PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

A happy and productive 1973 to all!!

Our present membership now stands at 69. Eighteen new people joined at the Beginners' Workshop held in October. The complete list of members will be found on the colored pages of this issue.

The year's programs in our general meetings are geared toward more advanced research and are designed as a follow-up of the five Beginners' Workshop topics: Your Pedigree Chart, Your Family Group Sheet, Sources of Information, Tips on Correspondence, and Use of Maps in Genealogy.

The November 8, 1972, meeting program was on Organization of Genealogical Research Notes, by Dale Denham.

The December 13, 1972, meeting program was on Court House Records, by Marilyn Duel.

The January 10, 1973, meeting program was on Tapping the Tips of the Early Census, by Margaret Rice.

All were informative for both more experienced researchers and beginners alike.

Many new census indexes have been added to the TCGS library holdings through trade with our own four census publications.

ILLINOIS STATE BULLETIN PRAISES TCGS INDEX

From Vol. IV, No. 3, p. 180 of the ILLINOIS STATE GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY BULLETIN:

Genealogical societies in the State of Illinois have, as a long-term project, the indexing of the 1850 federal census for all Illinois counties. We are honored now to have some unexpected assistance from a society in the state of Washington, which has now published an index to Gallatin County, one of the earliest settled areas in Illinois.

The publication is well prepared and includes a surname index. It meets the standards which Illinois societies seek in their own publications. As a consequence, this publication should be in every Illinois genealogical reference collection.

NOTE: The TCGSociety is interested in exchanging this index for other books as well as in selling it to societies, libraries or individuals. Send a memo of title, number of pages, and selling price. Let's Make a Deal!

SAMUEL MAY & DESCENDANTS

by

Lyle Donovan Perrigo and Dalene Twing Perrigo

INTRODUCTION

Information on Samuel May of Ohio and two generations of descendants is presented so that descendants today may know more about their ancestors and share in a common heritage. Publication of the limited known material on the early members of this May Family might also provide the stimulus to the discovery of new and much needed additional information. The details on Samuel May's life, for example, are quite meager, and there is an almost total lack of information on his daughters. There is also a scarcity of material on many of the grandchildren. Data on these and other areas will be needed before a definitive history of the family can be prepared.

The oral tradition transmitted by a granddaughter offers some tantalizing possibilities on Samuel May's lineage<sup>(1)</sup>. A Hezekiah May was reported to be an ancestor. Such an individual was identified in the May Genealogy published by the Rand, Avery and Company in 1878 as the Connecticut forefather of many who settled in the Western Reserve or "Fire Lands" of Ohio in the 1790's and early 1800's<sup>(2)</sup>. Additionally, other tradition places the home area for Samuel May's forebears as New England<sup>(3)</sup>. Until verifiable information is available, this connection with the May Family in Connecticut must be treated as speculation. Even though very tenuous, it is included in the hope that others might be able to supply data that clearly establish the lineage of Samuel May.

Information on Samuel May and two generations of his descendants is arranged according to the form recommended by Gilbert H. Doane for publishing genealogical material<sup>(4)</sup>. This system, frequently known as the NEW ENGLAND HISTORICAL AND GENEALOGICAL REGISTER System, presents information in sequences of generations. For example, detailed material on all members of the second generation is presented before specific information is given on the third generation, etc. Arabic numbers are used to identify progeny treated in greater detail in the following generation. Roman numerals are used to indicate the order of birth of children. The lineage of each descendant is given in summary in parentheses immediately following the introductory use of the name in the sections providing detailed genealogical data. The father comes first in these parentheses, the grandfather second and so on. Numerical superscripts as recommended by Doane are not used<sup>(4)</sup>; the limited number of generations covered does not warrant such usage. The numerical superscripts are used instead in this genealogy to indicate reference numbers.

The authors have accumulated the information presented in this article from a number of sources over a nine-year period. It is correct in so far as is known, or qualified if readily open to uncertainty. Undoubtedly we have made errors, and we would hope that readers who find them would advise us so that the correct data will be available for a more definitive genealogy on this family at some time in the future.

