-- PEDIGREE CHARTS --

Charts in this department are those of members and their spouses. Numbering is that used on most commercial pedigree charts. The person submitting the chart is 1, his father is 2, his mother is 3, his paternal grandfather 4, etc. A person's own father is always twice his own number, and his mother's number is his own, doubled, plus one.

GRISWOLD LINKAGE, edited by Charles D. & Edna W. Townsend, 5721 Antietam Drive, Sarasota FL 33581, former editors of CAR-DEL SCRIBE. $5.50 per year for at least four and possibly six issues. The Townsends give great emphasis to the fact that they are as interested in families that have intermarried with the Griswolds as with the Griswold lines themselves. Many specially set up Griswold family group sheets, lots of book reviews, and one of Mrs. T's helpful columns on research in general. Review copy received.

Laybourne, William H. and Harland Ayres Laybourn, THE LAYBOURN(E) FAMILY, privately published by W. H. Laybourne, 4204 N. 78th Way, Scottsdale AZ 85251, 1979. xx, 142 pp., hard cover, a few photos, several pedigree charts. Gift to the society from Hal Laybourn of Richland, co-author.

Professionally typeset and well printed in brown ink on heavy ivory paper, this is a handsome book. The research, based on an earlier study by William H. Laybourne's father Stanley, appears to be carefully done back to the immigrant, Christopher Laybourn, and his wife, Margaret Newlove. There is, however, almost no documentation presented. The family line in England is extremely hard to follow. Transcripts of two letters from the Somerset Herald of Arms at the College of Arms in London refer to "typed pedigrees enclosed," but none of the pedigrees in the book appear to be copies of these. Some kind of generation-and-individual numbering system would have made the book easier to follow, and the lack of an index is always to be deplored.

Benson, Donna D., compiler, 1860 CENSUS, TULARE COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, Alphabetized, Minimal Listing with an Enumeration of the Indian Population. 78 pp., mimeo, stapled and taped. Gift of Sequoia Genealogical Society, Inc. The information given for each entry consists of name, age, occupation, birthplace, and page found on the original census. Color and sex are given only when deemed necessary.

Sergeant in Virginia battalion in French and Indian Wars from Hanover County VA. Bought land located on Moorman's River near Buck Elbow Mt. in Albemarle Co. VA in 1782, paying 6,000 pounds of tobacco for it. Died 1820 or 1821 in Albemarle Co. VA. Married HULDA DABNEY?

Children:

JOHN B., mar. MALINDA MAUPIN 22 May 1805, Albemarle Co. VA
DABNEY, mar. FRANCES _____ (deed book record)
THOMAS, mar. MARY (POLLY) BALLARD 1821, buried Lewis Co. WVA
NANCY ELLIS, mar. LEWIS GILLASPY 13 Apr. 1802 (Bartelott signed marriage bond)

The following MAY have been children of Bartelott:

NELLY ELLIS, mar THOMAS POLSON 24 Aug. 1786 (Bondsman was JOHN ALLEN)
ELIZABETH ELLIS, mar. JOHN MULLINS 20 Apr. 1802 (Bondsman was JOHN QUARLES)
DUDLEY ELLIS, mar. ELIZABETH WATTS 10 June 1802 (applied for license 9 June)

Mrs. McElroy has a copy of a letter written to Glenn Johnson 10 Dec. 1978 by Mrs. Melvin Dant, R. R. 3, Princeton IL 61356, some of which is in conflict with information given above. It is quoted here, in part:

. . . Much time, effort and money have been spent on trying to learn something about Bartelott Ellis. From Census Records and deeds etc., it is believed that Bartelott is the father of Dabney Ellis. Dabney is my gr-gr-grandfather. He was born circa 1780 in Albemarle Co. VA, married Frances Watson there in Mar. 1808. Left Va. for Ill. in 1830 and came to Bureau Co., Ill. in 1833 where he lived near Dover until his death in 1840. His wife survived him for more than 40 years. She was born in Ky. but moved to Albemarle Co. when she was one year old -- this by 1789. The 7 children of this couple were born in Albemarle Co.; they came with their parents to Bureau Co. Three of these, Abbott, my gr-grandfather, and two of his sisters, Frances and Martha, continued to make their homes in this county and died here.

