the land previously lay. In order to meet the provisions of the law on land titles, not only copies of the pertinent deeds and patents from the County Auditors' Offices of Yakima and Klickitat Counties were made for the Benton County Auditor, but copies of all pertinent probate records in the County Clerks' Offices of Yakima and Klickitat Counties were sent to the Benton County Clerk and duly recorded in the Probate Court Journal.

Finally, the arrangement of the Benton County records is somewhat different from those of the older counties. The Probate Court Journal is the main set of volumes kept, with a supplementary series of Fee Books. No Will Books were established, the will of a testate estate being filed in the estate "jacket," a procedure later adopted by all of the counties.

Only the Probate Court Journal and the Fee Book were available to us for compiling these records. As for Yakima County records, we abstracted all probate proceedings for persons dying through the year 1907 and guardianships set up during the same time. Where possible, we followed the probate of estates to their closing, even when it occurred after 1907. Since the wills for testate estates were unavailable to us, we had to rely on Orders of Distribution and other records in the Probate Court Journals for lists of heirs. Therefore, we recommend that anyone seriously interested in a specific testate estate secure a copy of the will either in person or by writing to the County Clerk, Benton County Courthouse, Prosser, Wash., 99350.

NATURALIZATION RECORDS, YAKIMA COUNTY, WASH.

In addition to the probate records held by the Yakima County Clerk, there is another group of records held by the Clerk that are of great historical and genealogical significance--the naturalization records. These records fall into two main groups--Declarations of Intentions and Oaths of Allegiance and other records pertaining to final naturalization proceedings.

The first group of records, the Declarations of Intentions, simply state that the individual is officially beginning the five-year period of residence in the United States required to become a citizen. A great many of these records were filed. The second, smaller but more important, group are the records associated with the final naturalization hearing and include Petitions for Naturalization, Oaths of Allegiance and the action of the court.

Unfortunately the naturalization records held by the Yakima County Clerk through the year 1907 are not complete. No Declarations of Intentions were recorded between July 9, 1903 and Oct. 12, 1906, although a file of Declarations made elsewhere includes a few made during that period.

The only record of actual naturalizations on file in Yakima County before Oct. 9, 1906, are copies of Oaths of Allegiance, which date from Oct. 3, 1894 to May 11, 1903. Between Oct. 9, 1906 and June 5, 1907, a few Petitions for Naturalization (applications listing the particulars of the petitioner's life) accompany the Oaths of Allegiance.

The gaps in the naturalization records may come from the federal reform of naturalization procedures that took place in Sept. 1906, following voting frauds in New York City that arose from improper naturalization of many people. Prior to that time, county, and in very populous areas, city courts handled naturalizations with relatively little supervision from federal authorities. With the reform, the number of courts that handled naturalizations was decreased and the Immigration and Naturalization Service entered into the picture more actively. From the scanty records on file in Yakima County, it appears there may have been a lull in naturalizations pending the naturalization reform. Although a few Petitions for Naturalization were received and acted upon by the Yakima County Superior Court in late 1906 and the first half of 1907, the U. S. District Court for Eastern Washington appears to have taken over naturalization proceedings about that time, for some Petitions for Naturalization made in 1907 to the County Superior Court were denied in 1908 because the petitioner had made a similar petition to the U. S. District Court which had been acted upon through its branch in North Yakima.

Suspecting that soon after the naturalization reform, some of the Yakima County naturalization records were turned over to Federal authorities, inquiry was made at the Yakima office of the U. S. District Court for Eastern Washington. They reported that all records of naturalization proceedings had been transferred to the Immigration and Naturalization Service office in Spokane, Wash., although final swearing in of new citizens is done by judges of the Yakima County Superior Court. Therefore, anyone interested in securing data from a Petition for Naturalization not listed herein should inquire of the U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Service, 920 W. Riverside Ave., Spokane, Wash., 99201, as to whether they hold the Petitions for Naturalization which are missing from Yakima County.

Important Note: When "England" was given as country of origin, it sometimes indicated the allegiance to the British Crown of Scotch, Irish and Canadians, according to information contained in other Yakima County records.

Miscellaneous Records Including Declarations of Intentions

Before safe deposit boxes were so common, individuals often filed records with a county clerk for safe keeping. The Yakima County Clerk's office has a file of miscellaneous records relating to naturalization which included Declarations of Intentions and occasional Naturalization Records placed in the Clerk's keeping as well as copies of Declarations of Intentions sent to this county for persons who planned to complete their naturalization here after beginning it elsewhere. In abstracting these miscellaneous records, only those for individuals who do not appear in the bound volume of Yakima County Declaration of Intentions were copied.

Naturalization Record

Volume I -- Oct. 3, 1894--May 11, 1903

This volume contains copies of Oaths of Allegiance taken at the time of naturalization and the date noted is presumed to be the date on which the individual renounced allegiance to the country of his origin and became a citizen of the United States. From the file of miscellaneous naturalization records listed on the preceding two pages, it appears that entries were not made in this volume for a few persons who were naturalized in Yakima County.

Naturalization Records

Volume II -- Oct. 9, 1906--June 5, 1907

Labelled "Petition and Record," this small volume contains copies of Petitions for Naturalization which detail the life of the applicant, including the date and place of birth, entry into the U. S.; marriage; names and date and place of birth of his children; occupation; places lived in the U.S., etc. On the back of each petition is a copy of the Oath of Allegiance and action of the court. Most of the petitions relate to naturalizations that took place on or before June 5, 1907. However, four petitions were denied because the petitioner had also petitioned the U.S. District Court, at North Yakima, and that court had acted. In abstracting those records, we simply copied the petitioner's name, country of origin and the date he took the Oath of Allegiance, since anyone interested in these people and their families ought to check petitions, which are crammed with genealogical data.

NATURALIZATION RECORDS, BENTON COUNTY, WASH.

Benton County was formed during the period when the reform of Naturalization procedures was underway. From the remarks of the Benton County Clerk, we believe some naturalizations were initiated there between the establishment of the county, Mar. 3, 1905 and 1908, for the Clerk reported that their naturalization records had been transferred to Franklin County. It is unclear whether the records were transferred to the Franklin County Clerk or to Immigration and Naturalization Service offices. The most logical place for anyone seeking naturalization records for residents of Benton County, if they are not among Yakima County records, is to contact the U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Service, 920 W. Riverside Ave., Spokane, Wash., 99201. As a last resort, a check of the records of the Franklin County Clerk, Courthouse, Pasco, Wash., 99301, is recommended.