THE FIRST GENERATION

Samuel May was born in Ohio in 1810 or 1811<sup>(5,6,7)</sup>. He married Abigail (last name unknown) from Massachusetts<sup>(5,6,7)</sup> probably in 1833 or 1834. In 1850 they lived in District 8, Orwell Township, Ashtabula County, Ohio, where he farmed<sup>(5)</sup>. The same source indicates that he owned real estate worth $800. On January 12, 1856, he purchased 154 acres in Orwell Township; he sold 70 of these acres later that year<sup>(8)</sup>. In 1859 he sold the remaining 84 acres. Before the 1860 census was taken Samuel, his wife and five of their children moved to Marion, Grant County, Wisconsin. After a few years they moved to Elmwood, Cass County, Nebraska. He homesteaded land and in 1872 was granted a patent for 160 acres by the United States Government<sup>(9)</sup>. Samuel May died on August 13, 1876, at Elmwood and was interred in the Elmwood Cemetery, lot 84. Abigail died in 1889 and was buried beside her husband. Samuel May and his wife were the parents of at least eight children<sup>(5,6,7)</sup>:

- i. Theresa May was born ca 1835 in Ohio.
- ii. Nancy May was born ca 1836 in Ohio.
- iii. Emily May was born ca 1838 in Ohio.
- iv. Aurilla May was born ca 1840 in Ohio.
- v. Sarah May was born ca 1842 in Ohio.
- vi. Helen May was born ca 1846 in Ohio.
1. vii. Oliver Samuel May was born October 22, 1849, in Ohio.
2. viii. Charles Franklin May was born July 1, 1852, in Ashtabula Co., Ohio.

The 1860 census lists Sarah as born ca 1844 and contains no mention of Aurilla<sup>(6)</sup>. Other information indicates that Aurilla died when she was quite young<sup>(10)</sup>. Also the 1870 census has an Orilla born ca 1858 in Vermont and listed as a member of the family. In all likelihood Aurilla and Orilla were the same person. This would be consistent with most information available. An Orilla Pizer died in 1872 and was buried near Samuel and Abigail May (see second generation data); she would have been 32 if born in 1840 and could be said to have died when quite young. A Zee or Zea has also been identified by some as being a daughter of Samuel and Abigail May<sup>(10)</sup>. She is reported to have died in infancy; no data are currently available on her birth or death dates<sup>(11)</sup>.

THE SECOND GENERATION

Theresa May married a Northway, and Nancy married a Clute; both are believed to have remained in Ohio<sup>(10)</sup>. Emily married Chet Ogdon, Sarah married a Mr. Walker, and Helen was wedded to W.G.G. (Harry) Van Epp<sup>(10,11)</sup>. The latter couple were living in Stove Creek Precinct, Cass County, Nebraska, in 1870<sup>(7)</sup>. After the deaths of Chet Ogdon and Helen May, Emily May Ogdon is reported to have married W.G.G. Van Epp<sup>(10)</sup>. Orilla died on May 5, 1872; her husband, Alford A. Pizer, passed away on November 1, 1895<sup>(12)</sup>. They were interred near Samuel and Abigail May in lot 84 of the Elmwood Cemetery. No information is available on any descendants of the daughters of Samuel May.

1. Oliver Samuel May (Samuel), seventh child of Samuel and Abigail May, married Martha M. Wilson of Iowa in 1876 at Elmwood, Nebraska<sup>(13,14)</sup>. Either by inheriting the 160-acre homestead of his father in its entirety or by purchasing the interests of his brother and sisters, Oliver Samuel May acquired this property by 1877. He sold 80 acres of it in April of 1877 and the remainder in 1879<sup>(15,16)</sup>. In 1890 Oliver Samuel May and his family moved to Dawson County, Nebraska, where he continued to reside until his death at Cozad on July 17, 1914. He was buried in the Walnut Grove Cemetery at Cozad<sup>(13)</sup>. Oliver Samuel May and his wife were the parents of six children<sup>(12,13)</sup>:

- i. Sadie/Sarah May was born ca 1878 in Cass County, Nebraska.
- ii. Minnie May was born ca 1880 in Cass County, Nebraska.
- iii. W.E. May was born in Dawson County, Nebraska.
- iv. Charles was born in Dawson County, Nebraska.
- v. Frank was born in Dawson County, Nebraska.
- vi. Leo was born in Dawson County, Nebraska.