Deeds have named Thomas and John B as sons of Bartelott. However Bartelott deeded land to Dabney and apparently they owned land adjacent to each other. No will was found in Albemarle Co. and it is assumed he moved to Ky. where he bought 400 acres of land on Seven Mile Creek near the Ohio River. This deed of Oct. 1818. No county in Ky. was mentioned but the deed recorded in Albemarle Co. for the purchase of Ky. land by Bartelott Ellis. In 1822 the deed for this land was delivered to Thomas Ellis as B.'s attorney. Perhaps Bartelott died by the 1822 date. Piecemeal, Bartelott may have had a daughter Hulda who died by Dec. 1828. Hulda left in her will articles to her Mother Mary and to her sister Polly. To confirm my belief, there are many land transactions between John B., Thomas and Dabney in Albemarle Co., and so I assume that these three were brothers.

I have a letter written by Thomas Ellis to his brother Dabney dated July 20, 1835. The return is difficult to read but HARDINS is quite legible but the next word Ban or Tarr with the third perhaps Co. Anyhow, in the letter Thomas tells of difficult financial times in Virginia and that he would like to come to Ill. However, they had just had their 8th child who was 4 months old and named Wm. Johnson Ellis. He also writes of a Sunday School at Brick Chapel at Flat Rock. He further writes that he has not heard from Joel Ellis for a long time. He also writes of George Craig. In Abbott Ellis' diary, Abbott records that Uncle George Craig came to Ill. to visit and returned to his Virginia home.

From marriage records John B. Ellis married Malinda Maupin, 1805. Dabney married 1808 and Thomas did not marry Mary Ballard until 1821. I assumed that Thomas was one of the younger sons. Yet this can not be true as you have the 1776 year of birth for Thomas; he must have married late in life. . . .

From HARRIET ELLIS JOHNSON's scrapbook comes this hand-written bit of ELLIS history:

"It was Lewis County, West Virginia, where Father was born. He came to Kansas with his parents when he was four years old. They first settled near Ottawa and later moved to the Quaker Community. Grandfather JOHN ELLIS helped to build the Quaker Church which now stands there. Mother's father (my grandfather JAMES DUNBAR) helped to build the first Quaker Church, which was made of logs. Grandfather JOHN ELLIS had a post office in his house. The P.O. was Mt. Nebo, Kansas. When my father was a young man he carried the mail (by pony express--horse back) from Mt. Nebo to LeRoy one day and back the next. Fred's father (ISAAC JOHNSON) carried the mail from Mt. Nebo to Osawatomie one day and back the next (by pony express). HAZEL ELLIS EASTWOOD says that the P.O. pigeon holes were there at the old homestead when her folks, UNCLE BERT's family, still lived there. My, couldn't a great history book have been written about their lives! (Too late now.)" Dated Wed., Mar. 15, 1967.

Remember the letter from Netti Schreiner-Yantis, president of the National Genealogical Society, about dispersal of the National Archives in Washington DC? It was reprinted in the October TCGS BULLETIN. Your letters of protest were effective. The Winter 1980 Newsletter of the NGS included this letter to Mrs. Yantis:

Mrs. Netti Schreiner-Yantis, President
National Genealogical Society
1921 Sunderland Place, NW.
Washington, DC 20036

Dear Mrs. Schreiner-Yantis:

I have just seen a copy of the January 18 memo sent by you and Rabbi Malcolm Stern to the members of the National Genealogical Society.

Because of the concern demonstrated by individual researchers and by organizations such as yours, we have suspended the dispersal of records from Washington to regional branches. We will review the records originally recommended for dispersal and will be consulting appropriate users of the records for their views.

You may be assured that there is no intention of disrupting research or of making it more difficult. You also have my assurance that the National Genealogical Society will be consulted before any dispersal of records is resumed.

Sincerely,

JAMES E. O'NEILL
Acting Archivist
of the United States