2. Charles Franklin May (Samuel), eighth child of Samuel and Abigail May, was born in Ashtabula County, Ohio. When fully grown he was a tall man; he is reported to have been six feet two inches tall<sup>(17)</sup>. His wife, Lucy Emma Keeler (1854-1946), was only four feet eight inches tall. They were married in her mother's home in Weeping Water, Nebraska, in 1871<sup>(3,17)</sup>. He farmed near Elkhorn, Nebraska, till the fall of 1879 when he and his family moved by covered wagon to unorganized territory in the north central part of the state, now Rock County. They located between Kirkwood and Myrville. During the first winter they used a dugout for shelter. In 1880 Charles Franklin May built a log cabin for his family. He homesteaded 160 acres and filed for a tree claim<sup>(17)</sup>. Later, during an attempt to begin a sheep farm, he used this property as collateral for a loan. The market dropped and he lost his property<sup>(18)</sup>. About 1896 Charles Franklin May and his family moved to Madison County, Nebraska. About 1911 the family moved to Wessington Springs, South Dakota<sup>(19)</sup>, and in April, 1914, to Los Angeles, California<sup>(20)</sup>. His failing health prompted a return to Nebraska in June 1917<sup>(20)</sup>. He died in Hooper, Nebraska, on February 6, 1919, and was buried in the Clausen Cemetery, Madison, Nebraska<sup>(10,20)</sup>. Charles Franklin May and his wife, Lucy Emma Keeler, had eleven children<sup>(10,21)</sup>:

3. i. Eva Belle May was born December 7, 1871, in Cass Co., Nebraska.
- ii. Jessie Alma May was born October 4, 1872, in Cass Co., Nebraska; she died on March 11, 1873.
4. iii. Lennie Leota May (a son) was born April 20, 1875 in Cass Co., Neb.
5. iv. Elsie Abigail May was born March 12, 1879, at Elkhorn, Nebraska.
6. v. Eltie Catherine May was born March 12, 1879, at Elkhorn, Nebraska.
7. vi. Charles Samuel May was born February 28, 1881, in unorganized territory, Nebraska<sup>(22)</sup>.

8. vii. Margaret Pearl May was born June 2, 1883, in unorganized territory, Nebraska<sup>(22)</sup>.
9. viii. Thomas Lorin May was born January 20, 1886, in the part of Brown Co. that later became Rock Co., Nebraska<sup>(22)</sup>.
  - ix. Lucy Myrtle May was born November 29, 1888, in Rock County, Nebraska. She died in 1904 from appendicitis and was buried at Madison, Nebraska.
10. x. Olive Fern May was born at Kirkwood, Nebraska on December 11, 1895.
11. xi. Raymond Edwin May was born November 10, 1897, at Norfolk, Nebraska.

THE THIRD GENERATION

Five of Oliver Samuel May's six children were alive at the time of his death in 1914<sup>(14)</sup>. Sadie had married a Mr. Hawley. Both she and her brother Charles May were reported at that time to be residents of Powell, Wyoming. W.E., Frank and Leo were living in Cozad, Nebraska. No further information is currently available on the descendants of Oliver Samuel May.

3. Eva Belle May (Charles Franklin, Samuel) married Charles Bridgeford and lived in Eastern Nebraska. Following Bridgeford's death in an automobile accident, Eva Belle married Charles Carpenter. She died in Vallejo, California, in 1945. Eva Belle May and her husband Charles Bridgeford were the parents of six children<sup>(21)</sup>:

- |                      |                        |
|----------------------|------------------------|
| i. Jessie Bridgeford | iv. Floyd Bridgeford   |
| ii. Ethel Bridgeford | v. Floma Bridgeford    |
| iii. Leta Bridgeford | vi. Raymond Bridgeford |

4. Lennie Lee May (Charles Franklin, Samuel) married Susie Delphine Nelson on Feb. 15, 1897. He farmed in Dodge and Madison Counties in Nebraska. He died at Scottsbluff, Nebraska, on November 22, 1919. Lennie Lee May and Susie Nelson had ten children (21,23,24,25):

- i. Earl Edgar May was born September 11, 1898, in Dodge Co., Nebraska.
- ii. Ninetta Pearl May was born April 7, 1900 in Dodge Co., Nebraska.
- iii. Archie Lenard May was born June 20, 1902 in Dodge Co., Nebraska.
- iv. Thomas Ervin May was born September 2, 1904 in Dodge Co., Nebraska.
- v. Bertha Della May was born March 2, 1907 in Madison, Nebraska.
- vi. Rosa Isabell May was born February 22, 1909 in Madison, Nebraska.
- vii. Robert Allen May was born April 30, 1910, in Madison, Nebraska.
- viii. Charles Franklin May was born August 24, 1912, in Madison, Nebraska.

- ix. Susie Irene May was born November 5, 1915, in Dodge Co., Nebraska.
- x. Infant son May was born March 24, 1916, in Dodge Co., Nebraska and died shortly after birth.

5. Elsie Abigail May (Charles Franklin, Samuel), the older of the twins, sometimes used the name Elsa rather than Elsie<sup>(17)</sup>. She believed, however, that her parents had named her Elsie. Elsie Abigail May worked in a bakery in Madison, Nebraska, before her marriage to Edward Mark Twing (1882-1947), the son of Henry Clay Twing and Susan Flower, in Madison in 1906. The lineage of Henry Clay Twing has been covered extensively in reference 26. The maternal line of Susan Flower, the Dow Family, is treated in reference 27. For over a year Elsie and her husband lived at Morrill, Nebraska, where he, in partnership with his uncle, Lorenzo Flower, was constructing an irrigation system. Following brief stops in Gillette and Sheridan, Wyoming, for construction work they acquired the roadhouse at Banner, Wyoming, which they operated for seven years. A major portion of the management and operation of this facility that provided lodging and services for travellers between Buffalo and Sheridan fell on Elsie Abigail May; her husband was fully occupied in construction work and later in ranching. In 1916 they sold their Banner roadhouse, acquired a ranch northwest of Buffalo and started operating it. They remained in the Buffalo area until their deaths. He passed away in 1947 and she on May 29, 1970. They were both interred in the cemetery at Buffalo, Elsie Abigail May and her husband were the parents of eight children<sup>(3)</sup>:

- i. Kenneth Wilbur Twing was born September 9, 1907, at Gillette, Wyo.
- ii. Violet Fae Twing was born October 19, 1908, at Banner, Wyoming.
- iii. Henry Dale Twing was born December 4, 1910, at Banner, Wyoming.
- iv. Buryl Claire Twing was born on November 23, 1913, at Banner; he died on November 27, 1913, and was buried at Big Horn, Wyoming.
- v. Hazel Marie Twing was born on July 18, 1915, at Banner, Wyoming.
- vi. Essie May Twing was born on March 3, 1918, near Buffalo, Wyoming.
- vii. Loyd Edward Twing was born on February 13, 1920, near Buffalo, Wyo.
- viii. Robert Eugene Twing was born on February 8, 1925, near Buffalo, Wyo.

6. Eltie Catherine May (Charles Franklin, Samuel), like her twin sister, frequently employed a modification of her first name, Elta, rather than the one given by her parents. She married Ralph Wilson on October 1, 1893, when she was fourteen years old. They lived in north central Nebraska and were the parents of three children<sup>(21)</sup>:

- i. Roy Wilson
- ii. Earl Wilson
- iii. Elsie Wilson, who died in infancy.

Later she married J.F. (Joe) Burt, a second cousin, who was a descendant of Lorinda Keeler, sister of Thomas Keeler, the maternal grandfather of Eltie Catherine May. Eltie and Joe Burt also lived in Nebraska. For a number of years prior to her death in 1968 she lived with her twin sister in Buffalo. By her marriage to J.F. Burt she had seven children<sup>(21)</sup>:

- |                        |                  |
|------------------------|------------------|
| iv. Hazel Lorinda Burt | viii. Coral Burt |
| v. Harold Joseph Burt  | ix. Mabel Burt   |
| vi. Joseph Wilbur Burt | x. Merle Burt    |
| vii. Creola Burt       |                  |

7. Charles Samuel May (Charles Franklin, Samuel) married Emma Wells on October 12, 1911<sup>(28)</sup>. After her death ca 1918 he married Ethel Penhollow. They adopted a son, Paul Wesley. Charles Samuel May passed away on January 30, 1955, at Pilger, Nebraska<sup>(21)</sup>. Ethel Penhollow May died November 22, 1966.

8. Margaret Pearl May (Charles Franklin, Samuel) was always known by her brothers and sisters as Maggie. She married Harley McGinnis and they farmed near Norfolk, Nebraska. She continued to reside at her farm home, about six miles south of Norfolk, until she passed away on November 1, 1971. She was buried in the Prospect Hill Cemetery, Norfolk. Margaret Pearl May and her husband were the parents of two sons<sup>(1,21)</sup>:

- i. Irvin Neil McGinnis was born in Madison County, Nebraska.
- ii. Ross Wayne McGinnis was born in Madison County, Nebraska.

9. Thomas Lorin May (Charles Franklin, Samuel) married Emma Cato. They were the parents of one daughter<sup>(21)</sup>:

- i. Helen Irene May.

After divorcing his first wife he married Bess Helmes; they adopted a son, Lyle.

10. Olive Fern May (Charles Franklin, Samuel) married Phillip Lindstrom on September 25, 1919 in Nebraska. They farmed for a number of years near Fremont, Nebraska. In 1924 they moved to Colorado where they purchased a farm over twenty miles southeast of Sterling. Their primary crop was wheat. Lucy Emma Keeler May lived with the Lindstroms for over twenty years on their wheat farm. Phillip Lindstrom died on November 14, 1967. Olive Fern resides at 317 North Division Avenue, Sterling, Colorado 80751. She and her husband were the parents of one son and two daughters<sup>(19,21)</sup>:

- i. Ross James Lindstrom was born at Ames, Nebraska in 1921.
- ii. Ruth Ione Lindstrom was born at Fremont, Nebraska in 1923.
- iii. Lyla Mae Lindstrom was born at Sterling, Colorado in 1925.

11. Raymond Edwin May (Charles Franklin, Samuel) accompanied his parents when they moved to California in 1914 and remained after his parents' return to Nebraska. He became a carpenter and worked for many years in this craft. Later he and both of his sons worked on various construction projects in California. He married Julia Elizabeth Kent on June 26, 1917. She was born on September 24, 1898 in Sitka, Alaska, the daughter of Edward Alfred Kent and Mabel Love Eaton. Raymond Edwin May and his wife had three children<sup>(10, 28)</sup>:

- i. Robert Edwin May was born May 11, 1918.
- ii. Lysle Lawrence May was born August 13, 1920 at Ames, Nebraska.
- iii. Gladys Elizabeth May was born December 2, 1926 at Hollywood, Calif.

Raymond and his wife continue to live at their long time residence, 2217 Falling Leaf Avenue, South San Gabriel, California 91770.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The assistance of Raymond May and his wife Elizabeth Kent May; Mrs. Margaret McGinnis; Mrs. Olive May Lindstrom and her husband Phillip; Mrs. Eltie May Burt and Mrs. Elsie May Twing are gratefully acknowledged. The interest and encouragement of these relatives, one being a grandmother, provided the incentives to conduct the research required for this article. Both the Nebraska State Historical Society and the State Historical Society of Wisconsin provided useful information that broadened the coverage of this study. Of particular help was Miss Margaret Gleason, Reference Librarian, at the latter institution. Our friends and fellow genealogists, Jack and Frances Ehrig, provided a critical review of our manuscript and printed our material at their Locust Grove Press. Their involvement and interest are sincerely appreciated.

1850 U. S. CENSUS, CAPE GIRARDEAU COUNTY, MISSOURI, Keller, Quinton, & Jo Ann, for St. Louis Genealogical Society, St. Louis, Mo., 1972. 160 pp., $5.30.

Location of Cape Girardeau County (illustrated by maps), origin of the name, changes in population, and an explanation of the arrangement of the transcription are all included in the introduction to this book, which was received as an exchange for the TCGS Gallatin County, Illinois, 1850 Federal Census. The compilers give special emphasis to a point not always mentioned in comparable publications: "We have not attempted to give all of the information that you will find in the census. Whenever possible - - PLEASE CHECK THE MICROFILM YOURSELF." Census page numbers, household numbers, name, age, sex, and place of birth are included for every individual. Indexing is by surname only.

~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~

1875 KANSAS STATE CENSUS, RILEY COUNTY, Earl G. Darby, 1412 LeGore Lane, Manhattan KS 66502, 1969, 193 pp.

An exciting thing about this transcription of a state census is the way in which it differs from a federal census. Each individual was asked not only the place of his birth, but the place where he last resided before moving to Kansas. In the case of large families, this can be of great help in setting dates of migration. For example, an Osbourne family consisted of the parents, both born in Indiana, and five children, all born in Kansas, but the previous place of residence for the parents was Iowa, a bit of information that would not have shown up on a federal census. This volume is printed in purple ditto, and all information has apparently been transcribed from the original. It is arranged alphabetically, so that neighbors are not easily apparent, but family and household numbers have been copied, so that it would be possible to turn to the microfilm for this information. Exchanged for TCGS 1880 Census, Walla Walla County, Washington Territory.

1880 FEDERAL CENSUS, POTTAWATOMIE COUNTY, KANSAS

1880 FEDERAL CENSUS, MONTGOMERY COUNTY, KANSAS

1880 FEDERAL CENSUS, WABAUNSEE COUNTY, KANSAS

Earl G. Darby, 1412 LeGore Lane, Manhattan KS 66502

A township map follows the introduction to each of these indexes. Questionable spellings are indicated by an appropriate mark, and when necessary, page numbers are given as well as townships. The material transcribed is as follows: Dwelling number, family number, name, color, sex, age, relationship to head of household, occupation, birthplace, father's birthplace, mother's birthplace, and township or town. The compiler makes the refreshingly honest comment, "Because of the difficulty in deciphering the script of the enumerator, your compiler had trouble with the correct spelling of the names." These indexes were exchanged for the TCGS 1880 Censuses for Yakima and Whitman Counties, Washington Territory, and for the 1850 Census, Gallatin County, Illinois.

INDEX TO THE 1850 FEDERAL POPULATION CENSUS OF OHIO, Ohio Family Historians, published by Lida Flint Harshman, Box 556, Mineral Ridge OH 44440, 1972, 1098 pp., $75.00.

Use of computers is proving as valuable to genealogists as their early hopes held out. This computer indexing of 526,819 names makes available to everyone the information in the original census, which covered 1,980,329 persons. The group of researchers, from New York City to Portland OR, extracted the full name of every head of a household and of every person whose name differed from that of the head of the household. A code following each name indicates the county of residence, the township or city ward, and the page on which the name is to be found on the microfilm. Endpapers show the entire state of Ohio, every township, and every county seat. Since a high percentage of emigrants coming west passed through Ohio on the way, and since many families remained there for at least a generation, this index to the 1850 census, which took place in a period of great mobility, is a necessary tool and should be in all libraries.

1880 UNITED STATES CENSUS OF MASON COUNTY, WASHINGTON TERRITORY, Jean Allyn Smeltzer, 4327 N. E. Glisan St., Portland OR 97213; 1972; 14 pp.; $2.00; gift of the compiler.

A preface to this transcription and index gives the history of Mason County and a discussion of the makeup of the population, which included many Indian or half-Indian families. Total population was 639 persons. Information transcribed from the microfilm includes dwelling house number (same as family number throughout the county), name, color, sex, age, relationship to head of household, marital status, occupation, months unemployed in current year, birthplace, and birthplace of father and mother. Carefully prepared and attractively bound. Additional information is keyed by number to a legend on page 12, as for instance, "cannot read, cannot write."

QUERIES in the TCGS BULLETIN are now to be indexed in QUERY NAME INDEX, a new venture of Homestead Press, Drawer 220, Kenmore WA 98028, a project of Roy and Barie Colbert. To be known briefly as "QNI" the new publication will be a quarterly with the first issue in April. Regular subscription will be $5.00, but there is a pre-publication offer of $4.00. This will be a FULL NAME INDEX, not just surnames. The same surnamed persons in a single query will be listed together with a reference code to the periodical in which the query was published. A separate section will be the reference section, a list of the periodicals from which the entries were taken. The publishers offer the additional service of photocopying each query for a small fee.

Only some 80 periodicals were chosen to start this new index, but a service as needed as this is sure to grow. TCGS members should receive so much additional coverage from this added feature that queries should simply pour in from now on!

RESEARCHER (Tacoma Genealogical Society), August 1972, p. 11 -- A detailed article on holdings of the Washington State Library, a summary of a talk given by Mrs. Hazel Mills, research consultant and librarian in the Washington/ Northwest Room of the library.

THE SEARCHER ( Southern California Genealogical Society), Vol. IX, No. 2, p. 35 "Who Am I?" is a fascinating article on the possibility that an adult who was adopted in infancy could petition the court to open the records so he could identify his natural parents. It is a reprint of an article by Linda C. Burgess, former director of the Pierce-Warwick Adoption Service of the Washington Home for Foundlings, which appeared in the Los Angeles Times in July.

ASH TREE ECHO (Fresno CA Genealogical Society), October 1972, p. 195 -- Another article showing increasing interest in the Germans who came to America after several generations in Russia. Titled "Germans to Russia then America, and Kleim (Gleim)-Nielsen Genealogies," the article is by JoAnn Kleim. It has the added advantage of being documented.

BEAVER BRIEFS ( Willamette Valley Genealogical Society, Oregon), October 1972, pp. 2-6 -- Oregon Pioneer Ancestry Honor Roll, a list signed by visitors to the society's exhibit at the Oregon State Fair. Items listed were the name and residence of the visitor, the name of the pioneer ancestor, the year he came to Oregon, and his relationship to the visitor.

KALAMAZOO VALLEY FAMILY NEWSLETTER (Michigan), September 1972 -- A thorough study of Allegan County MI, by townships, profusely illustrated with maps, so full of information that it makes the reader regret not having had Allegan County ancestors.

IROQUOIS STALKER (Iroquois County, Ill., Genealogical Society) -- has reprinted Nos. 1 and 2 of Volume I, a project which might be considered by many other societies. Indexes are so much more meaningful when a full run of issues can be found on a library's shelves.

APPLELAND BULLETIN (Genealogical Society of North Central Washington), Fall 1972, Vol. I, No. 1 -- A new exchange. Some of the articles in this publication by our new neighbor are BODWELL family records, M'COY family records, Six Generations of ARNOLDS, Washington State Pioneers Necrology - 1900, and the society's constitution and bylaws.

CUMBERLAND & COLES GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY (Illinois), Vol. II, No. 4, October 1972. Another new exchange. This issue includes Early Cumberland County Marriages, Early Birth Records of Coles County, and an index from Vol. I, No. 1, through Vol. II, No. 4.

LIFELINER (Riverside CA Genealogical Society), Vol. VIII, No. 2, p. 51 -- an appealing new feature, Penny Pinchers' Pointers, consists of free or low-cost services. For instance:

Write the Library of Congress for the names of the library or libraries which have a copy of the particular book you need.
(Free service.)

-- PEDIGREE CHARTS --

Charts in this department are those of members and their spouses. Numbering is that used on most commercial pedigree charts. The person submitting the chart is 1, his father is 2, his mother is 3, his paternal grandfather 4, etc. A person's father is always twice his own number, and his mother's number is his own, doubled, plus one.

NOTE FROM YOUR EDITOR: Such prompt results came from my appeal for others to invest in an 1880 History of Highland County, Ohio, that I am inspired to try again. Who would like to help purchase the 1840 Census of the Republic of Texas? It was compiled by Gifford White and published at $15.00 by the Pemberton Press, 1 Pemberton Parkway, Austin TX 78703. Get in touch with Frances Ehrig if you are interested. Again, the book would be purchased and used on the same basis as was the Library of Congress Bibliography.

The Highland County, Ohio, History has just about made the rounds of the purchasers and will soon be on the shelves of the Richland L. D. S. Branch Library.

--- SAGA OF THE YOCHIMS ---

( This manuscript was supplied by Barbara Gore Williams, TCGS member whose pedigree chart appears on page 21, with the notation "This was typed about 1963 by my Aunt Marg. Rosin. )

To begin the story---

They were from Strasbourg in Germany.

In 1765 Catherine the Great in Russia offered German farmers land on the Steppes of southern Russia if they would farm and show the Russians how to farm. The Storm family, which was Mom's great-grandmother's, started walking to Odessa in 1765. They started with a baby in arms, and by the time they got to Odessa near the Black Sea, the baby was six years old.

The old story goes -- that along the trek south they lost a child in the wilderness - hunted - but never did find him.

Grandfather Mike Yochim was born on April 15, 1857. The Russians had moved into their town, and each family was forced to house a Russian officer during the Russo-Turk War. Mike Yochim's mother was in bed, with Mike only six days old. The Russian officer was so cruel to his aide. He beat him so severely that it frightened the mother so much she died. He was then raised by his sisters.

Magdeline Kuntz, our grandmother, was born in 1859. They lived in a small settlement called Katherinstahl, close by Odessa. Three of grandmother's brothers were Cossacks in the Russian army. They later came to America.

Mike and Magdeline were married around the year 1878. Mike Yochim's father had remarried later on to an eccentric, mean, old woman. No one could stand her, and after he died, the relatives had to take care of her, and as she was so mean, they offered the newly married couple her home and her possessions when she died if they would take care of her during her lifetime. They agreed--and did--my mother said she could remember so vividly how mean she was.

Mom was around six years old--she said she would not let them play in the yard but made them play in a coal pile.

Mom never forgot that.

Well, anyhow, this stepgrandmother only lived a year or so after they started taking care of her. They received the land and the home, although the relatives were muchly perturbed that they had gotten it so soon. As you read the book you can see how the Russians started in to treat the Germans. The Germans never fraternized with the Russians in the hundred years they were located there.

Our grandfather saw the light in time and sold the property and set sail for New York in 1892. They left on a ship called the Victoria. They had to wait for the ship some time in the Crimea, as the ship was busy hauling immigrants. They had first class staterooms, but he preferred to stay with friends and relatives in steerage--more fun.

Trip took six weeks. Arrived in New York through Ellis Island. Grandfather immediately took out citizenship papers for all the family. Mom saw the Statue of Liberty and had her first taste of a banana.

They entrained for North Dakota where some of the relatives had gone on ahead of them. Each family coming in from the Steppes had all their various seeds with them, saved in little cloth sacks. Our grandmother held the purse for all those travelling with them. She was a good manager.

Our grandfather bought a homestead out of Mandan. First they lived in a sod house. They later made handmade blocks of mud, water and dung. They dried them in the sun and built a block house. Maggie remembers it as nice and warm. Later on he built a wooden house, and just as they started to move in, it burned to the ground.

Ida was born in the sod house.

After the fire, grandfather said that was it -- and they moved on to Bismarck and bought a house.

Maggie says she was in awe of her uncles -- the Cossacks. They would show off to the kids the Cossack uniforms which they brought along to America. Maggie said the Russian boots had accordion pleats up the side, baggy pants and embroidered white shirts, lamb-lined overcoat and hat. She said the coats were of the finest material ever seen.

-- So you see this small bit of history goes 'way back in time, as our grandmother lived to be 93 years old. Died in 1949.

In 1923 Maggie and Rosie were walking along the Seattle waterfront, and Rosie said, "Look, there is the boat we came over on." And sure enough, there lay the Victoria. She was then used as a freight boat and was still painted black as when they came over on her.

-- HOUGHS AND HUFFS IN THE 1880 SOUNDEX --

Granville W. Hough, 1026 N. Richman Ave., Fullerton CA 92635, has sent the TCGS BULLETIN the following information gleaned from the Soundex portion of the 1880 U. S. Census.

In order to determine educational needs, special arrangements were made in 1880 to determine all U. S. households with children under ten years of age. The special lists which resulted were arranged by state in what is called the SOUNDEX system. Between one-fourth and one-half of all census entries were recorded in this system. . . The compilation which follows is alphabetized by family head, gives family members in order of wife and children, and shows ages and states of birth for each. If the state of birth is identical to the state in which the person was recorded in 1880, it is not shown. After each family, the county, district (town, city, or township), and census entry identification number (volume, edition, sheet and line) is given. Finally, the lineage of the family is given when it is known.
